The British & Foreign Bible Society

It makes the Bible the cheapest and most accessible book in the world.

It has helped the Gospel to speak in 579 different tongues, and publishes a new version about every five or six weeks.

It provides the Foreign Missions of almost every Reformed Church with the editions they need, without expense to the Missions themselves.

It supplies Methodist Missions throughout the world with the Scriptures in 107 different forms of speech.

It is spending over £1,400 every working day; and for each £1 only about 8s. 6d. comes back to it as the proceeds of sales.

It stands in urgent need of ampler support. While the demands on its resources constantly increase, the production of its books is far more expensive. Its huge popular editions now cost the Society two or three times as much as they did before the war.

Send a contribution to the Secretaries, the Rev. J. H. RITSON, M.A., D.D., and the Rev. C. H. K. BOUGHTON, M.A., B.D.

Thirteen complete and separate Dickens Programmes, from "Pickwick" to "Great Expectations," each lasting about two hours. In each the essential scenes are built up and the principal characters faithfully delineated, making a complete and continuous story.

LONDON AND ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY

"Mr. Charles Andrews . . . thrilled a seasonable audience (of nearly 4,000) at the Colston Hall, Bristol, with his rendering of the 'Christmas Carol.' . . . The large building was crowded within six minutes of the opening of the doors, and hundreds were regretfully turned away."—Western Daily Press, December, 1922.

"A masterly performance."—London Dickensian.

"As a reciter of Dickens, Mr. Andrews must assuredly stand alone."—Essex Times.

"Mr. Andrews passed from one character to another with amazing agility . . . a genuinely creative artist."—Birmingham Daily Post.

"Mr. Andrews has achieved considerable fame as an exponent of Dickens . . . that reputation is fully justified."—Belfast Telegraph.

"Mr. Andrews is one of the finest authorities on the great English novelist. With intensely dramatic effect . . . he takes his audience through the essential scenes of the story, giving his hearers, even those who know their book, a more thrilling idea of the grip and immense variety of the genius of the Great Victorian. . . ."—Yorkshire Post.

is always an acceptable gift.

Frank Boreham has written nineteen volumes, fifteen of which consist of racy and unconventional religious essays, full of good and unexpected things. He has the rare gift of penetrating to the heart of familiar texts and proverbial sayings, and every essay is an example of this genius for getting at the depths behind what we call the commonplace.

Mr. Boreham's first volume, "The Luggage of Life," was issued first fourteen years ago, but is still as popular as ever, fourteen editions having been called for.

His four volumes on great texts are unique studies of transformed lives, shaped by an arresting text.

You can get copies of his works from any bookseller, and the publishers will be pleased to send a full list.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Q. II. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of our Foreign Missions?

A. 1. Acting on the sanction given by the last Conference, the Missionary Committee has held special services in all the Home Districts for the purpose of summoning the Methodist Church prayerfully to consider the present spiritual condition of the world and the call which it appears that God is giving to this generation of Christians to carry the Gospel to all nations. Those who have been commissioned to undertake this work have met the ministers and workers of our Church in every district, and the Conference records its thankfulness for the earnest desire everywhere manifested to discover what is the Will of God concerning His Church and its relation to the world. Much, however, remains to be done, and the Conference appeals to all ministers, local preachers, class leaders, and workers amongst the young to devote themselves more and more to the sacred task of explaining the nature of the Kingdom of God and calling into its service all the resources and capabilities of our families, schools, and congregations. It is hoped that what has been done in district centres in the past year will be done again in the next year in every circuit, not with the aid of special visitors, but by careful organisation, much prayer, and enthusiastic co-operation on the part of the ministers and lay workers of every kind in each locality. The people of Methodism are affectionately entreated to tell the men and women of the present day that the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.

2. The Conference thankfully recognises the fact that the income of the Society is greater by £11,500 than that of the previous year, but notes with concern that in the year 1925 the income was again insufficient to meet the expenditure. The report presented by the Missionary Committee shows that the actual expenditure was within a very small sum of the estimate presented to the last Conference, but that the income from the Home Church fell short of the need by £15,614, and that this sum has been carried forward as a first charge on the income of 1926. So clamant is the call for advance on the field, and so unprecedented are the opportunities, that it is impossible, without the most painful humiliation, to reduce the expenditure or even to maintain it at a stationary figure. An increased expenditure of some £3,000 has been sanctioned for 1926 in the faith that the Methodist Church will endorse this action. Unless there is to be a financial situation at the end of 1926 which will have very serious consequences for the work, it is estimated that the income from the Home Church of Great Britain and Ireland should be one-sixth more than it was in 1925. The Conference, rejoicing in the activities of the Church's many enthusiastic workers, prays for and expects a continuous widening of the area of those interested, and appeals to the Methodist people to accept this responsibility not as an exaction but as an opportunity for showing their love for their Lord and their earnest desire that His Kingdom may come on earth as it has in heaven.

3. The Conference invites the Wesleyan Methodist Church to join with other Churches in observing November 30, 1926, as a day of special intercession on behalf of world-wide Missionary work.

4. The Annual Sermon on behalf of the British and Foreign Bible Society shall be preached at Wesley's Chapel, London, on Sunday, April 24, 1927.

5. The Rev. Charles W. Andrews, B.A., B.D., is appointed Chairman of the Officers' Meeting for the ensuing year.

6. General Treasurers: Mr. George F. Byrom is re-appointed, and Mr. Harold W. Payne is appointed for the ensuing year.

SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE: TRUST PROPERTY.

The General Committee of the Missionary Society reports that, after the most careful examination, the South African Conference finds that all its property—including that acquired by that Conference since it was established—rests in the British Conference. In view of the request of the South African Conference that the Yearly Conference shall now make the delegation of its powers irrevocable (see Minutes, 1926, Appendix III), the Committee, having considered the whole matter, informs the Conference that the Missionary Society sees no objection of any kind to the proposal to transfer to the South African Conference all its rights in property held by that Conference at the time of its constitution or acquired since.

In order to enable the President to take the necessary action, the Conference adopts the following Resolution:

Whereas the Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists as constituted by Deed Poll of the Reverend John Wesley dated the 28th day of February 1784 did in the year 1882 by resolution constitute a South African Conference of the People called Methodists and define the jurisdiction powers and functions of such South African Conference.

And whereas the said Yearly Conference by the resolution aforesaid provided that the said South African Conference was to be affiliated with the said Yearly Conference, and delegated to or conferred upon the said South African Conference certain powers and privileges in virtue of the power of delegation conferred upon the said Yearly Conference by the Methodist Conference Act 1876.

And whereas the Methodist Conference Act 1876 provides that the Yearly Conference may delegate all or any of its powers privileges and advantages with or without the power of revoking the same.

And whereas in delegating to or conferring upon the said South African Conference the powers and privileges aforesaid the said Yearly Conference provided that the said South African Conference might legislate in regard to the subject matters so delegated and alter the constitution aforesaid subject to the limitation that such legislation or alteration should only come into operation when approved of by the said Yearly Conference, and provided in other respects for a certain measure of control over and supervision of the affairs of the said South African Conference.

And whereas the said South African Conference is now desirous that the delegation aforesaid shall be made irrevocable and that any legislation or alteration of the said constitution should no longer be subject to such approval and that the control over and supervision of its affairs by the Yearly Conference and the affiliation aforesaid should cease, all with the intent that the said South African Conference should become an independent and autonomous body in control of a religious organisation to be called the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa, consisting of the People called Methodists within the area of its jurisdiction, having the same doctrines and objects as the said Yearly Conference and the People called Methodists in Great Britain.

And whereas in order to achieve that object it will be necessary for the said South African Conference inter alia to seek power from the Parliament of the Union of South Africa vesting the various properties within the jurisdiction of the said South African Conference, presently held in trust for the purposes of the People called Methodists in Trustees for such of its purposes as the South African Conference may from time to time appoint and declaring the trusts relating thereto, and such other powers as may be necessary to achieve the object aforesaid.

And whereas the said Yearly Conference is favourably disposed to the desires of the South African Conference and is agreeable to do such things as are in its power, and to express its concurrence in such other steps as are necessary in order to effect the object aforesaid, subject to the limitation imposed by Section 7 of the Methodist Conference Act 1876, and to such safeguards as are necessary to ensure the maintenance by the South African Conference and the organisation it controls of the doctrines and the general rules and usages of the People called Methodists.

Now therefore this Yearly Conference resolves as follows:

(1) That any delegation of its powers contained in the Plan and Constitution of the said South African Conference as originally resolved upon in the year 1882, and in any amendment thereof, be and it is hereby declared to be henceforth irrevocable; and the said Plan and Constitution are amended accordingly.

(2) That the provisoes contained in Clauses 5 and 14 of the said Plan and Constitution whereby the legislation or alteration therein referred to shall only come into operation when this Conference shall have approved the same be and they are deleted and the said Plan and Constitution are amended accordingly.

(3) That the provision contained in Clause 7 of the said Plan and Constitution whereby the appointment of the President of the next South African Conference from time to time shall rest with the Yearly Conference and the references consequent thereupon in Clauses 9, 10 and 13 be and they are deleted and the said Plan and Constitution are amended accordingly.

(4) That the references to affiliation contained in Clauses 1, 7 and 16 of the said Plan and Constitution be and they are hereby deleted, and the said Plan and Constitution are amended accordingly.

(5) That it approves the resolutions of the said South African Conference passed in April 1926 in similar terms to the foregoing resolutions numbered 1 to 4 inclusive and resolves that the President of the South African Conference for the time being be notified accordingly.

(6) That in resolving as aforesaid it records that there being no Trust Deed founded upon the Deed Poll of 1784 or referring thereto which is relevant to the questions under consideration the South African Conference shall not in virtue of the resolutions aforesaid be entitled to do or suffer anything whereby any person shall be appointed or approved to the use of any land, chapel or premises conveyed or settled within its area of jurisdiction in trust for or to the use of the People called Methodists who does not conform to the doctrines and the general rules and usages of the People called Methodists, all as provided in Section 7 of the Methodist Conference Act 1876.

(7) That it concurs in the desires of the South African Conference that it should become an independent and autonomous body in control of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa, consisting of the People called Methodists within its area of jurisdiction, having the same doctrines and objects as this Conference, and the People called Methodists in Great Britain and concurs in the South African Conference resolving accordingly.

(8) That it further concurs in such steps as may be necessary being taken by the South African Conference to obtain powers from the Parliament of the Union of South Africa vesting the various properties within the jurisdiction of the South African Conference, presently held in trust for the purposes of the People called Methodists in Trustees for such of its purposes as the South African Conference may from time to time appoint, and declaring the trusts relating thereto and such other powers as may be necessary to achieve the objects aforesaid, subject however to such legislation providing for the maintenance by the South African Conference and the organisation it controls of the doctrines and the general rules and usages of the People called Methodists.

(9) That the Draft Bill, Schedule A (see Appendix III) be and it is hereby approved as the basis upon which the legislative powers aforesaid shall be sought by the said South African Conference.

3. Kingswood School.—(1) The School Year is divided into three terms and begins in September, but applications at other times will be considered if there are vacancies.

Applications should be addressed to the Head Master of the School, or to the Rev. Owen S. Watkins, C.M.G., C.B.E., K.H.C. The dates of application are:

For admission in September . . .	before May 15.
For admission in January . . .	before October 15.
For admission in April	before February 15.

Boys are not admitted before the age of ten, except after direct vote of the Governors. In the case of boys admitted by vote of the Governors under the age of ten, or at any other period of the year than September, the parent may be required by the Governors to pay for the portion of that year at the rate of £40 per annum.

Parents are advised that boys should enter the School before they pass the age of ten and a half years, unless they are able to begin the study of French at their present schools.

(2) Entrance Examination.—An examination will be set in English Composition and Grammar, English History, Geography, Scripture, Dictation, and Arithmetic. Boys aged twelve years will be expected to answer additional papers in French, Geometry, and Algebra; those aged thirteen years, papers in Latin.

Specimen Entrance Examination papers will be forwarded by the Head Master upon request, if a stamped addressed envelope be enclosed.

(3) Residence.—The ordinary period of residence shall be six years, provided that the Educational Allowances have either not been received or have been returned.

All parents of children in the School, except Widows and Supernumeraries, in addition to surrendering the Educational and Maintenance Allowances, shall pay £5 per term for the first child, and £2 10s. per term for every other child.

Power to consider applications for the reduction of these charges in exceptional cases is given to a Committee, of which the Rev. Owen S. Watkins is the Secretary.

(4) Scholarships for Extra Years.—The terms of election shall be fixed by the Governors. So far as is consonant with the trusts affecting them, the Scholarships shall be awarded as a general rule to boys in their seventeenth year. Some shall be reserved for those who have already held one Scholarship.

(5) Extra Years.—The scale of payment shall be as follows:

Sons of Supernumeraries and Widows . . .	£25
For all other sons of Ministers	£40

Such payments shall be due in three equal instalments at the beginning of each term, and shall be paid to the School direct.

In special cases the Administrative Governors have power to reduce the charge of £40.

Ministers whose sons hold Scholarships or have secured on payment an extra year shall not be entitled to either the Maintenance or Educational Allowances for that year.

(6) Notice of Removal from School.—Parents having children at the School shall be required to give three months' notice before the removal of such child or children. In the event of parents not giving such notice, the officers of the Fund shall be authorised to withhold three months' allowances, which would otherwise be payable for each such child or children. If a boy to whom an extra year has been granted be withdrawn without the required three months' notice, the parent or guardian shall pay one-fourth of the sum charged for the extra year in lieu of such notice.

(7) Travelling Expenses to and from the School of all sons of Ministers in full work shall be shared equally between all the parents.

The travelling expenses of all sons of Widows and Supernumeraries shall be paid out of the General Fund.

N.B.—The above Minute is limited to England, Scotland, and Wales, the Isle of Man, and the Channel Isles, and is further limited to third-class fare, between Bath station and the railway station nearest the homes of the boys as recorded in the Minutes of Conference, or nearest the place where the holiday is to be spent, whichever shall involve the smaller payment.

4. Trinity Hall School.—(1) The School Year is divided into three terms and begins in September. Applications for admission should be addressed to the Rev. Wesley T. Bosward, not later than March 15.

Girls shall not, in general, be admitted before the age of twelve.

Additional papers may be set in French, Geometry, and Algebra. A graduated age allowance will be made for the candidates, and older girls will be expected to reach a correspondingly higher standard.

Specimen Entrance Examination papers will be forwarded by the Head Mistress upon request, if a stamped addressed envelope be enclosed.

(3) Residence.—The ordinary period of residence shall be four years, provided that the Educational Allowances have either not been received or have been returned. In special cases, when, in the opinion of the Governors and the General Committee, it is deemed desirable, the period of residence "on the foundation" may be extended to five or six years.

All parents of children in the School, except Widows and Supernumeraries, in addition to surrendering the Educational and Maintenance Allowances, shall pay £5 per term for the first child, and £2 10s. per term for every other child.

Power to consider applications for the reduction of these charges in exceptional cases is given to a Committee, of which the Rev. Owen S. Watkins is the Secretary.

(4) Extra Years.— The scale of payment shall be as follows:

Daughters of Supernumeraries and Widows . .	£25
For all other daughters of Ministers . . .	£40

Such payments shall be due in three equal instalments at the beginning of each term, and shall be paid to the School direct.

In special cases the Administrative Governors have power to reduce the charge of £40.

Ministers whose daughters hold Scholarships or have secured an extra year shall not be entitled to either the Maintenance or Educational Allowances.

(5) Leaving Scholarships.—A sum of £60 per annum shall be available from the General Fund for leaving Scholarships to be awarded to necessitous and eligible candidates in a sum or sums of not less than £10, on the recommendation of a small committee composed of the Local Treasurer, Local Secretary, and the Head Mistress. Such Leaving Scholarships must be held at some approved place of Higher Education.

The Regulations for Kingswood School re Notice of Removal from School and Travelling Expenses (see pages 16–17, paras. (6) and (7)) apply also to Trinity Hall School.

5. Educational Allowances for Children not at the Schools.—Not later than March 1 each Superintendent shall send to the Rev. JOSEPH T. GURNEY, 3, Salisbury Road, Wallasey, Cheshire, a particular account of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit; specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, together with the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received. Any claims delayed beyond the date of the May Synods are delayed at the risk of the parents. No claim must be made for children at the Schools.

(1) Payments will be made at Conference for the calendar year then current.

(2) Parents may begin to claim for their children when they are nine, ten, eleven, or twelve years of age on the preceding Christmas Day; but the first claim for a child who is twelve years of age on or before any Christmas Day must be made at the following Conference at the latest.

(3) Parents who have once begun to claim shall receive their payments annually for six years in all. This regulation shall not apply in the case of a candidate for admission to the Schools who has passed the Entrance Examination, but for whom there is not room at the next following re-opening.

(4) Any Educational Allowance may be returned within the calendar year in which it is received. Educational allowances received in previous years may be returned, provided that Simple Interest is paid thereon at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum for such period as they have been held.

(5) In the case of children already at School a term's notice of intention to return Educational Allowances must be given, the repayment must be made before the commencement of the term for which it is due, and permission to return the allowance must be obtained from the Governors.

All applications and payments in respect of the return of Educational Allowances should be made to the Rev. JOSEPH T. GURNEY.

6. Maintenance Allowances for Children not at the Schools.—The Connexional Allowance for each child is £8 8*s.* per year, and is payable until the completion of the eighteenth year.

The Conference directs the Chapel Committee to send the particulars to the several District Synods of those cases in which it is, in the opinion of the Committee, desirable that special inquiry should be made from time to time until it shall appear that the conditions of erection or enlargement have been fulfilled. X. Religious Oversight of Students in Universities and Colleges.

The Conference adopts the following report and refers the proposals to the Pastoral Session for the consideration of their Pastoral aspects (see p. 333).

As directed by the Conference, the Committee has given renewed and careful consideration to the question of the Religious Oversight of Methodist Students in British Universities and Colleges. By conversation and correspondence with ministers and laymen both in respect of older universities and the newer provincial non-resident universities, it has sought to obtain accurate information as to the need and the possibilities of the situation.

The Committee is deeply impressed with the rare fruitfulness of the field and with the obligation resting upon our Church to make every possible provision for the proper spiritual oversight of a section of the community to which both Church and nation look for the supply of its future leaders. Conditions in the various centres differ widely, and hereafter each university may require its own peculiar provision. For the present, however, the Committee considers the problem may be treated as three-fold : the universities of

1. Oxford and Cambridge.
2. London.
3. Provincial Cities.

(1) Oxford and Cambridge. In view of the large and increasing number of Methodist undergraduates the provision already made needs supplementing. Eventually it may be necessary to appoint a minister who shall devote his whole time to the university. But at present numbers are hardly sufficient to justify a step involving heavy initial and annual cost and also certain difficulties in circuit administration.

With the full concurrence of the Cambridge Quarterly Meeting the Committee recommends that the second minister appointed to the circuit should be considered a Home Missionary minister and supported in part by the Home Mission Committee: who shall devote himself to the university work; and that the circuit should call out an additional minister who in addition to other duties shall help the second minister in the pastoral oversight of the Church.

With respect to Oxford, the Committee has not yet been able to make proposals entirely satisfactory to the Oxford Quarterly Meeting. But negotiations are still proceeding with a view to securing the proper pastoral oversight of the important Wesley Memorial Church while allowing the second minister greater liberty to pursue his work among the undergraduates.

(2) London. The students are scattered over all parts of the metropolis. Comparatively few of the whole number are resident in central hostels. Could a probationer minister be found suitable for the work, the Home Mission Committee is ready to ask Conference to appoint him to act under the Committee's direction, to seek out and to take pastoral oversight of Methodist Students attending University classes. Meanwhile Dr. H. B. Workman has kindly consented to arrange for the holding of certain services and social functions for their benefit at Westminster College.

(3) Provincial Cities. No means exist of ascertaining who among the freshmen are members of our Church. The university roll makes no mention of Church attachment. Methodist undergraduates being up for only part of the year usually retain their membership with their local Church. Few reside in the university hostels; more in apartments. With the increase in the number of universities the proportion of students able to live at home grows larger.

But in nearly every place some attempt has been made to care for the students. In general it is partial, unorganised and left to individual initiative; and the cost of any hospitality shown falls upon the minister who proffers it.

The Committee recommends:

(a) That in every university city a minister should be definitely recognised and appointed as Chaplain to university students. The nomination might be made by the ministers' meeting of the city in time for report to the May Synod. A list of ministers so appointed to be printed in the Minutes of Conference.

(b) Ministers of Churches whence Methodist students are going up to the university should notify the chaplain of the name and if possible address of the student; and also inform the student of the name and address of the chaplain.

(c) The chaplain should form a list of Methodist students. He should have spiritual oversight of them, as far as possible interesting himself in their work, recreation, and spiritual life, endeavouring to attach them to the Church and showing occasional hospitality as may be convenient. The Home Mission Committee may make a grant to the chaplain toward the expenses of such hospitality.

XI. Rural Methodism.

The Conference receives with satisfaction the interim statement of the Home Mission Committee on Rural Methodism; it approves the method of investigation followed, and requests the Committee to continue its work with a view to presenting a full report to the Conference of 1927.

XII. Report on Chairmen of Districts.

The Conference adopts the following report and refers the proposals to the Pastoral Session for the favourable consideration of their Pastoral aspects (see p.328).

As directed by the Conference, the Committee has given careful consideration to the whole question of Chairmen of Districts in relation to the Circuits and Districts to which they are appointed. It has reviewed the proposals of the Special Committee appointed by the Conference of 1924 and also the provisions of the scheme for the appointment of a Chairman without other pastoral charge adopted by the Conference of 1919.

I.

The Committee is strongly of opinion that the only satisfactory method of adequately meeting present demands upon the time and energy of a Chairman of District and of using the increasing opportunities for important and effective service the office provides is to liberate the Chairman from circuit responsibility and appoint him to this office alone.

Assistance to a Chairman, who is also appointed to and maintained by a Circuit, by the provision of a Probationer or Supernumerary fails to give the Chairman the necessary relief from Circuit responsibility and affords the Circuit inadequate compensation for the loss of its Superintendent's services. The appointment of a Probationer, moreover, must involve a prospective increase in the number of married Ministers for whom no house is available.

On the other hand, experience in the six Districts which for the last six or seven years have had the advantage of a "separated" Chairman proves the great value of the arrangement. In each case the Synod is strongly and unanimously in favour of its continuance.

The immediate adoption of such an arrangement for each District as now constituted is, however, financially impracticable. Districts vary much in size and in financial ability. But a Chairman freed from Circuit duties could better serve a larger District than under present conditions he can meet the demands of a smaller one. If the number of Provincial Districts could be reduced to twenty, with some thirty to thirty-five Circuits in each—and on grounds of modern travelling facilities and social and commercial affinities, re-arrangement of District boundaries is highly expedient—the Committee is of opinion that the financial requirements might be met on lines already approved by the Conference.

II.

The Committee has therefore carefully reviewed its former proposals in the light of the discussions in the Synods of May 1920 and in subsequent Conferences, and now submits to the Conference the following scheme:

SCHEME FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF CHAIRMEN OF DISTRICTS, WITHOUT OTHER PASTORAL CHARGE.

1. Method of Appointment, etc.—A Chairman of District without other pastoral charge may be appointed to any District whose Synod requests such an appointment and complies with the financial and other conditions contained in the scheme; or to which on Connexional grounds the Conference considers such an appointment necessary.

A Synod desiring to avail itself of this provision should appoint (preferably at its September meeting) a committee to confer with a sub-committee of the Home Mission Committee as to ways and means and, if thought well, as to the Minister or Ministers to be nominated for the office. The recommendations of this joint committee should be laid before the May Synod, which, if it resolves to proceed with the proposals, may submit to Conference the name of one or more Ministers (not exceeding three) for appointment to the office. The Home Mission Committee at its July meeting shall also consider the Synod's resolutions and report to Conference its judgment thereupon. If Conference decide to make an appointment, its procedure shall conform to that followed in respect of appointments to Departments.

The appointment shall be for a period of three years, with power of renewal for further periods of three years, and subject to annual renomination.

2. Duties.—i. The Chairman of District shall exercise the powers and discharge the duties of administration and discipline accorded to him in existing legislation.

ii. He shall endeavour in every way to promote the spiritual prosperity of the Circuits of the District, to foster the spirit of evangelism, and to strengthen the Connexional sentiment of the Churches. In particular it shall be his duty:

(a) By arrangement with the Superintendent to visit each Circuit in the District at least once a year: inquiring into the state of the work of God, advising on questions of policy or other matters affecting the well-being of the Circuit, and if it should be deemed advisable, attending the Quarterly Meeting; preaching in the churches on the Lord's Day and on other suitable occasions as opportunity may serve; meeting the Ministers, holding conferences for Local Preachers and Church workers, attending meetings for the reception of new members, and the like.

(b) To give special attention to those parts of the District in which Methodism is weak or declining, or in which the increase of population calls for the establishment of new causes or the employment of additional agency; suggesting and helping to promote schemes for the better working of the Circuit or the alteration of Circuit boundaries.

(c) To have special oversight of the Probationers in his District, ensuring that the Conference Regulations on their behalf are observed, helping them in their special difficulties, and wherever practicable arranging for their instruction in pastoral duty.

(d) To foster the work of God among the young, particularly those on trial or in Junior Society Classes.

(e) To see that the instructions and recommendations of Conference affecting administration or the life of the Churches are duly communicated and as far as possible carried into effect.

(f) To make the utmost use of the regular District Committees.

3. Finance. The Chairman of the District should receive his allowances from Connexional sources. If desired, the Home Mission Committee is prepared to administer the Fund.

Any Synod requesting the services of a Chairman under this scheme is expected to provide the furniture for his residence and to make an annual contribution of at least one-half of the cost of his maintenance.

The defrayal of the expenses of the official visits to be arranged with the Connexional Fund.

The Home Mission Committee to be responsible for the remaining amount required for the usual ministerial allowances, etc., and for the upkeep of the residence.

III.

As for its general adoption the scheme requires the eventual reduction of the number of Provincial Districts, the Committee asks the authority of the Conference to confer with the several Districts as to practicable readjustment of District boundaries, with a view to forming Districts of convenient size for administration under this scheme.

THE LONDON MISSION AND EXTENSION FUND.

Q. VIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the London Mission and Extension Fund?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1926, pp. 83–86).

2. The work of the Committee continues to extend on the "Sites and Buildings" side; building operations in and around London have brought greater responsibilities. New sites have been secured, schemes developed and premises erected. The New London Fund has proved invaluable; the demands upon it have, however, been so great that when the commitments are met, not more than £36,200 will be available for grants. More extension is urgent. Inner London is still a social and religious problem. The Committee has aided in the renovation of old chapels and premises and has helped in the working of difficult centres. On the "Work and Workers" side two new branches have been added to the London Mission, and the work shows great vitality. The importance of open-air work is recognised and a training school for speakers has been held during the winter months.

3. Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart., is re-appointed General Treasurer of the Fund, the Rev. Marshall Hartley, Deputy Treasurer, the Rev. C. Ensor Walters, Secretary, and the Rev. Walter H. Armstrong, Assistant Secretary.

In all ordinary matters of administration the above Committee shall have the fullest power of action.

The rules of the Conference as to the retirement of members of Connexional Committees shall apply to the Education Committee, but not to the Executive Sub-Committees.

6. Closing of Wesleyan Primary Schools.—In the interests of the Methodist Church and of the Education of the country (especially in rural districts), the Conference deeply deplores the giving up of any Methodist School, and would impress upon all our Managers that before any steps are taken towards transfer or surrender, they should lay the case before both the District Education Committee and the Connexional Education Committee for their counsel and assistance.

7. Grants to Primary Schools.—The judgment of the Chapel Committee or Sunday School Committee of the District Synod shall be obtained in respect of all applications for Grants and laid before the members of the Connexional Education Committee when such applications are being considered. This rule shall apply to ordinary applications, and not to those of special urgency.

(1) The Conference empowers the Wesleyan Education Committee to make Grants towards expenditure incurred by structural and other alterations demanded by the Board of Education in Primary-school premises.

(2) Primary and Sunday Schools.—The Statistics of the Primary and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

11. Westminster College.—The Conference heard with regret of the financial difficulties in which Westminster College had been placed owing to causes beyond the control either of the Trustees or of the Governing Body. The Conference therefore adopts the following Resolutions unanimously passed by the Trustees and by the Education Committee:

(1) The Conference, having regard to the history of Westminster College and its splendid record of achievement, earnestly desires that it should be continued in close connection with the University of London as an integral part thereof and, if possible, in the present premises.

(2) It therefore authorises the Trustees and Committee to enter into such arrangements either with the University of London, or with the London County Council, or with any other public body, as may seem best to the said Trustees and Committee for the furtherance of this object, provided that in any agreement made the Methodist character of the Hostel shall be duly preserved.

(3) Failing the possibility of carrying out the above indicated arrangements with other public bodies, and in view of the financial difficulties of the present situation, the Conference hereby authorises the Trustees or the major part of them should it appear reasonable or desirable to them (but not otherwise) in the interests of the work of the said College and for the better furtherance of the same, to sell, let, lease, or otherwise dispose of Westminster College and site either by public auction or by private contract, altogether or in parcels, having first obtained the consent in writing of the Secretary of State for the Home Department.

12. Southlands College.—The Conference hears with satisfaction that steps are being taken to transfer Southlands College to some more suitable site.

N.B.—Permission to sell Southlands College was given by the Conference of 1924, and was entered on the Journal only.

13. Rydal School, Colwyn Bay.—Under the Scheme for the administration of Rydal School, Colwyn Bay, two of the six Governors appointed by the Conference retire annually. The Conference accordingly retires the Rev. Dr. Workman and Mr. Edward R. Lightwood, B.A., both of whom are hereby re-appointed.

The Rydal School, Colwyn Bay, is the property of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and is administered by a Governing Body duly appointed by the Wesleyan Methodist Conference under the Scheme approved.

Report of Special Sub-Committee.—The Conference receives with satisfaction and adopts the following Summary of Proceedings of the Sub-Committee appointed by the General Committee of the National Children's Home and Orphanage to consider the Resolution of the Conference as printed in the Daily Record, dated July 18, 1924.

> "The Conference received the Report of Accounts for the year. Arising from inquiries upon the Financial Statement, the Conference resolved to refer the matter to the Committee of the National Children's Home and Orphanage with a view to obtaining the full information required, the same to be presented at the next Conference."

Constitution of Committee.—Revs. W. Hodson Smith, H. J.

Sudgen, John H. Litten; Sir Charles C. Wakefield, Sir Thomas Barlow; Revs. John Hornabrook, J. Henry Maddock; Sir Ernest Bain; Messrs. E. Lindsay Blee, E. A. Childe; the Rt. Hon. T. R. Ferens; Messrs. Francis Horner, George Knight; Sir Josiah Stamp, D.Sc.; Mr. C. N. Barns, Secretary, with power to co-opt. Co-opted member, Mr. Harold Hartley.

The Sub-Committee has held seven meetings and submits the following findings:

1. Method of Presentation of Accounts.

(a) Balance Sheet.—In addition to the Statement of Income and Expenditure as now published, this Sub-Committee recommends that a Balance Sheet be prepared setting out the Assets and Liabilities of the National Children's Home and Orphanage as at March 31 of each year.

(b) Valuation of Properties.—The basis of the valuation of the property necessary for a Balance Sheet is the replacement value of the property concerned.

(c) Investments.—The Sub-Committee, after examination of the list of Stocks and Shares, and the submission of the same to expert valuation, is of opinion that the Investments are wisely placed, and fulfil the conditions of special gifts made to the National Children's Home and Orphanage for the purpose of Annual Income.

(d) Comparative Statement.—The Sub-Committee recommends that for the purposes of comparison a column be added to the Income and Expenditure Account showing the corresponding amounts of the previous year.

2. General Policy.

(a) Numerical Extent of the Home.—Whilst deprecating the fixing of any figure as the maximum extent to which the National Children's Home and Orphanage should grow, the Sub-Committee is of opinion that it is not wise under existing conditions to increase the Home's responsibilities.

(b) Conditions of Property Tenure.—The Sub-Committee finds that the freehold properties of the National Children's Home and Orphanage are, with one exception, free from restrictive covenants, and are, therefore, available for disposal should occasion arise.

(c) Purchase of Commodities.—The Sub-Committee finds that, with the few exceptions for which there are satisfactory local reasons, the purchase of commodities is effected under expert advice and in the most advantageous markets on a wholesale basis.

(d) Comparative Costs of Administration.—The Sub-Committee has examined the published Financial Statements of twelve other institutions doing similar work to the National Children's Home and Orphanage, and finds that:

1. The per capita costs of the thirteen institutions considered range from £70 5*s.* 7*d.* to £45 4*s.* 0*d.* per annum, the average being £58 10*s.* 4*d.*

2. The average per capita cost of the National Children's Home and Orphanage for all expenditure including administration is £49 10*s.* 9*d.*

The following matters are also being negotiated:

(e) Superannuation.—A satisfactory scheme for the superannuation of Sisters is already in operation. A superannuation scheme for other workers is in course of preparation. For the establishment of these Funds it is proposed to add to investments the whole or part of this year's unallocated legacies amounting to £8,983 11*s.* 8*d.*

(f) Legacies and Capital Account.—It is further proposed to average over a period of years the income receivable from legacies, and to carry to Capital Account each year a proportion of such average amount, the proportion to be one-third, one-half, or two-thirds.

I. The Temperance Movement.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report (Agenda, 1926, pp. 317–21).

2. The Conference recommends that the last Sunday in October (October 31) should be observed as Temperance Sunday, and that the week following should be observed as a "Temperance Week," during which the appeal for personal abstinence from intoxicating liquors as beverages, and for active service in the cause of Temperance, should be made in all spheres of Church life.

3. The Conference requests His Majesty's Government to maintain unimpaired the restriction on the hours for the supply of intoxicating liquors in registered clubs, in accordance with the Licensing Act, 1921. Further, the Conference directs the attention of the Government to the continued growth of clubs registered for the supply of intoxicating liquors, and, in view of the fact that a club can at the present time obtain this perilous privilege apart from the considered judgment of any public authority, calls upon the Government to give legislative effect to the proposal of the Temperance Council of the Christian Churches that clubs supplying liquor should be required to obtain an annual permit from the local licensing authority.

4. The Conference reaffirms its support of the principle of the Judicial Proceedings (Regulation of Reports) Bill now before the House of Commons. In view of the emphatic endorsement by the House of the principle of this measure, accorded at its Second Reading on April 16, the Conference earnestly requests the Government to grant facilities for the passage of this measure into law in the present session of Parliament.

5. The Conference, in reaffirming its claim for Temperance legislation, including the grant of powers of Local Option to the peoples of England and Wales, an adequate control of the supply of intoxicating liquor in clubs, and Sunday Closing of liquor-bars throughout England, would direct the attention of Wesleyan Methodist electors to their responsibility to promote, by the rightful exercise of their votes, the achievement of these urgently needed legislative reforms; and, with a view thereto, the Conference counsels our people to set Temperance Reform in the forefront of their duty and claim as citizens; to make inquiry regarding the attitude of Parliamentary candidates to the foregoing reforms; and to withhold their votes from all Parliamentary candidates who pledge themselves explicitly, if elected, to defend and advance the interests of the Liquor Trade in the House of Commons.

6. In view of the Scottish Local Option polls due this year, the Conference urges upon the members and adherents of our Church in Scotland the importance of recognising and discharging their responsibility in relation to the policy of "No Licence."

II. International and Industrial Relationships.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1926, pp. 322–4).

2. Believing that the unique experience gained within our Church by the system of Family Allowances may be of service in the public discussion of this subject, the Conference directs the Committee to prepare an explanation of the system which obtains in Wesleyan Methodism.

3. The Conference reaffirms the following resolution, and commends it earnestly to the attention of the Methodist people:

> "The Conference, in view of the present labour unrest, is deeply impressed with the duty of the Church to expound the evangelical and social teaching of the Bible as to the brotherhood of humanity, and the responsibilities and perils attaching to the acquisition and possession of wealth. It reaffirms its conviction that the adequate supply of the physical needs of the workers must be the first charge upon every industry; and it believes that such provision is necessary if the moral responsibilities of the workers, men and women, are to be adequately discharged and the spiritual possibilities of their lives realised."

III. Sunday Questions.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1926, pp. 324–5).

2. The Conference directs that, on the first Sunday after Easter the subject of the significance and sanctity of the Lord's Day shall receive special attention in our Churches and Sunday Schools.

V. The Conference adopts the following:

(1) With reference to the methods and stages by which Union when finally approved may be carried out, so that the rights of the Circuits and Churches affected shall be duly observed, the Conference re-affirms that "there will be no disturbance of existing local Church relations, inasmuch as there can be no amalgamation or alteration of Circuits without mutual consent" (Minutes, 1925, p. 68(e)).

(2) The Conference authorises the Committee to gather information and prepare plans for the unification of Districts, Departments, and Conference procedure.

(3) The Conference re-affirms its resolutions as to the interchange of pulpits and inter-communion services, and directs that wherever possible, gatherings shall be held affording opportunities for fellowship and prayer, and authorises the Committee to assist in carrying out the arrangements. Some method of nomination by the Synod concerned shall be hereinafter determined; it being understood that the Conference has the power to make other nominations.

In case the chair of any District be rendered vacant by the death or incapacity of the Chairman or otherwise, the duties and responsibilities of the Chairman shall pro tempore devolve upon the President of the Conference for the time being, who shall take steps either by convening the members of the Representative Session of the District Synod or by correspondence with them to obtain their suffrages for the Minister in the District who is deemed by them best qualified to fill the vacant office; and shall then declare and appoint the Minister thus selected to be the Chairman of that District till the ensuing Conference.

At the final reading in the Ministerial Session no change shall be made unless all parties are agreed, it being understood that the phrase "all parties" refers to the acting Representatives on the Stationing Committee of the several Districts affected by any proposed change. Any Minister who is not a member of the Ministerial Session of the Conference shall have the right, if he so desires, to state his case at the second reading of the Stations, but shall have no power to vote.

The Superintendent of the Circuit shall inquire as to whether due notice in writing of any such charge has been given to the Local Preacher before allowing the charge to be heard.

The Society Meeting.

Membership, Powers, and Duties.—A meeting, consisting of all the members of Society, shall be held at least once a year in each church for religious fellowship and the appointment of representatives to the Leaders' Meeting, and for any other purpose that shall be hereafter determined by the Conference.

BASIS OF MEMBERSHIP.

(1) All persons are welcomed into membership who sincerely desire to be saved from their sins through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and evidence the same in life and conduct, and who seek to have fellowship with Christ Himself and His people by taking up the duties and privileges of the Methodist Church.

(2) The Methodist Church recognises two Sacraments, namely, Baptism and the Lord's Supper, as "of Divine appointment and of perpetual obligation,"* of which it is the privilege and duty of its members to avail themselves. As membership in the Church also involves fellowship, it is the duty of all members in the Church to seek to cultivate this in every possible way. The weekly Class Meeting has from the beginning proved to be the most effective means of maintaining among Methodists true fellowship in Christian experience. All members shall have their names entered on a * Foundation Deed Poll 1907, United Methodist Church.

Class Book, shall be placed under the pastoral care of a Class Leader, and shall receive a Quarterly ticket of membership.

According to Methodist usage, the Sacrament of Baptism is administered to infants, and regular oversight should be given by the local Church and its Minister to all who have been dedicated to God by this sign. If any have not received Christian Baptism, that Sacrament should be administered either before or in connection with the Recognition Service.

(3) After a probation of not less than three months, those approved shall be admitted to full membership by the Leaders' Meeting, and be publicly recognised at a service conducted by the Minister in the presence of the Church at the earliest opportunity, which shall be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper.

(4) Any member who, without sufficient reason, persistently absents himself from the Lord's Supper, and from the meetings for Christian fellowship, shall be visited by both his Leader and his Minister. The names of any who by such prolonged absence sever themselves from Church membership, shall be removed by the Leaders' Meeting.

(5) In connection with our Societies, Classes shall be generally established which shall directly provide for the religious instruction of young people. The object of these Classes shall be to secure the decision of children for Christ, their instruction and training in Christian doctrine, and ethics, and the development in Christian experience and character. The Holy Scriptures shall be the basis of instruction and these Classes shall be met wherever possible weekly.

DOCTRINE.

(1) The Methodist Church claims and cherishes its place in the holy Catholic Church, which is the Body of Christ. It rejoices in the inheritance of the Apostolic faith, and loyally accepts the fundamental principles of the historic creeds and of the Protestant Reformation. It ever remembers that in the Providence of God Methodism was raised up to spread Scriptural Holiness through the land by the proclamation of the Evangelical Faith, and declares its unfaltering resolve to be true to its Divinely appointed mission.

The Doctrines of the Evangelical Faith, which Methodism has held from the beginning, and still holds, are based upon the Divine revelation recorded in the Holy Scriptures. The Methodist Church acknowledges this revelation as the supreme rule of faith and practice. These Evangelical Doctrines to which the preachers of the Methodist Church, Ministerial and Lay, are pledged are contained in Wesley's Notes on the New Testament and the first four volumes of his Sermons.

The Notes on the New Testament and the forty-four Sermons are not intended to impose a system of formal or speculative theology on Methodist Preachers, but to set up standards of preaching and belief which should secure loyalty to the fundamental truths of the Gospel of Redemption and ensure the continued witness of the Church to the realities of the Christian experience of salvation.

(2) The Conference shall be the final authority within the Church with regard to all questions concerning the interpretation of its doctrines. In any necessary Act of Parliament provision shall be made to secure the recognition of this power.

(3) "Christ's ministers in the Church are stewards in the household of God, and shepherds of His flock. Some are called and ordained to this sole occupation, and have a principal and directing part in these great duties; but they hold no priesthood differing in kind from that which is common to the Lord's people, and they have no exclusive title to the preaching of the gospel or the care of souls. These ministries are shared with them by others, to whom also the Spirit divides His gifts severally as He wills." *

(4) It is the universal conviction of the Methodist people that the office of the Christian Ministry depends upon the call of God, Who bestows the gifts of the Spirit, the grace, and the fruit which indicate those whom He has chosen.

(5) Those whom the Church recognises as called of God, and therefore receives into its Ministry, shall be ordained by the imposition of hands, as expressive of the Church's recognition of the Minister's personal call.

(6) The Methodist Church holds the doctrine of the priesthood of all believers and consequently believes that no priesthood exists which belongs exclusively to a particular order or class of men.

But in the exercise of its corporate life and worship special qualifications for the discharge of special duties are required and thus the principle of representative selection is recognised.

The preachers, itinerant and lay, are examined, tested, and approved before they are authorised to minister in holy things. For the sake of Church order, and not because of any priestly virtue inherent in the office, the Ministers of the Church are set apart by ordination to the Ministry of the Word and Sacraments.

The general usage of the three uniting Churches whereby the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administered by Ministers shall continue to be observed.

There will necessarily be a transitional period during which the Circuits are being gradually amalgamated. During this period in areas in which local unions have not been consummated, it will be natural on account of variations from the general usage for each Circuit to continue the practice of the Church to which it originally belonged.

* Statement concerning Church Membership adopted by the Wesleyan Methodist Conference, 1908, to accompany the "Rules of the Society of the People called Methodists."

When local unions take place, the general usage of administration by Ministers, as stated above, will continue. Where, however, it can be shown that any Church is deprived of a reasonably frequent and regular administration through lack of Ministers, the Circuit concerned may apply to Conference for the authorisation of persons other than Ministers to administer the Sacrament. All nominations of such persons shall be made annually by the June Quarterly Meeting. The authorisation shall be made from year to year by Conference in its Representative Session, and shall be duly certified by the President and the Secretary on behalf of the Conference.

DISCIPLINE.

Members.

Charges against members of the Church in writing must first be heard by the Leaders' Meeting. Before any personal charge is considered by a Leaders' Meeting, the Superintendent shall satisfy himself that the complainant has acted in harmony with the teaching of the New Testament, which enjoins that he shall first privately see the person of whom he complains before telling the matter to the Church.

The Leaders' Meeting has power to expel a member or pass any minor sentence and its judgment shall take effect after a week's notice. In case of an appeal, the Leaders' Meeting after sentence has power to suspend the member until the appeal is heard.

Where the membership of the Leaders' Meeting is less than six, the charge shall be heard by the Leaders' Meeting in conjunction with the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Church of the Circuit.

The member concerned has the right of appeal to a Committee of the District and to the Conference.

The Disciplinary Committee shall consist of:

The Chairman of the District, who shall preside.
Three ministers and three laymen appointed by the Synod.
One minister and one layman appointed by the one person against whom the charge is made.
One minister and one layman appointed by the one who brings the charge.

A report shall be presented to the following Synod or to the Conference if the Disciplinary Committee should have occasion to meet between the time of the session of the District Synod and the assembling of the Conference.

The member against whom the charge is made shall have the right of appeal to the Conference. The Conference shall remit the case, without discussion, to a Committee consisting of an equal number of ministers and laymen, which shall report to the Conference, whose decision shall be final.

Bankruptcy and Insolvency.

A member who becomes a bankrupt or compounds with his creditors, is thereby suspended from any office he may hold in the Church, until his case has been dealt with by the Leaders' Meeting.

Ministers.

It is the duty of the Chairman of a District to exercise an oversight of the character and fidelity of the Ministers in his District. When charges against any Minister are laid in writing by any member of the Church before the Chairman of the District, it shall be his duty to investigate them, and, if necessary, to summon a special Disciplinary Committee, which shall have power to suspend the Minister concerned until the meeting of the Synod or of the Conference.

The Disciplinary Committee shall consist of:

The Chairman of the District, who shall preside.
Two Ministers selected by the Chairman of the District.
Two Ministers selected by the person against whom the charge is made.
Two Ministers selected by the one who brings the charge.

Its proceedings shall be reported to the Ministerial Session of the Synod or of the Conference, if it meets before the Synod, which shall pass its judgment upon them, confirming, or otherwise, the suspension.

It shall report to the Ministerial Session of the Conference, whose decision shall be final.

Charges against a Chairman of a District.

The Disciplinary Committee shall consist of:

The President of the Conference, who shall preside.
Two Ministers selected by the President of the Conference.
Two Ministers selected by the Chairman of the District against whom the charge is made.
Two Ministers selected by the one who brings the charge.

Its proceedings shall be reported to the Ministerial Session of the Synod, which shall pass its judgment upon them, confirming or otherwise the suspension.

It shall report to the Ministerial Session of the Conference, whose decision shall be final.

Powers under Wesley's Deed Poll.

The powers which are provided for under John Wesley's Deed Poll will be exercised by the newly-constituted Conference as follows:

(1) Ministers will be accepted into Full Connexion by the Representative Session of the Conference. Ministerial discipline will be exercised by the Ministerial Session.

(2) The power of appointment will be exercised by the Conference in accordance with the arrangements for the Stationing of Ministers set forth in the Constitution.

(3) The principle of the Itinerancy shall be maintained by yearly appointment of Ministers. No Minister shall be appointed to the same circuit for more than three successive years unless the Circuit Quarterly Meeting shall request by a vote of a majority of at least three-fourths of its members present and voting that the appointment may be renewed for a fourth, fifth, sixth, or seventh year. After the seventh year no appointment shall be renewed except by special resolution of the Conference.

TRUST DEEDS.

It is not proposed, excepting as provided in this Scheme, to alter the existing Trusts of the properties of the several Churches; though it is desirable that ultimately all shall be settled on one Model Deed, there is no intention to make this compulsory.

It is desirable that all Church properties acquired after the date of Union shall be settled upon a new Model Deed, the draft of which shall be submitted for approval to the Committee and subsequently to the Conferences of the three Churches.

Further, the Committee recommends that a clause be inserted in the Act of Parliament giving power to the Trustees of the existing Trust Properties to adopt the provisions of the proposed new Model Deed.

Regulations of the Conferences.

All existing regulations on the Minutes of the several Conferences relating to the use of Trust Properties and other questions shall be operative until superseded by the regulations of the new Conference.

Foreign Missionary Stations.

The Conference reserves to itself the power to determine how far the provisions of this Scheme for Union shall apply to the Foreign Missionary Stations.

JOINT OPINION OF MR. OWEN THOMPSON, K.C., AND MR. C. D. MYLES.

" In our opinion the Bill which has been drafted for the purpose of authorising the Union of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, the Primitive Methodist Church and the United Methodist Church and the draft of the Methodist Church Model Deed, are, in principle, in accordance with the Scheme for Union which was presented to the Conferences of the three Churches in 1924. There are inevitably certain minor alterations which are required in order that the main purposes may be carried into effect with consistency; and certain questions of detail will require careful consideration, among which we may mention the question of the relationship of the Methodist Church, as proposed to be constituted by the Bill, to the Methodist Church in Ireland, in view especially of the provisions of the 13th Clause of the Deed Poll of 1784. But in all their main lines the Bill and the draft Model Deed have been framed with obvious care and skill, and are well adapted to give effect to the purposes for which they are intended, and we see no grounds for suggesting that they require any radical or even substantial amendment or revision.

presents, or in the due execution of the trusts thereof, or of any of them; and in the next place shall carry out the terms of any scheme of appropriation of the proceeds of sale which shall have been approved by the Chapel Committee or the Conference prior to or at the time of such sale being sanctioned; and subject thereto, either for or toward promoting the preaching of the gospel amongst the said people called Methodists, in the Circuit in which the said Chapel, or place of Religious Worship, shall, for the time being, be situated, or, for the purpose of procuring a larger, or more conveniently or eligibly situated piece of ground, and Chapel, or place of Religious Worship, and premises, in the place or stead of the said piece of ground, Chapel, or place of Religious Worship, hereditaments, and premises so sold and disposed of or in aid of the Trust funds of any other Chapel wherever situate, to be settled upon the same trusts, and to and for the same ends, intents, and purposes, and with, under, and subject to the same powers, provisos, and declarations, as are in and by these presents expressed and contained, or such of them as shall be then subsisting, or capable of taking effect.

32. Upon Decease of any Trustee, the Survivors, upon request, to Indemnify his Representatives.—PROVIDED ALWAYS, and it is hereby declared, that, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, upon the Decease of any Trustee or Trustees for the time being of these presents, the surviving Trustees and Trustee for the time being of these presents, shall and will, within six calendar months next after request for that purpose, in writing, made to them or him, by the legal representative or representatives of such deceased Trustee or Trustees, (but at the costs and charges in the law of such legal representative or representatives,) respectively execute a Bond, (in a sufficient penalty,) or other obligation, to indemnify the legal representative or representatives of each and every deceased Trustee and Trustees, who shall make such request as aforesaid, his, her, and their lands, tenements, goods and chattels, of, from, and against, all bonds, debts, covenants, obligations, notes, judgments, claims, and demands, whatsoever, which such deceased Trustee or Trustees had entered into, or become subject or liable to, on account or in respect of, the said piece of ground, Chapel, or place of Religious Worship, hereditaments and premises, or otherwise on account, or in respect, of the due execution of the trusts of these presents, or any of them; or, in place or stead of such Bond or other obligation of indemnity, shall, and will, (at the choice and discretion of such surviving Trustees for the time being, upon such request, and at such costs and charges as last aforesaid), cause or procure, such legal representative or representatives as aforesaid, to be well and effectually released, or otherwise discharged, of, from, and against, all and every such bonds, debts, covenants, notes, judgments, claims, and demands, as last aforesaid, and of, and from, every of them, and every part and parcel thereof, respectively:

be ascertained whether any Trustee is alive, or, if alive, whether he desires to continue as a Trustee, it shall be assumed that he is dead or desires to retire,) then such a number as shall be equal to the original number of Trustees; and the said piece of ground, Chapel, or place of Religious Worship, hereditaments, and premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, (excepting only such part and parts thereof as shall have been sold and conveyed under, or by virtue of, the powers for sale in these presents contained, or either of them,) shall thereupon forthwith be legally and effectively vested in, such new, and such surviving, and continuing Trustees jointly, or to and in such new Trustees wholly, as the case may be, upon such and the same trusts, and to and for such and the same ends, intents, and purposes, and with, under, and subject to, such and the same powers, provisos, declarations, clauses, and agreements, as are in and by these presents expressed, declared, contained, or referred to, of and concerning the same piece of ground, Chapel, or place of Religious Worship, hereditaments, and premises, or such of them as shall be then subsisting, or capable of taking effect; and to, for, or upon, no other use, trust, end, intent, or purpose whatsoever, anything herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding:

35. Power to Increase the Number of Trustees.—PROVIDED ALWAYS, and it is hereby declared, that, if at any time or times hereafter, the Trustees, or a majority of them, for the time being of these presents, shall judge it necessary or expedient, to increase the number of the Trustees of these presents, beyond the original number of Trustees, then, and in every such case, it shall be lawful for the said Superintendent Preacher for time being, as aforesaid, and for the Trustees for the time being of these presents, or the major part of Execution.—IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties to these Presents have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

General Sustentation Fund.—1. The Conference receives the report of the Committee together with the Treasurers' Financial Statement for the year 1925–6, and directs that an Abstract be printed in the Minutes (Minutes, Appendix II; Agenda, 1926, pp. 473–8).

2. The Conference is gratified to learn that the Minimum Allowances have been assured to all Ministers and Probationers during the year, and expresses its warm appreciation of the loyal and liberal response by the Methodist people to its appeal, particularly in the Annual Collections made in November last.

3. The Conference recommends that the present scale of Minimum Stipends be maintained as follows:

(i) For all married Ministers who have travelled ten years and upwards, £250 per annum, with £20 additional for Superintendents.

(ii) For married Ministers who have travelled less than ten years, £240 per annum (except as in paragraph (iii) below).

(iii) For young married Ministers temporarily in Probationers' appointments, £240, inclusive of a Home Mission Grant of £40 in lieu of house.

(iv) For Probationers, £160.

N.B.—It must be understood that the amounts recommended are in the nature of an aim, and not a guarantee.

4. The Conference recommends that, subject to the resources of the Fund being adequate for the purpose, a supplementary Grant of 4 guineas per child should be made to all Ministers who are in receipt of the Minimum Stipend only, so as to realise an allowance of 12 guineas per child in all such cases.

5. The Conference directs that Collections (two) be taken in all Places of Worship throughout the Connexion on behalf of the General Sustentation Fund on Sunday, November 7, 1926, and recommends the September Quarterly Meetings to arrange that, wherever possible, a Layman shall advocate the collection, especially in the principal chapels.

6. Having regard to the essential and valuable services rendered by the Fund to the weaker Circuits of the Connexion and the urgent need for its aid, the Conference authorises the continuance of the Fund until such time as the Conference may otherwise determine, and directs that Collections shall be made annually on its behalf as heretofore, together with any appeal for subscriptions which may be necessary.

Special Finance Committee.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1926, p. 467).

2. The Conference resolves:

(a) That in view of the special claims upon the Children's Fund the amount of the General Assessment for the year 1926–7 shall remain at £55,825 and shall be allotted to the Departments according to the following scale:

Ministers' Children's Fund	£28,500
Worn-out Ministers' Fund	26,075
Theological Institution Fund	1,000
Connexional Fund	250
	£55,825

It was agreed that for the year 1926–7 the amount charged upon the Districts shall be upon the basis suggested by the Quinquennial Assessment Committee and approved by the Conference (Minutes, p. 494). The extra £1,925, being the difference between £55,825 now fixed for the year and the £53,900 previously suggested, shall be apportioned pro rata on all the contributions from Districts and Departments.

(b) That the amount of the General Assessment for 1927–8 be £53,900. At the present moment it is anticipated that the several Departments will receive as follows:

Ministers' Children's Fund	£27,500
Worn-out Ministers' Fund	25,500
Theological Institution Fund	650
Connexional Fund	250

The allotment to the several Funds to be finally decided by the Conference of 1927.

3. In view of the possibility of changing economic conditions during the next Quinquennial period (1926–31) which may make possible a reduction in the amount to be raised by the General Assessment, the Conference empowers the Committee to make such adjustments during that period as from time to time may be deemed desirable.

4. The Conference refers to the Committee the question of the larger income required by the Ministers' Children's Fund, owing to the provision of increased accommodation in the opening of the new School at Southport.

5. The Committee is instructed to complete its inquiry in respect of the operation of the Envelope System throughout the Connexion and to report to the next Conference.

6. The Conference re-appoints the Committee with the following terms of reference:

International Committee of World-wide Methodism.—The Conference receives the following Report of the Eastern Section of the Committee:

1. The United Church of Canada: Relation to Methodism.—The Conference was informed that an official communication had been received by the International Committee from the Moderator of the United Church of Canada expressing the earnest desire of the United Church to maintain intimate relations with the Ecumenical Methodist Conference and with the Methodist Churches throughout the world.

The Rev. Dr. James Endicott (Secretary of the Board of Missions) and the Rev. Dr. Clarence Mackinnon (Principal of the Presbyterian College, Halifax, Nova Scotia) had been sent as the official delegates of the United Church to the meeting of the International Committee. The delegates lucidly stated the case for the United Church and deeply impressed the Committee. There was also read to the Committee the resolution adopted by the International Committee (Western Section) on January 13, 1926, endorsing without dissent the request from the United Church that it should be recognised as a member of the Ecumenical Methodist Conference and its Committees. After full consideration of the statements made by the delegates, the Eastern Section of the Committee unanimously and cordially adopted the following resolution:

> Having received the official letter of the Moderator of the United Church of Canada, and also having heard the Rev. Dr. Endicott and the Rev. Dr. Mackinnon, the accredited delegates of that Church, explain the principles and polity of the United Church of Canada constituted by the Methodist, Presbyterian, and Congregational Churches of Canada, this Committee rejoices that in all essential factors both of doctrine and practice, the Methodist note is still maintained in the United Church, though from the very necessities of its position it is not now solely Methodist in all its marks and characteristics. The Committee unanimously endorses the request from the United Church Council to be recognised as a member of the Ecumenical Methodist Conference and its Committees, together with the privileges and responsibilities thereby entailed.

It was decided to forward to the various Methodist Conferences the unanimous opinion of the International Committee that Fraternal Delegation should be continued to be appointed in the future as in the past.

The Conference endorsed the decision of the International Committee of Methodism (Eastern Section) that the United Church of Canada be recognised as a member of the Ecumenical Methodist Conference and its Committees, together with the privileges and responsibilities thereby entailed.

The Conference further decided: That fraternal delegations between the United Church of Canada and the Wesleyan Methodist Church should be continued to be appointed in the future as in the past.

N.B.—The Council of the United Church of Canada, as the supreme court is now called, will meet in future once a year. It is suggested that the Wesleyan Methodist Church continue to send its delegation once in three years, the delegation at other times to be taken up if so desired by the other Methodist Churches.

United Church of Canada: Methodist Emigrants to Canada.—The Conference heard with satisfaction that steps were being taken to rectify the trouble which had arisen with regard to Methodist emigrants to Canada who were being informed that there was now no Methodist Church in Canada. They trusted that this matter would not be lost sight of by the United Church of Canada.

2. Bi-centenary of the Admission of John Wesley to his Fellowship at Lincoln College, Oxford.—The Fifth Ecumenical Methodist Conference, held in London in 1921, directed the Ecumenical Methodist Continuation Committee (now the International Committee of Methodism) to consider the question of a suitable memorial of Wesley's connection with Lincoln College. John Wesley was elected to a Probationary Fellowship in the College on March 17, 1725, and was elected to a full Fellowship on March 28, 1726, resigning the same on June 1, 1751. To celebrate the Bi-centenary, the Rector and Fellows of Lincoln College invited thirty representative Methodists from World-wide Methodism to be their guests from March 27–29, 1926.

On the Sunday morning (March 28) a service was held in the College Chapel, at which the sermon was preached by the President of the Wesleyan Methodist Conference (Rev. Dr. Ritson). After this service, the Memorial Bronze Bust of John Wesley was unveiled by the Rt. Hon. Walter Runciman, M.P., and dedicated by the Bishop of Lincoln. The Bust has been erected in a blocked window of the rooms that Wesley occupied. Its position is such that it will attract the attention of everyone entering the College. This bust in bronze, which is a copy of the one in the National Portrait Gallery, is the exclusive gift of British Methodists.

The celebration concluded on Monday morning, March 29 at Christ Church, where special mention was made of the services rendered to the Church by Charles Wesley.

The Conference heard with satisfaction of the placing of a tablet in St. Botolph's Churchyard to commemorate the site of the meeting-room in Aldersgate Street in which Wesley's conversion occurred; also of a tablet placed by the London County Council on Wesley's House in City Road.

3. Handbook of Methodist Activities in Europe.—At the Ecumenical Methodist Conference held in London in 1921 the Conference expressed the view that it was advisable to publish a Handbook of Methodist Activities in Europe. Steps were accordingly taken to collect the necessary information and the Handbook is now on sale at our Bookroom. (Price 6*d.*)

4. Standing Committee of the Mission Boards.—Acting on the recommendation of the Committee, the following appointments have been made by the several Mission Boards to form a Standing Committee of the Mission Boards of the three Methodist Churches working in Europe:

The Supply of Candidates for the Ministry.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Commission appointed to consider in all its bearings the question of the supply of Candidates for the Ministry (Minutes, 1925, p. 80).

2. The Conference directs that a copy of the Report be sent to each Superintendent Minister and to the Headmasters of our Schools.

3. The Conference earnestly commends the suggestions of the Report to the careful consideration of the individuals and Committees particularly concerned.

The following is the Report of the Commission:

The Commission is impressed with the gravity of the question remitted to its consideration, which goes to the roots of the Church's life and prosperity. A ministry is essential to an organised Church, and as the Ministers are its natural and responsible leaders the growth of the Church will largely depend upon the adequacy and efficiency of those who are appointed to this sacred office. We recognise that this is an office which no man takes unto himself, but to which he is called by God, but that does not relieve the Church of its responsibility for testing that call and for requiring in its Candidates those marks of fitness without which no ministry can be effective. Without reflecting upon the methods adopted in the past by our Church for the selection of its Ministers, the Commission considers that the time has come when greater care should be exercised in the choice and preparation of our ministerial Candidates. In particular the Commission appreciates the action of the Conference in definitely associating the Representative with the Pastoral Session in the responsibility of securing suitable Candidates for the ministry, for it regards such provision as a serious concern of the laity as well as of the Ministers of the Church, and indeed as a primary interest of everyone who has at heart the welfare of Christ's Church and the extension of His Kingdom.

The two main questions which the Commission has had to consider relate first to the number, and secondly to the quality of the Candidates. With regard to the number of Candidates, there has been a considerable decline during the last fifteen years. Whereas in the first ten years of the present century the average number of Candidates recommended by the Synods was 151 per annum, in the next quinquennial period (1911-15) the average had declined to 114, and in the following period (1916–20) to 54. The decline had already commenced in pre-war days, but was naturally intensified in the years of war. While the numbers have improved during the last five years, the average being 91, we are still considerably below the standard of twenty years ago. The Commission notes that this is at present a general situation common to all the Churches. The question of numbers, however, is not a matter of primary concern for the Wesleyan Methodist Church at the moment. The returns for this present year show a marked improvement, the number of Candidates being the highest on record for the past sixteen years. We gratefully recognise this as a sign of spiritual revival.

It is with the quality of the Candidates that the Commission is mainly concerned. In point of religious and moral character the standard is probably as high as in former days, but considering the educational progress of our own times it is disappointing that the intellectual standard is not higher. In recent years more than half the Candidates have only had a very elementary education, while the average number who have reached at least a Matriculation standard is only 11 per cent. The Commission notes with regret a considerable decline in the numbers and attainments of Candidates from Wesleyan Secondary Schools compared with former periods. While it is desirable that the personnel of the ministry should be widely varied, the Commission is of opinion that we should look for larger accessions from our youth who have educational and other advantages. It is of serious significance for the future of the Church that the majority of Candidates accepted year by year are men with a meagre educational equipment. Whilst in no way discouraging men, otherwise gifted, who have had very slender training, it is very undesirable that the bulk of the accepted Candidates should be taken from those who are least equipped in this respect. They should be the exception rather than the rule. To lower the standard is a fatal policy if we are to attract the best men. The Minister of to-day must be a preacher—and something more; he requires gifts of teaching, of leadership, and of administration. The duties and responsibilities of the present-day ministry are of such a nature that in order to their due discharge no gifts or qualifications can be of too high an order.

The Commission has carefully considered the reasons that are alleged for the failure of the ministry to attract men of this type. In some cases it is due to the theological unrest of the day and the passion for intellectual liberty which have disturbed men's minds. In other cases many are attracted by openings in the educational world and elsewhere which seem to offer equal if not greater opportunities for service. The Commission notices for instance that the supply of Candidates for the teaching profession from our own Church is of a type and quality of equipment which we should welcome as an educational standard for Candidates for our ministry, and that the supply is readily obtainable from our homes, schools, and Churches. For some the economic position may be a deterrent. In addition there has been a tendency to disparage the ministerial calling, so that by many, a Minister is regarded merely as a paid official, dominated by the urgent necessity of financial efforts and somewhat cramped by purely local and ecclesiastical conditions.

The Commission believes, however, that when the sense of vocation is strong and there is real spiritual earnestness, these objections will not stand in the way of a ready response to the call of Christ and the Church. We must make it clear that whatever degree of sacredness attaches to other callings in life, we still regard the work of the Christian Minister as the highest of all callings, and there is no sphere in which the qualities of true manliness and heroism can be more effectually exercised. We can only hope to win the best men for the service of the Church by exalting the ideal of ministerial duty and responsibility, and thus constituting a challenge which shall appeal to the best instincts of our youth.

The Commission is aware that the solution of the problem will not be found in legislation, but in the deepening of spiritual conviction and devotion. But by way of practical suggestion it calls attention to the following considerations:

(1) As our Candidates are drawn from the ranks of the Local Preachers, it is clear that the steady decline in the number of the latter must affect the supply of the former. The shortage of suitable Local Preachers is under the special consideration of the Connexional Committee, and their proposals should receive the careful attention of the Church. It is of vital importance that no effort should be spared to secure a very much higher standard of all-round equipment for Local Preachers.

(2) According to our polity, every Candidate must be nominated by the Superintendent Minister. With him lies the initial responsibility. The Commission further would urge all Ministers and Laymen to regard this as an important part of their work, and to bring the claims of the ministry before men of the right quality.

(3) The Commission is of opinion that the needs of the human race and the opportunity for service in the Christian ministry should be made known as far as possible among Methodist University students who seem inclined to respond. The question of the pastoral oversight of these students is under the consideration of the Home Mission Committee. Much might be done by the appointment of suitable chaplains at University centres. Possibly something would also be accomplished by closer relations between the Church and the Student Christian Movement.

(4) For obvious reasons we do not consider it advisable that a direct appeal should be made to the boys in our Methodist Secondary Schools, but if the religious atmosphere of the school is favourable we might well hope that the mind of some will be turned toward the ministry. Those who are pastorally responsible for these schools should watch for the marks of a call and should seek to render help and encouragement to those whose thoughts are turning in this direction. The Commission urges the importance of appointing to such a responsible position Ministers with special gifts for dealing with boys.

(5) We recognise that it is by the religious life of the home that a sense of vocation to the ministry is frequently aroused. This is emphasised by the fact that a very large proportion of our Candidates, in speaking of their spiritual experience and call to the ministry, attribute these Divine gifts to the influence of a godly home life. It pleases God in many cases to bring a vocation to the ministry to consciousness by the influence of parents. We would appeal to Christian parents to regard a call to the ministry as a very sacred thing and to place no obstacle in the way of a son's obedience to such a call.

(6) The Commission considers that the time has come when every Candidate should be required to reach a certain educational standard. It is true that the Pastoral Conference has declared that "ordinarily the Conference does not accept Candidates who do not reach a definite educational standard." In practice, however, this regulation is seriously disregarded. For example, during the last four years forty-seven men have been accepted who did not reach the required standard, and in the majority of cases there were no "remarkable gifts in other directions" which counterbalanced this defect. It is perhaps of still more serious significance that during the same period fifty-two men were accepted who failed to pass in the Preliminary Biblical examination.

(7) The Commission respectfully suggests that more careful and discriminating judgment should be exercised by members of Quarterly Meetings and of District Synods when the question of the recommendation of Candidates is before these Church courts.

OTHER SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

The late Mr. Williamson Lamplough.—The Conference desires to place on record an expression of its deep and reverent gratitude to Almighty God for the loving and fruitful services rendered by the late Mr. Williamson Lamplough, as Treasurer of the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society for the long term of twenty-seven years. Mr. Lamplough accepted this responsibility as a very sacred trust, and the Conference thankfully recalls the complete fidelity, watchful diligence, and high ability with which the duties of the office were discharged.

The late Brigadier-General Sir John Barnsley.—The Conference records with deep regret the death of Sir John Barnsley of Birmingham. A man of wide and catholic sympathies, with grace and dignity of bearing and address, he wielded great influence in civic affairs, and particularly throughout his own Church. As a powerful advocate of Foreign Missions, and an effective Local Preacher and Sunday School worker, he was widely known and highly appreciated. He was a valued member of the Conference, and for seventeen years the Treasurer of the Education Fund. He held firmly that religious education in the schools, both elementary and secondary, as well as in the Training Colleges, was of supreme moment, and he rejoiced in the substantial contribution of Methodism to these branches of national service. While deeply sensible of the loss sustained by his removal, the Conference gives thanks to God for a life so richly endowed, and so fully consecrated, and for all the beneficent and enduring work which it accomplished.

Retirement of Mr. William Mewburn, Lay Treasurer of the Ministers' Children's Fund.—In receiving the announcement of the retirement of Mr. William Mewburn as Lay Treasurer of the Ministers' Children's Fund, the Conference desires to record its high appreciation of the valuable service which he has rendered in that capacity for twenty-six years. It recalls with a deep sense of indebtedness the able, genial and kindly manner in which he has discharged the duties of an office previously filled by Mr. Mewburn's honoured father. For an unbroken succession of sixty-one years, the name he bears has been enrolled among the Officers of the Fund, and will always be remembered by the Conference with gratitude and affection.

South African Conference: Application for Independence.—The Conference receives the Resolution of the South African Conference, held at East London in April 1926, together with a report of the suggested clauses of an enabling Bill to be brought before the South African Legislature with a view to securing the complete independence of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa (see Appendix III).

The Yearly Conference assembled at York in July 1926, having considered the matter, both in its Representative and Pastoral Sessions, gives hearty approval to the request and desires to renew its warmest good wishes for the highest welfare of our brethren and kinsfolk across the seas.

Education of Ministers' Daughters.—1. The Conference receives the Special Report of the Committee of the Ministers' Children's Fund upon the proposed enlargement of accommodation for the Education of Ministers' Daughters (Agenda, 1926, p. 287; Minutes, 1926, Appendix V).

2. The Conference ratifies the action of the Committee in purchasing additional property (Wintersthorpe School) in Birkdale, Southport.

3. The Conference resolves that the question of the increased income required for the Ministers' Children's Fund, owing to provision of increased accommodation, be referred to the Special Finance Committee.

Separated Chairmen.—Pending the settlement of the Separated Chairmen question, the Conference approves of the continuance of the present financial arrangements relating to those who are already so appointed.

Women's Work and Women and the Ministry (Minutes, 1925, pp. 74, 276).

Resolutions upon "Women and the Ministry" were adopted by the Representative and Pastoral Sessions respectively which, in the judgment of the President, were in conflict with each other and were therefore not confirmed by the Legal Conference. The Resolutions will be reported accordingly to the respective Sessions of the next Conference (Summary, p. 401).

For future reference and as information only, the resolutions of the respective Sessions are printed in Appendix IX.

Holmes' Bequest.—The Conference resolves that the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds be requested henceforth to pay the income into the Midland Bank, Westminster, as before, but with instructions that half of the amount is to be credited to the Missionary Society, and the other half to the Home Mission Fund.

Board of Trustees for Connexional Funds.—The Conference hears with satisfaction that the Board of Trustees for the Wesleyan Methodist Connexional Funds (Registered) is now legally established and prepared to receive funds as Custodian Trustees.

All communications are to be addressed to the Rev. F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., 1, Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.1, Secretary to the Board.

Betting and Revenue.—In view of the growing moral and social evils of betting, the Conference re-affirms its strong opposition to the utilising of betting for revenue purposes, as provided in the Finance Bill, on the grounds that this proposal is a distinct step towards the full legalisation of betting, and that by the issue of State Certificates licensing bookmakers and betting offices a new vested interest is created.

The Conference urges His Majesty's Government to take definite action with a view to reducing the extent of betting by such means as the elimination of betting inducements from the press, and the withholding of the public services from the professional organisation of gambling.

Sunday Trading.—The Conference, having in view the injurious influence on Sunday School work of the increase of Sunday Trading and Sunday Games, directs the Sunday School and Social Welfare Departments jointly to consider the subject and to make recommendations thereon to the next Conference.

Representatives to Conferences of Overseas Methodism.—The Conference adopts the following Resolution: That in view of the increasing importance of maintaining and intensifying the cordial relationships between British and Overseas Methodism:

(1) A minister and a layman shall in future be elected to represent the Conference at any Conference of Overseas Methodism to which delegates are invited.

(2) That the International Committee be instructed to place before the Conference the names of three ministers and three laymen for election by the Conference.

Connexional Lay Treasurers and the Conference.—The Conference of 1925 adopted the following Resolution (Minutes, 1925, Appendix VI, p. 404):

(1) That the Standing Order which directs "that the Representative Session shall consist of 300 Ministers and 300 Laymen, one-fifth of the Lay Representatives (60) to be elected annually by the Conference, this number to include 12 Lay Treasurers of Connexional Funds" shall be amended in its last clause as follows:

> "this number to include 15 Lay Treasurers of Connexional Funds."

(2) That the Treasurers of the Women's Auxiliary, Wesley Guild, and Class Leaders' Committee be included among Lay Treasurers of Connexional Funds to be elected by the Conference.

(3) The Conference further resolves that the Resolution shall be carried into effect over a period of three years. In 1927 the Treasurer of the Women's Auxiliary will become a Member of the Conference, in 1928 the Treasurer of the Wesley Guild, in 1929 the Treasurer of the Class Leaders' Committee. For each of these and succeeding years the Conference will elect 15 Lay Representatives instead of 16 as heretofore.

Allocation Committee for Representative Session.—The following instruction is given by the Conference to the Allocation Committee which reports upon the number of Laymen from each District who may attend the next Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen.

> "That in future where the allocation on the numerical basis approximates to 50 per cent. of a claim to another seat, preference should be given to the Districts which have the relatively smaller number of Representatives elected by the Conference."

Wesley House, Cambridge: Regulations for Government and Administration.—The Conference adopts the following Regulations for the government and administration of Wesley House, Cambridge.

1. The College shall be administered by a Board of Governors to consist of the following persons, viz.:

> (a) The twelve persons for the time being constituting the body of the Trustees of the Methodist College, Cambridge (Registered), six of whom are appointed by the Conference on the nomination of the Theological Institution Committee.

(b) The President and Secretary for the time being of the Conference.

(c) The General Treasurers and Secretary for the time being of the Theological Institution Fund.

(d) The Chairman for the time being of the East Anglia Synod, and the Superintendent of the Cambridge Circuit.

(e) The Head Master for the time being of the Leys School.

(f) One representative of the University of Cambridge.

(g) The Principal of the College and other Tutors in full Connexion with the Conference.

(h) The Board shall have power to co-opt two other members, who shall be members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. They shall serve for three years and shall be eligible for re-election.

2. The Board shall be entitled to receive and administer for the benefit of the College the income of any endowments and also any funds that may be entrusted to it out of the Theological Institution Fund, or from other sources.

3. Any matters of discipline involving the status of Students who are accepted Candidates for the Ministry are reserved for the appropriate Courts appointed by the Conference.

4. In regard to the nomination of Tutors and the appointment of a House Committee the procedure shall be the same as in the case of the Local Executives of the other Colleges.

5. The admission of Students to the College shall be determined by the Conference, subject to the right of the Trustees reserved by Clause 5 of the Deed of Foundation, viz. to declare that the number of Students or accepted Candidates admitted into the College on other qualifications than that of a University degree is in excess of the intentions of the Founders which were that the College should be a post-graduate College, with provision for a few exceptions. "In the event of any such declaration, no Students or accepted Candidates, other than those already admitted, shall be admitted without a degree until in the judgment of the Trustees the balance has been restored."

6. The Board shall not alter or extend the College buildings without the consent of a resolution of the Trustees.

Students and Methodist Union.—The Conference directs that in any future referendum on the subject of Methodist Union, an opportunity shall be given to the Students in the Theological Colleges to exercise their vote.

Local Preachers: Scheme of Study.—The Conference adopts the following resolution:

(1) That all Local Preachers on Trial be urged to take a Special Course of study arranged by the Local Preachers' Committee through its Union for Biblical and Homiletic Study; the course to include Theology, Bible Study, Homiletics, and English Literature.

(2) That in every Circuit an endeavour be made by the Local Preachers' Meeting to form a Local Preachers' Training Class, covering the subjects of the above-named Special Course and giving particular attention to preaching.

(3) That an Annual Connexional Examination for Local Preachers, based upon the same Special Course and divided into two grades, (a) elementary, (b) advanced, be arranged by the Committee, and that all Local Preachers on Trial be strongly advised to take the Elementary Paper during their probation, and the Advanced Paper the following year; the Committee to provide a suitable Certificate to be presented at the Circuit Local Preachers' Meeting, or at a special Recognition Meeting, to each successful candidate.

Temperance Teaching in Colleges and Schools.—The Conference instructs the Temperance and Social Welfare Department to consider the whole question of Temperance teaching in those Colleges and Schools which report annually to Conference, and to take such appropriate action as the Committee of the Department may deem expedient.

Envelope System of Finance: Recommendations re Procedure.—The Conference approves the System and recommends that the following procedure be adopted (Minutes, 1923, p. 81; 1924, p. 109).

(a) In any Church where it is proposed to introduce the "Envelope System" the consent of the Trustees must be secured at a Trustees' Meeting duly summoned. The Leaders' Meeting should also be consulted.

(b) A Finance Committee should be appointed for the local Church. The Trustees', the Leaders', and the Society Meetings should elect their representatives on this Committee in equal numbers, and it should be annually re-appointed. Where not already fixed by some other Authority according to constitutional rights and usage—as for instance, the amount of the Local Assessment for the Quarter Board, which is determined by the Quarterly Meeting—the amounts to be allocated to the several Funds shall be determined by this Committee.

(c) An inclusive system, covering the collections of every Sunday in the year, together with the class-moneys and the pew-rents, is recommended. In any case where special collections are excluded this shall be by resolution of the Finance Committee.

(d) In the case of collections on behalf of Connexional Funds appointed by Conference, for the first year a sum not less than the average of the three previous years shall be paid; and subsequently a proportionate share for each Fund in the increase of the current year over the previous year.

(e) On all Sundays when collections are appointed for Connexional Funds these shall be indicated on the Circuit Plan; a statement concerning the Fund in question shall be publicly made, direct personal support shall be invited, and an opportunity given for any special contribution.

(f) The "Envelope System" Treasurer shall promptly forward to the proper person the amounts for the various Connexional Funds.

(g) The Banking Account of the "Envelope System" should be in the name of the Church and not of an individual.

General Sustentation Fund.—The Conference directs that annual collections (two) on behalf of the General Sustentation Fund be made in all places of worship throughout the Connexion on the first Sunday in November (the date this year is November 7). The Conference recommends the September Quarterly Meeting to arrange that, wherever possible, a layman shall advocate the collection, especially in the principal chapels.

Gifts to the Auxiliary Fund.—The Conference records its deep thankfulness for the following gifts to the Worn-Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund: The Directors of the Wesleyan Methodist Trust Assurance Co., Ltd., £5,000 for the present year, and a special gift of £2,500; The Methodist Publishing House, £1,100; Messrs. Horace Marshall & Son, Publishers of the Methodist Times, £500; Proprietors of the Methodist Recorder, £250.

Women's Auxiliary and District Foreign Missionary Committee.—The Conference recommends that of the two Women Representatives elected by the Synod to the District Foreign Missionary Committee, one, at least, shall be an Officer of the District Women's Auxiliary Council.

Cardiff and Swansea and South Wales Districts.—The Conference recognises the growing importance of "the problem of transition in language" in relation to religious work in Glamorgan and Monmouthshire, and heartily approves of the proposal of an exchange of representatives between South Wales and Cardiff and Swansea Synods, on the understanding that such representatives have no vote in the Synods which they visit.

Connexional Campaigns.—The Conference considers that it is not desirable that more than one Connexional Campaign should be organised by the Department in any one year, and directs that in future no such campaign shall be started without the previous consent of the Conference.

Report in Synod on Open-air Work.—The Conference directs that, in order to answer the question relating to Open-air Work on the May Synod Agenda, an inquiry on this subject shall be sent to each circuit in the District by the District Home Mission Secretary, who shall present a report to the Synod.

Q. XXIX. What Ministers have died since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, forty-three:

(1) JAMES S. BELLMAN: born at St. Ives, Cornwall May 14, 1842. He was converted during the Cornish Revival; entered the Ministry in 1868, and after travelling forty-nine years retired to Old Colwyn in 1917, where he continued a less strenuous but much appreciated ministry, until he entered the higher service on August 2, 1925, aged eighty-three years. His personality was remarkable. While possessing the organising ability and financial acumen of a shrewd business man, he also had the soul of a poet. As a preacher he combined evangelical zeal, arrestive style, and faithful appeal. As a pastor he was sympathetic, diligent, tactful, and genial, and was successful in helping financial undertakings by his enthusiastic personal energy. He had a keen sense of humour, and radiated brotherly kindness and an atmosphere of peace and goodwill. He has left a fragrant memory and an inspiring example.

(2) JOHN BOULTER: passed to the Church Triumphant on August 18, 1925, after a successful active ministry of forty-four years and fifteen years as a Supernumerary. He was appointed to Evesham in 1866, and retired from the Herefordshire Mission in 1910. In every circuit he was greatly beloved. His deeply spiritual life was given in unstinted devotion to his Lord. A happy vein of humour rendered his forceful yet gentle personality very attractive. He possessed many of the gifts of an evangelist, and numbers owed their conversion to his preaching. During his ministry at Weston-super-Mare, he was instrumental in the erection of our beautiful church in that town. His pastoral work left fragrant memories even after forty years. His administrative gifts were recognised by Home Mission appointments to the Wye Valley, which during his ministry was swept by a great wave of revival, and to the Herefordshire Mission. His last years were spent in great weakness at Southsea. But, though prevented from participating in the services he loved so dearly, his mind ever dwelt upon his Master's work. He was ardent in missionary zeal, interesting himself minutely in every field of Christian enterprise, especially in India where his brother had laboured. In his own home he was perpetual sunshine.

(3) Joshua Murgatroyd, B.A.: born at Stockport, November 18, 1851. He was educated at the Stockport Grammar School and at Owen's College, graduating afterwards at the Universities of London and Manchester. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1873, and, after three years at Didsbury, was sent to Luton, in 1876. Retiring from the active work, on account of health, in 1903, he settled at Worthing and in 1912 removed to Bournemouth, where he rendered valuable service, both in our own Church and in the more general Church life of the town. His overflowing cheerfulness made him welcome everywhere. His pulpit ministrations were characterised by a radiancy of joy that won its way to the hearts of his hearers; as a class-leader he was much beloved, and his visits brought blessing to many homes. For the last year or two his health gradually failed, and at last broke down completely; but he was mercifully spared much pain, and in the morning of September 8, 1925, he passed quietly to the Homeland of his hope.

(4) T. Ballans Nicholson, B.A., LL.D.: born in York, March 24, 1852. When he was five years old his family removed to Dublin, and he was sent to Wesley College. After a distinguished course at the University, he was reading for the Bar when he became convinced of his call to the Ministry. Fifty years later, when several of his fellow students had gained high honours, he declared that he would not exchange his career with any of them. He always knew that as a Methodist Minister he had followed the calling of his Lord. He was a sound scholar and a wide reader; a man of catholic sympathies and tender loyalties; a true lover of his ministerial brethren, and a faithful servant of His Master and of His Church. As a preacher, his epigrammatic style and fervent appeals will be long remembered; while as pastor and friend he will be held in honour. After eight years in Ireland he was transferred to the English work, and after forty-seven years of varied and faithful service became a Supernumerary in 1918. His last years were spent at Highgate, where, amid the esteem and affection of all our people, he fell asleep on September 17, 1925, in the fifty-fifth year of his ministry.

(5) Joseph Workman: born at Dursley, Gloucestershire, September 28, 1837, the youngest son in a large family, from which two other sons also became Wesleyan Ministers. "Reborn in Christ," as he himself expressed it in September 1849, his early life was greatly influenced by his elder brother. After a period of training at Didsbury, he was appointed to Wigan in 1862, and for many years fulfilled a much honoured ministry. He was an earnest evangelical preacher and a deeply sympathetic pastor, whose flock highly esteemed him for his gifts, his humility, and his wholehearted devotion to duty. He was an excellent Superintendent, firm and fearless, but always kind and courteous. Through close communion with God, he grew in holiness, maintained unwavering faith in the midst of trials, triumphed over much weakness, and bore himself in all things as a Christian gentleman. Ill health twice necessitated his becoming a Supernumerary, and ultimately he retired in 1902. His long and beautiful eventide was a benediction. In his closing years his saintly character made a deep impression upon the entire community. After much suffering, he passed away on September 21, 1925, a few days before his eighty-eighth birthday.

(6) EDWARD SINZININEX: born at Tean, Staffs, in 1848. He became a local preacher in the Hanley Circuit, and, greatly influenced by the preaching of the Rev. F. W. Macdonald, an accepted Candidate for our Ministry. On leaving Richmond, he spent two years at Fatshan, China, as the colleague and intimate friend of the Rev. T. G. Selby. A serious breakdown necessitated his return to England. He never lost his early enthusiasm for missions, and advocated their claim with a convincing and infectious eloquence. His preaching was thoroughly evangelical, and his sermons, the product of careful preparation, were virile, sympathetic, and practical. He delighted in the preaching which made Christ pre-eminent and appealing. A tactful administrator, he won and held the esteem and confidence of his fellow-workers. His genial humour, discriminating counsel, and affectionate admonitions made him the trusted confidant of his brethren. This same warm-heartedness and alert sympathy made him a helpful pastor to the sorrowing and suffering. Retiring to Muswell Hill and Faversham, he maintained his zest for preaching, and showed a keen interest in the progress of the Kingdom. During a long, exhausting illness he manifested an unshaken trust in his Saviour, and passed to the Homeland on September 30, 1925, in the seventy-seventh year of his age and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(7) JOSHUA M. FAIRBOURN: born at Newbury in 1851, was a Methodist Minister of the third generation, his grandfather being one of Wesley's preachers. He was educated at Woodhouse Grove, and subsequently accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, being trained at Headingley College. A great reader and possessed of a wonderful memory, he became a preacher and lecturer of exceptional power. A man of wide outlook and broad sympathies, he was trusted and admired by the people. He was a sympathetic pastor, and his kindly and genial spirit made him beloved by the young. His declining years were spent in weakness and infirmity, but to the last he retained a strong faith in his Lord and a lively interest in the work of the Church. He fell asleep on October 30, 1925, in the seventy-fourth year of his age and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(8) WILLIAM J. ARTER: born at Tre'rddol, Cardiganshire. His parents —to whom he owed much—were earnest workers in the Methodist Church. At an early age he gave himself to God, and soon after began to preach. In 1900 he was accepted as a Candidate, and was trained at Didsbury. His ministry was spent in the South Wales District, where his name is fragrant. He was a very powerful and popular preacher, an able administrator, and a kindly pastor. He was gentle and unassuming, and is remembered for his clarity of judgment and calm wisdom. On November 5, 1925, he passed away suddenly in the forty-seventh year of his age and the twenty-third of his ministry.

(9) WILLIAM BELL: born of Methodist parents at Reeth, Richmond, Yorkshire, in 1844. His father died when he was very young. To the gracious influence of a godly mother he was greatly indebted. Converted at an early age, he was accepted as a Candidate in 1866. In 1867 he began his probation, and thereafter for a period of forty years exercised a fruitful ministry in varied fields of labour. In 1907, as the result of serious illness, he retired from the active work. In 1913 he went to reside in Bangor, co. Down, returning to England for a period during the war, in order to supply for men called away to Army service. His preaching was marked by clearness of thought and loyalty to evangelical doctrines. As a pastor, he put a high ideal before him and diligently sought to attain it. Amid much weakness, he bore constant testimony to the power of his Lord and Saviour. He fell asleep at Bangor on November 21, 1925, in the eighty-second year of his age and the fifty-ninth of his ministry.

(10) HENRY CURNOW: born at St. Ives, Cornwall, in 1851. The influence of his mother upon his life was very great. In 1878 he gave up a career full of promise in the Civil Service to enter the Ministry, in which he served with fidelity and zeal for forty-seven years. He was Chairman of the East Anglia District from 1904 to 1914; of the Devonport and Plymouth District from 1914 to 1919, and was elected a member of the Legal Conference in 1919. He was a capable and judicious administrator. As a preacher of the Gospel he excelled. He loved preaching and enriched it by his wide and careful reading and his observation of nature. He set forth the everlasting Gospel with faithfulness, with evangelical fervour, and with deep conviction, and had the joy of leading many to the knowledge of their Saviour. In his circuits he was beloved as a Class Leader, and he gave valuable help to young men who were coming forward into the work of the Church. His kindliness of heart, ready sympathy, quiet humour, and purity of spirit, revealed a Christian life of great charm and strength. He died at Liskeard on November 27, 1925, in the seventy-fifth year of his life and the forty-eighth of his ministry.

(11) G. ARMSTRONG BENNETTS, B.A., D.D.: born at Ilsington on Dartmoor in 1852. In 1873 he became a Candidate for the Ministry and entered Didsbury College. Two years later Dr. W. B. Pope, President of the Conference, chose him as his assistant, and the experience of that year was unusually intimate and formative. In 1878 he was appointed Assistant Tutor, a post which he held for four years. After nine years in circuits, he was appointed Connexional Temperance Secretary in 1891. He had studied the manifold evils of intemperance, and his antagonism knew no compromise. In 1905 he was elected to the Legal Conference and returned to circuit work, in which he remained until called to a higher service. Throughout his life he was a true scholar. He was well versed in all that affects Biblical scholarship, and his knowledge of modern languages was extensive. The keynote of his life is to be found in the word convictions. His religion was not a matter of changeable opinions: uncertainties did not disturb his faith, nor the faith of those who listened to his teaching. When a principle was at stake, he knew no yielding. To those who really knew him, he was at once loving and lovable. His loyalty to his friends stood the test of conflict, and he did not allow it to sever friendship. Staunch, tender, loyal in all things, stern against evil, yet wonderfully patient with the evil-doer, and richly sympathetic with those who suffered in "mind, body, or estate," he was a noble example of a Christian man and a minister of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. He died at Worcester on December 4, 1925.

(12) GEORGE H. CARNSON: born in Manchester in 1850. He decided for Christ early in life, and was always a joyous Christian, spending his days in happy service. He became a Candidate in 1873, and after training at Headingley College, was appointed to Richmond (Surrey). For forty-three years he exercised a ministry of great usefulness. As a preacher he was racy and direct, appealing to all classes by his lucid exposition of the Scriptures and his effective illustrations, whilst his faithfulness and large-hearted sympathy in pastoral work endeared him to the hearts of the people. In 1918 he became a Supernumerary in the Bolton (Park Street) Circuit. He will long be remembered as a saintly preacher and a constant helper of the distressed. On December 4, 1925, he exchanged mortality for life, peacefully sustained in his faith to the end.

(13) J. CONDER NATTRASS, B.A., B.D.: born at Westgate, Weardale, August 1, 1852. He attributed much to the Christian influence of his home. Trained at Didsbury College, he entered the Ministry in 1879. Thoroughness, accuracy, and life-long study fitted him for his honourable place in the Church he deeply loved. He excelled in expository preaching and personal appeal. His own devotional life and habitual reverence in worship deepened his influence. Sympathy with the young, with students beginning their career, and with all who sorrowed, won the affection of his people as a pastor. A lover of music, he contributed to the Hymnody of his Church. He was a valuable worker in the Wesley Historical Society for thirty years, and an editor on its staff. He rendered service on the Board of Examiners for students and probationers. He was elected to the Legal Hundred in 1919. Retiring to Gosforth in 1923, he continued to preach and write until December 6, 1925, when he quietly passed within the veil.

(14) JOHN B. EVERY: born in Guernsey, November 4, 1843. He was converted in his youth, and dedicated himself fully to the service of Jesus Christ and His Church. He entered upon the work of the Ministry in 1870, and for thirty-five years laboured earnestly and faithfully. His preaching was characterised by its emphasis on the great spiritual realities, and was fruitful in blessing. Many remember with deep affection and gratitude his helpful ministry; and not a few poor and needy folk had in him a sympathetic and generous friend. Owing to failing health, he retired from active service in 1905, and returned to his native island, where he spent the remainder of his days. His intellect was clear and bright to the end; and he lived in intimate and happy communion with the Lord Whom he had loved and served. He passed away peacefully on December 7, 1925, in the eighty-third year of his age and the fifty-sixth year of his ministry.

(15) GEORGE PENMAN: born June 11, 1834, at Dunston, Tyneside. He was converted at an early age, and began to preach with such acceptance that he was encouraged to offer as a Candidate for the Ministry. He was accepted by the Conference of 1857 and sent to Didsbury College. As a Circuit Minister he had a wide experience in both town and country. As a soul-winner he excelled; and in every Circuit he added considerably to the roll of Church membership. He was instrumental in establishing Methodism in areas where it had not previously existed. In his early ministry he was deeply interested in the emancipation of the negro slaves in America. He retired from the active work in 1895, and for over thirty years was a Supernumerary. He preached incessantly up to his eighty-eighth year, and served the community in civic as well as ecclesiastical affairs. He was a genial-hearted gentleman and a tactful administrator. His gift of humour added considerable charm to his conversation. The end came quite peacefully on December 18, 1925, in the ninety-second year of his age and the sixty-ninth of his ministry.

(16) RALPH PHILIPSON: born at St. John's Chapel, Weardale, in 1855. Surrounded in the home by saintly influences, he early gave himself to Christ and the work of His Church. He was accepted for the Ministry in 1885 and sent to Richmond College. He wielded an influence which has left infinitely more than a gracious memory in the circuits where he laboured. As a colleague, pastor, and administrator he was faithful and fearless. His sound, accurate judgment was ever a safe guide. Nothing seemed too trivial for his attention and care. By nature a student, he gave the utmost care to sermon preparation. His preaching was marked by an earnestness which was itself arrestive and convincing. He had the supreme joy of leading many souls into the experience of the evangel so faithfully proclaimed. After thirty-nine years of active service, he retired to Wakefield in 1925. The eventide, all too brief, was radiantly prophetic. After only a few days' illness, on January 3, 1926, he entered into the rest that remaineth.

(17) H. EPWORTH THOMPSON: born in Liverpool in 1845. He found Christ while kneeling in prayer with his Sunday-school Class. After training at Richmond and Headingley, he passed to military work at Aldershot, Woolwich, and Shorncliffe. Then came a period of circuit work, during which he was Chairman successively of the Bedford and Northampton, Plymouth and Macclesfield Districts, in which office he combined firmness, justice, and kindliness. His preaching was evangelical, and notable for bringing men to decision. He was untiring in pastoral work, and skilful in administration. In 1912 he retired to Folkestone. During the War he was zealous for various Relief Funds, and became a Justice of the Peace. He conducted a regular Sunday evening service at the Royal Victoria Hospital almost to the last. He passed peacefully away on January 3, 1926, in the eighty-first year of his life and the fifty-seventh of his ministry.

(18) WILLIAM STEVENSON: born at Manchester in 1849. He was educated at the Manchester Grammar School, and became a member of our Grosvenor Street Chapel. He offered as a Candidate for the Ministry and spent the usual term at Didsbury College. He had an honourable ministry of forty-seven years, chiefly in the large manufacturing towns of the north, where he speedily won the esteem of all classes. His sermons were short, expository, and arresting, and always marked by intense sincerity and evangelical fervour. He was scrupulous in the management of circuit affairs, but it was as a pastor that he excelled.

The last six years of his active ministry were spent at Widnes during the War period. Here occurred the great sorrow of his life. His brilliant son was drowned at sea while on national service. For five years he did valuable service as a Supernumerary at Mossley and Roaches in the Ashton-under-Lyne Circuit. He possessed an indefinable simplicity of manner, which charmed young and old, and he was an ever-welcome guest in the homes of rich and poor alike. He lived in the conscious enjoyment of God's favour, loved good books, took his people to his heart; and in return was greatly beloved. He died on January 8, 1926.

(19) C. Francis Ream, M.A., B.D.: born at Grantham, August 21, 1884. He was educated at Grantham Grammar School, whence in 1903 he proceeded to St. John's College, Cambridge, taking his degree in the Theological Tripos. During his university life he was actively associated with the local church, and commenced to preach. At the Conference of 1906 he was sent to Daventry. His removal a year later to the Manchester Mission had a permanent influence on his subsequent ministry, which displayed an earnest, evangelistic spirit, and was specially successful with young people. He kept up his Biblical study, adding to his Cambridge degree honours in Semitic languages at London University. His manly, cultured ministry stimulated thought and won response from the intelligence and idealism of the young life around him; wherever he worked he attracted large and enthusiastic congregations and membership. He gained the young by believing in them, holding up high, practical ideals before them and setting them to work. Last Conference he was entrusted with the difficult and honourable task of superintending the West London Mission. Within the first month it was manifest that the Kingsway Hall pulpit was worthily filled and that an authentic, prophetic voice was being heard in Central London. Workers and people answered his leadership with a love as warm as his own. But with the close of the year serious mischief revealed itself, from which a severe operation failed to save him, and his exceptionally promising and useful life closed in its youthful prime. He died on January 16, 1926, in the forty-first year of his age and the twentieth of his ministry.

(20) William H. Booth: born at Hornsea, May 11, 1849. He was the son of the Rev. Henry J. Booth, and grandson of the Rev. Robert Heys. His uncle, the Rev. T. M. Booth, was a President of the U.M.F. Church. He was educated at Woodhouse Grove, and at the age of eighteen was placed on the plan in the Preston (Lune Street) Circuit. In 1869 he was accepted as a Candidate and sent to Didsbury College, where for three years he came under the influence of Dr. Pope. He laboured with great acceptance and efficiency from 1871 to 1914, when he became a Supernumerary and settled at Headingley. He preached regularly, and gave Lantern Lectures on a wide variety of subjects, a form of service for which his extensive travels furnished him with abundant material. During the War he rendered service in the Brunswick Circuit, Leeds, and afterwards, to the end of his life, acted as recognised Chaplain at the Beckett's Park Pensions' Hospital. He was a hard worker, a wise administrator, and a helpful preacher, and possessing a genius for friendship, endeared himself to an extensive circle. The call came, January 31, 1926, in the seventy-seventh year of his age and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(21) ERNEST WILKINSON: born at Hoyland Common, near Barnsley, August 23, 1881. Early in life he came under religious influence and was led to engage in preaching. In 1905 be became a student at Headingley College, where he spent three useful years, and then went to South Africa, where he rendered excellent service for four years as a missionary. He then returned to the home work. He also served as a Chaplain with the Army in Italy. He made a deep impression as a preacher and pastor, and appeared to be in the midst of a career of special usefulness when serious illness arrested his activities. He loved his work, and to the last hoped that he might be able to return to it. But it was not to be, and on February 12, 1926, he was called to higher service in the forty-fifth year of his age and the eighteenth of his ministry.

(22) WILLIAM J. MARRIS: born at Stallinboro', near Grimsby, January 2, 1842, of Methodist parents, his father being a most useful local preacher. He was led to Christ in a Baptist Church by a fellow apprentice, and after three years at Didsbury, entered on circuit work in 1866. For forty-three years he exercised a fruitful ministry, mostly in large industrial centres. He was a diligent pastor, kind and sympathetic, and a wise administrator, but, above all, an earnest evangelical expounder and preacher of the Word of God. His eighteen years of retirement in Manningham were given freely and joyfully to God's work. He preached regularly till after he was eighty years of age—took an active personal interest in the progressive movements of all the Churches, and was for some years President of the Bradford and District Free Church Council. His dignified and courteous bearing, his catholic and chivalrous spirit, won for him esteem and affection. His devotion to Christ in such service as was possible never flagged. He was spared lingering illness, and on February 25, 1926, in the eighty-fifth year of his age, he passed swiftly and peacefully into the presence of his Lord.

(23) MATTHEW F. RYLE: born at Low Fell, Gateshead, March 31, 1865. He began to preach at the age of nineteen and was accepted as a Candidate in 1889. After three years at Didsbury, he began his circuit life in 1892. He was a man of exceptional ability, wide reading, and genuine piety. As a preacher he was greatly appreciated. His sermons were marked by singular freshness of treatment and loyalty to evangelical truth. His convictions were deep and strong, and he was fearless in their advocacy and defence. His acquaintance with Methodist history and hymnology was extensive, and he delighted to follow byways of research in these and in other branches of knowledge with characteristic patience and thoroughness. Possessed of a genial temperament, he brought cheer to many a shadowed heart and home, even at times when his own life was clouded; and was a favourite with young people. His pastoral work, particularly during the war-time in the Walsall (Centenary) Circuit, where he spent nine years, will be long and lovingly remembered. He was a skilful administrator, accurate in his knowledge of Methodist polity and sound in judgment, kind and considerate; and his colleagues held him in highest admiration and affection. He died on March 4, 1926, in the sixty-first year of his age and the thirty-fourth of his ministry, leaving behind him the memory of an able, devoted, and successful minister of Jesus Christ.

(24) GEORGE D. MASON: born at Scarborough, July 10, 1855; died at Hucclecote, near Gloucester, on March 12, 1926. When seventeen years of age he was converted to God and became a member of our Church. In 1877 he was accepted for the Ministry and went to Richmond. On leaving college he was appointed to educational work at Sierra Leone, but a succession of attacks of malarial fever caused him to be invalided home after one year's work. On his recovery he began a very beautiful and successful ministry in this country, and during the succeeding years he went about doing good, carefully discharging all trusts and never sparing himself. All his charges have been lastingly enriched and benefited by his faithful conscientious work. He possessed a cheerful disposition and shed sunshine everywhere. He was an adept in the art of doing kindnesses, and possessed in large measure the gracious gift of comforting those in sorrow. Young people and little children loved him as he loved them. His preaching was evangelical and of a very high type. He added dignity to the pulpit, but it was a dignity that was enhanced by simplicity and winsomeness. He became a Supernumerary in 1919, but his ministry was continued as opportunity offered until the call came. All through his life he offered to God the sweet incense of kindly thought and loving deeds.

(25) RICHARD J. CLIFTON: born in London in 1851. Being orphaned quite early, he found a wise friend in the Rev. Nicholas Kelynack. After training at Didsbury, he left an abiding mark in every circuit. During the War he bore the loss of his only son and his only son-in-law with a modest heroism which matched their own. In 1919 he settled at Lyminge, near Folkestone, where he ministered with power, discernment, and compassion. His record of deeds is honourable, but the spirit in which all was done gave him a permanent influence and indescribable charm which was felt by all classes alike. His gifts were enhanced by his innate modesty, while his preaching was persuasive and winsome. He read widely, and generally carried some favourite classic in his pocket. The young loved him, and he unfolded truth and beauty to them with lucidity and directness. He was a chivalrous colleague, and had a deep love for the Church of his choice. After a short illness he passed Home on March 15, 1926, in the seventy-fifth year of his age and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(26) CHARLES W. L. CHRISTIEN: born at Islington, London, September 26, 1837. He was educated privately and at Bradninch College, Devonshire. At the age of seventeen he attended a service at our Hinde Street Church, and as a consequence decided to offer his life for the work of the Ministry. Three years later, in the year 1859, his wish was fulfilled, and he was appointed to the Holsworthy Circuit. For fifty-three years he fulfilled a faithful and acceptable ministry. He was a man of virile intellect and had a great enthusiasm for his Church. He excelled as an interpreter of the Scriptures. Preaching was his passion and many of his sermons will never be forgotten. He took a keen interest in young men, and for many years held regular classes to assist them in their preparation for the pulpit and the Ministry. Retiring in 1912 to Northwood, Middlesex, he continued to take an active interest in the work so long as his strength allowed. He passed away on March 21, 1926, in the eighty-ninth year of his age and the sixty-seventh of his ministry, beloved by all who knew him for his saintly character and unselfish devotion to the Church of Christ.

(27) FREDERICK J. MANN: born in London, July 14, 1868, of devoted Methodist parents. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1890 and sent to Handsworth College. Industrious, methodical, studious, he possessed rare gifts of mind and heart. His appreciation and love of the best in literature added to the attractiveness of his preaching and his strong faith in the efficacy of the gospel he preached, marked all his pulpit appeals. As a pastor he was attentive and sympathetic to the needs of the humblest, and his memory will long be cherished in his circuits. He moved amongst the people with quiet, persuasive influence for good, and the greatest sermon he ever preached was his consistent life. Faithful in all things, he never spared himself but gave himself to the uttermost. During the War he was Chaplain to the Humber Defences, and cheerfully faced hardship and danger in the interests of the men. A man of marked individuality, he exerted a very gracious influence, in a circle wider than Methodism. The end came suddenly on March 23, 1926, after an operation, and he passed to higher service in the fifty-eighth year of his age and the thirty-third of his ministry.

(28) DAVID SOLOMON: born at St. Helen's, July 18, 1846. He spent his boyhood at Old Meldrum, Aberdeenshire. His parents were earnest Christians, his father being a most acceptable preacher and class-leader for nearly sixty years. His name was placed on the preachers' plan when he was seventeen. Two years later he was accepted as a Candidate. He was sent at once into circuit work, but his diligence in study and delight in service compensated in some measure for the lack of specific training. Good health, a clear and vigorous mind, sound judgment and untiring industry, were consecrated to his Lord, and in the love of the people he ministered in important circuits for fifty years—thirty-four of them in Lancashire. His sermons were forceful and impressive, rich in Scripture teaching and thoroughly evangelical. He preached to do his hearers good and to win them for Christ. As a pastor he was greatly beloved. His sympathy and thoughtfulness with those in trouble made him a true minister of consolation. To do a kind deed or to ease a burden gave him supreme joy. As preacher, pastor, and administrator he rendered memorable service, winning in all his circuits the confidence and love of colleagues and people. He retired to Stockport (Trinity) in 1916, and without suffering entered into rest on March 24, 1926, in the eightieth year of his age and the sixtieth of his ministry.

(29) HENRY PARKES: born in 1839 in the West Indies, where his father was a missionary. He was educated at Woodhouse Grove, accepted for the Ministry at the age of nineteen, and after three years at Richmond, sailed for China in 1862. For nearly twenty years he laboured in the Canton District, returning to England in 1882. He was noted in China for the ease with which he acquired the language, and for the intrepidity with which he faced the constant perils of those early days. After his return to England, he travelled mainly in country circuits, and retired from the active ministry in 1906. For some years he rendered willing service in the pulpit and in other ways. His preaching was always faithful and enlightening. He was most diligent in visitation and in care of the flock. As a colleague he was genial and encouraging. He was humble minded and naturally retiring and diffident. In his last days, when memory failed, his morning prayers seemed to grow more precise and more beautiful. He died at Streatham on April 3, 1926, in the eighty-seventh year of his age and the sixty-fourth of his ministry.

(30) William E. Sellers: born at North Roe, Shetland Isles, April 7, 1859, son of Rev. W. Sellers. He was educated at Woodhouse Grove, and entered the Ministry in 1878. For forty-seven years he served his Church with steady faithfulness, and in all his circuits exercised a gracious, beneficent, and successful ministry. He was a powerful preacher, a great organiser, a wise and successful administrator, and a gifted writer. All the gifts and graces with which he was so richly endowed were fully consecrated to the service of our Lord. In his work as a District Evangelist very many were converted to God, and throughout his ministry he was never so happy as when he succeeded in persuading men to be reconciled to God. During eight years spent as Superintendent of the Surrey and North Hants Mission, his organising and administrative gifts had full play. In his personal relation with his churches, his strong human sympathies, his wise counsel, and spiritual guidance have been an unspeakable blessing. He was a trusted leader and friend, because amongst the intricate ways of life and thought he had found for himself a safe and sure path. He was a strong, brave character, with a gentleness that is rarely found in one so strong. He was lovable and self-forgetful, and with him holy living was so beautiful a thing that he made others desire it more than all things else. The sorrows of bereavement visited him, but all bore fruit in refinement of life and character. In full service until the evening time of his life, this true servant of God passed to the Homeland on April 10, 1926.

(31) James H. Hodson, B.A., B.D.: born at Bolton, May 30, 1852. Trained in a devout Methodist home, he early turned his thoughts to the Ministry and became a resident in the house of Dr. Bowman Stephenson, who directed his studies. On leaving Didsbury he made full proof of his ministry until 1900, when health failed at Bristol and he retired to Lytham in 1901. Though never of robust health, he accomplished far more than many a stronger man. During a diligent circuit ministry he graduated in Arts at Dublin and in Divinity at St. Andrews. His twenty-five years at Lytham, in a happy home circle, were enriched with unostentatious but valuable service in literary work, leading a successful class, occasional preaching, and regular visitation of the sick. While devoted to the Church of his choice, he took such active interest in wider Christian fellowship and service as to win the respect and affection of all the Churches. He used his means and his leisure for fruitful labours of love. For many years he edited Experience, contributing largely from his own pen. He walked in the light and was a helper of many. A thoughtful preacher, a devoted pastor, a sympathetic adviser of young men, under his gentle demeanour there lay strong convictions, indomitable resolution, sound judgment, and deep spirituality, and he believed that Methodism, faithfully worked, was equal to all the demands of the age. He fell asleep on April 12, 1926, in the seventy-fourth year of his age and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(32) FREDERICK HALLIDAY: born at Frome, April 26, 1848, died at Woolwich, April 30, 1926. He was accepted as a Candidate from the Frome Circuit, and after training at Richmond worked as a missionary in India, mainly in the Lucknow District, till he was obliged to return home for reasons of health. He gave the same faithful care to the business affairs that came under his charge as he did to his preaching and pastoral work, regarding all alike as part of the same calling. He became a supernumerary in 1916, but continued to labour, first at Balham and then at Woolwich, to the full extent of his powers. In 1924 he went to Milan to open work among the English Colony, and gathered a small community together, but a serious accident compelled him to return to Woolwich. He continued to preach, to work in the Sunday-school, to meet classes, etc., and his interest in every part of the Church's work remained as keen as ever. On the day of his death he was at the Minister's Fraternal in the morning, visited a sick friend in the afternoon, and on returning home, he was busy writing when the call came and he passed to the larger life. He died as he had lived, and leaves behind him the memory of a gentle, brave, and sunny personality, beloved by all who knew him, and of a life faithfully spent in the cause he loved.

(33) AMOS DYSON: born at Meltham, near Huddersfield, March 4, 1842. He owed much to the example and teaching of godly parents. Accepted as a Candidate, he was sent to Didsbury, and in 1867 began a Ministry extending over forty-two years. As a preacher, he was forceful and original; his reading of the Scriptures was arresting, and the great evangelical truths were proclaimed with a passionate fervour that made them live in the hearts of his hearers. As a pastor he was most diligent. His visits to homes clouded by sickness or sorrow were a benediction. As a superintendent he excelled, combining firmness with tact, attending to every detail of administration, but ever keeping the larger issues in the foreground. He had strong views, but knew nothing of intolerance, and in all his dealings was kindly and charitably disposed. During a long life he read widely and wisely. Becoming a Supernumerary in 1908, he shortly afterwards made his home at Carlisle, where on May 20, 1926, in the eighty-fifth year of his age and the sixtieth of his ministry, he quietly and painlessly entered into rest.

(34) JOSEPH B. GRATTON: born at Bakewell, June 6, 1857. He came of godly parents, and was converted in his early teens. He at once became a zealous worker. After his acceptance as a Candidate he went to Richmond College. During his earlier ministry he spent three years in the Second London District as District Missionary; and evangelistic work always had his most earnest support. In all his circuits he rendered signal service, leaving them better than he found them; erecting new places of worship and removing financial burdens. The sorrowful and suffering ever received his tenderest care. He was a minister beloved of his people. On becoming a Supernumerary in 1924, he went to reside at Market Harborough, where he had many friends. There he laboured, so far as he was able, until he was suddenly translated to the Church Triumphant on June 4, 1926. Fervent and persuasive in his proclamation of the evangelical message, all who knew him acknowledged the simplicity and sincerity of his character and the far-reaching value of his work.

(35) Theophilus D. Anderson, B.A.: born at Snaith, December 6, 1842, son of the late Rev. John Anderson, and grandson of Rev. Henry Anderson, who entered the Ministry in the year of Wesley's death. He was educated at Kingswood, where he obtained the Conference Scholarship of a seventh year at the School, and became a junior master. His conversion was clear and definite, and while at Kingswood he began to preach. Accepted for the Ministry in 1863, he spent two years at Didsbury, acting in one of them as sub-tutor. His first appointment in 1865 was to the Clifton Circuit as assistant to Dr. Punshon. Thereafter he did the full work of a Methodist preacher for forty-seven years. He was blessed with good health, a buoyant and happy spirit, and a keen and active mind. He was a diligent student, a great lover of reading, and made a considerable study of Wesley's hymns. His preaching was full of Christ, and he sought the immediate profit of his hearers. Deep sympathy, enriched by personal sorrow, made him a prompt and diligent pastor, and his ministry to the suffering and bereaved was greatly blessed. In all his circuits he was highly esteemed as preacher, administrator, and Christian friend. He retired to the Stockport (Trinity) Circuit in 1912, undertaking pastoral duties at Bramhall. When unable to preach, he delighted to attend the public services and the meetings for fellowship. By his sympathy and prayers he greatly encouraged the preachers, and to the end his interest in social and religious questions was vital and deep. He entered into rest, after a brief illness, on June 23, 1926, in the eighty-fourth year of his age and the sixty-first of his ministry, happy and thankful that two of his sons continue the family name in the Ministry to the fourth generation.

(36) George Byron: born at Birkenhead, April 9, 1854. About the age of fifteen he was led to consecrate his life to the service of Christ. In 1876 he was accepted as a Candidate, and after three years' training in Headingley became District Missionary in the Macclesfield District. In 1882 he was appointed to Liverpool, under the Rev. Charles Garrett. This gave him a privilege and friendship he greatly appreciated and an experience he treasured to the end of his days. He was an attractive and forceful preacher, and both as District Missionary and Circuit Minister his work was crowned with success. He had a great ministry out of the pulpit as well as in it. He was blessed with a bright and cheerful disposition which made him a welcome and helpful visitor in the homes of the people. He was greatly beloved both by his colleagues and all to whom he ministered. In 1921 he retired from the active work and settled in Cardiff, where six happy years of his ministry had been spent. His services were still eagerly sought after and willingly given. During the last years of his life he was called upon to pass through much suffering, which was bravely and cheerfully borne. The joyous spirit that had cheered others never deserted him. While conducting a service his last illness came upon him, and he was taken direct from the pulpit to the nursing-home, where he passed away on June 28, 1926, in the seventy-second year of his life and the forty-eighth of his ministry.

(37) J. Hugh Jones: born at Newbury, Berkshire, July 28, 1850, son of the Rev. T. R. Jones, and grandson of the Rev. John Jones. He was educated at Kingswood School, was converted in his sixteenth year, and soon afterwards commenced to preach. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1871, and, after serving on the President's List of Reserve, was appointed in 1872 to Dover. There followed forty years of faithful and arduous labours, mostly in the Midland and Western Counties, often where conditions were difficult and circumstances adverse, but always with helpfulness and loving zeal. He retired from active work in 1911, but continued to render valuable service to the Church he greatly loved. In 1916 he went to live at Colwyn Bay, and in 1925 settled at Weston-super-Mare. A man of most genial disposition, warm-hearted and abounding in kindliness, he easily made friends, and his gracious and sympathetic pastorate made him ever welcome in the homes of our people. His spiritual and fervent preaching led many to decision for Christ. As a Superintendent he was judicious, kind, and considerate, and amid all his activities his devotion to Christ was manifest and supreme. After a brief illness, he passed away on July 6, 1926. He is remembered in his circuits with gratitude and affection.

(38) J. LONGMORE GRICE: the son of godly Methodist parents, who was born at King's Hill, Wednesbury, September 10, 1846. Converted in his fifteenth year, he began to preach in his eighteenth, and was accepted for the Ministry in 1869. After training at Headingley College, he exercised a long and gracious ministry, mostly in country circuits. He retired from the full work in 1912, and settled in Bridlington, where he continued with much joy to render magnificent service as preacher, class leader, and friend of the people. Up to the day of his death his supreme concern in life was to be about his Master's business. He was a saintly man, full of grace and sympathy, humble-minded and abounding in good works. He was beloved of all and will be greatly missed by all sorts of people. He passed away in his sleep on July 10, 1926, at the ripe age of 79.

(39) LINDSEY MOORE: born at Leicester, November 18, 1889. In early life he was brought to a saving knowledge of the truth and engaged in Christian work. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1911, and for three years was a student at Handsworth. After some years of strenuous work in East Anglia and other spheres, he moved to the Wath-on-Dearne Circuit, where, during the brief period of ten months, he made his presence felt in a very marked manner. A man of bright winning personality, of genial disposition, breezy, optimistic, overflowing with the spirit of good fellowship, he won his way into the hearts of all. Young and old rejoiced to meet him, and were made to feel better through contact with his contagious hopefulness. He was pre-eminently a "young people's man." A living example of the radiant Gospel, he conveyed good cheer wherever he went. Brightness and optimism were wedded to depth and thoroughness. His sermons were thoughtful and aptly enriched by forceful illustrations. As a preacher he was most popular, whilst his messages gave an uplift to all who were privileged to hear him. Singleness of aim and sincerity of purpose characterised all his work. He set himself to win men and women for Christ, and he touched the lives of many outside the Churches. His life was rooted in the unseen and eternal. He was a diligent pastor, and a most brotherly colleague. Dignified in bearing, lofty in character, he was held in the highest esteem. In the prime of life, he was stricken down with sickness, and on July 14, 1926, he passed home after eleven fruitful years in our Ministry.

(40) JOHN LAVERACK: born on June 6, 1847, at Newsholme, Yorkshire. After training at Handsworth, he began his ministry at Aldershot. In the service of the soldier he found his life's vocation, and, with the exception of seven years in circuit work, he was engaged in military and naval work up to the time of his death. In 1873 he accompanied the British expedition to Kumasi. He was the first Wesleyan minister sent by the military authorities with troops on active service, and was also the first to receive a war medal. In 1880 he was appointed senior chaplain at Malta, where for twenty years he fulfilled a far-reaching and successful ministry. As the result of his efforts, the Floriana Home was enlarged, the Sailors' Rest at Margherita was established, and the garrison church at Floriana erected. He possessed great business gifts, and was also a fervent and successful evangelist, and a real friend to every soldier and sailor. He knew all his men by name; he spent time in their company and his strength in their interests, and sought to win them for Christ and His Church. During the Egyptian Campaign of 1882 he had the pastoral care of the Wesleyans in the great base hospital at Malta, visiting the sick, comforting the dying, and carrying brightness and hope into the wards. His love and care for the suffering and lonely soldiers was simply extraordinary; he seemed to understand them, and they knew it. He was the recipient of their confidences, their wise adviser, and the link between them and their loved ones in the homeland. His passage through the hospitals could almost be traced by the sunshine he left in the wards. The last twenty years of his life were spent in a gracious ministry at Netley Hospital. In 1914 he was gazetted as a chaplain to the forces, his services being retained at Netley. During the four years of war, when the wards were crowded with wounded men, he was never off duty and never spared himself if he could in any way serve others. He was highly respected by the hospital staff; his visits were eagerly anticipated and welcomed by his patients, and his greatest joy was the knowledge that many of the men under his care were led to trust in Christ their Saviour. At the close of the war he added the visitation of transports to his hospital duties, speeding outgoing soldiers and their families, welcoming home-coming men. He passed peacefully away on July 17, 1926, in the fifty-fourth year of his ministry and the eightieth of his age.

(41) T. ALEXANDER SEED: born at Keighley, March 27, 1847. He began his business life in Bristol and was moved to London, where he became a worker in the City Road Circuit. After training at Didsbury, he began his circuit work in 1871. The study of God's Word became the unfailing pursuit of his whole life. During thirty-three years spent mostly in wide country circuits, he gave of his best in well-prepared expositions of the Word and diligent and faithful attention to all the duties of a Christian pastor. He enriched our periodical literature, and wrote some books of special value and interest. A serious accident led to his retirement in 1904, but his pen was not idle. He garnered thought from many lands, and made it accessible to others. These habits of a lifetime resulted in the formation of a richly gifted personality. The things of God and the soul were to him a joy and a delight. Always sociable and friendly, and steeped in the history and literature of his country and of Methodism, conversation with him was an inspiration and its memory is a cherished heritage. Free from pain, but in feebleness extreme, he passed away in his sleep on July 22, 1926, in his eightieth year and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(42) FREDERICK W. BEAUMONT: born at Haddenham, Cambridgeshire, in May 1866. To the example and influence of a Christian home he owed his early acceptance of the love of God in Jesus Christ. He became a Candidate from the Biggleswade Circuit in 1887, and after three happy years at Handsworth, began his active work in 1890. He was from the first a diligent student, a lover of the beautiful and true in nature, literature, art and human life. From all these spheres he continued to seek enrichment of thought and refinement of spirit for his ministry in the Gospel, the fulfilment of which was the dominating purpose and joy of his life. His spheres of service were such as to call forth and furnish a response to the best he could give, and this was given to the uttermost with zest that never flagged. Reverence for age, tender care for the sick and troubled, a great enthusiasm for winning the young for Christ, and a rare sympathy with their ideals, careful preparation for and delight in preaching, were notes of his many-sided and well-balanced ministry. His last year seemed to crown his labours—for he had the privilege of admitting, after due guidance in communicant classes, nearly fifty young people into the fellowship of our Otley Road Church, Bradford. On July 24, 1926, at the end of a glorious holiday in Switzerland, suddenly and unexpectedly, the call to Higher Service came to him. His body was laid to rest in the little cemetery at Spiez.

(43) ALFRED WELLS: born at Bromsgrove in 1844, and accepted for the Ministry in 1871. He was immediately appointed to Ormskirk, and did conspicuously faithful and effective work in many circuits until 1908. During his ministry in Bristol, Langton Street Chapel was detached from the Bedminster Circuit and became the centre of new evangelistic methods which led eventually to the establishment of the present wonderfully successful Mission in Old Market Street. As a preacher he was expository and intensely practical. His keen business habits stood him in good stead in the many difficult schemes he had to undertake. He had a thorough grasp of our polity, and, even when a Supernumerary at Folkestone, did not hesitate to grapple with perplexing legal and financial difficulties with complete success. Those who knew him best speak of his deeply sympathetic nature, which enabled him to render real spiritual help to those of his people in special need of consolation. He became a Supernumerary in 1909, and passed peacefully away at Portishead on July 24, 1926.

2. In Ireland, three:

(1) WILLIAM HARPUR: born in Annahone (near Clones), co. Fermanagh, August 10, 1851. He owed much to the influence of godly parents, and during special services held by the late Rev. James Carson was led to yield his life to Christ. He was accepted as a Candidate by the Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Conference in 1874. His circuit ministry was much owned of God. His preaching combined rich expository teaching and warm evangelical fervour. As pastor he proved himself a friend to many. In 1890, after many months of waiting upon God, in which he was joined by the Rectors and Curate of the Church of Ireland in Arklow, he and they felt impelled to go forth and declare the Gospel in the open air. Henceforth Ireland, Southern Ireland particularly, was to be his parish. Obloquy, persecution, and personal assault became the lot of the intrepid evangelist and his companions. Nevertheless, as time passed the work prospered. In 1897 the "Central Ireland Mission" came into being. From Athlone he went forth over an ever-widening circle of towns and villages. As in fair and market-place folk began to realise the singleness of aim that moved the preacher and his co-workers, a growing spirit of tolerance was evinced. In 1901 he was able to devote all his attention to open-air evangelism. The story is one of true missionary romance, of tears and of triumphs. One sublime passion constrained him—Christ. He would have all his countrymen behold the Saviour unto the salvation of their souls and the regeneration of their manhood. He possessed many gifts: a mind well stored; courage blended with gentleness; a voice far-reaching and appealing in tone; utterance deeply persuasive; patience and tact—humility and love crowning all. He was willing to lay down life itself that his fellow-countrymen might feel the healing touch of Jesus. The results of his ministry are incalculable. He contributed royally and unselfishly, under God, toward Ireland's spiritual transformation. Praying and planning to the last day of life for the highest interests of his native land, he fell asleep in Jesus at Dalkey on November 4, 1925, in the seventy-fifth year of his age and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(2) JOHN MAGILL: born at Ballykeel, near Dromore, co. Down, March 7, 1846. As a youth he gave himself in love and trust to the Saviour. While engaged as a teacher he heard the call to wider service, and entered the Ministry in 1870. In every circuit he is remembered with affection and respect. He had a cheerful outlook upon life, and his long ministry was a living exposition of the gladness that is sown for the upright in heart. Enjoying the confidence of his brethren, he filled with administrative ability the offices of Secretary and Chairman of District. He was "mighty in the Scriptures," and his sermons were evangelical and enriched with Biblical allusion and quotation. As a pastor he was tactful and eminently successful, tending the flock of God with fidelity and sympathy. To those in sorrow he ministered with great tenderness of heart. A wise counsellor, he ever exerted an influence which made for the keeping of "the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace." Another trait in his character was his thoroughness: he never did the Lord's work negligently. "Faithful in that which is least," he was "faithful also in much." He was much in prayer, and in this spirit offered all his works to the Christ he loved. After forty-three years he retired from active service, but for thirteen years served with continued success in England and at home. On the Sunday previous to his death he preached with marked power and earnestness on the texts, "Come unto Me, all ye that labour," and "Him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out." His long ministry thus closed on the note of "welcome to the sinner" that had characterised it throughout. Full of years and honour and in the hope that is full of immortality, he entered into rest on March 18, 1926, in the eighty-first year of his age and the fifty-sixth of his ministry.

(3) JOHN E. GREEN: born at Drumcrow, near Arva, co. Cavan, May 14, 1837. He was early brought under the influence of Methodism by means of preaching services in his father's house. At the age of eighteen he was led to put his trust in Christ, and immediately began to take part in various forms of Christian activity. He entered the Ministry in 1861. He excelled as a pastor, and many of our leading workers date their earliest efforts to his example and counsel. In the year 1904, after an active and fruitful ministry of forty-three years, he retired from regular circuit work; but from 1908 to 1912 was active and zealous in his charge of the Ringsend congregation. After that date his association was with our Church at Blackrock, and succeeding ministers proved the inspiration and value of his presence and cheery word. He had a genius for friendship, and to the end his great strength lay in keeping in touch with individuals: he was a mighty encourager, and had the love that "hopeth all things." A veritable peacemaker, he retained in an unusual fashion the affection of those with whom he served in the Church. Prayer was his vital breath. He was a Christian optimist, and believed in our great and storied past; he believed also that the best was yet to be. In his last years he was as keen for the coming of the Kingdom as in the flush of youth, and preserved the winsome and joyous spirit of a child to the very end. God set His stamp unmistakably on him, and in all things he adorned the doctrine. After a brief illness he passed into the heavenly home on June 2, 1926, in the ninetieth year of his age and the sixty-fifth of his ministry.

3. In our Foreign Missions, eight:

(1) THOMAS MARSHALL: who after serving as a Catechist Teacher entered the Gold Coast Ministry in 1898, when he was more than fifty years old. The courage and faithfulness with which he discharged his duties in the face of adverse circumstances proved the depth of his love for the extension of the Master's Kingdom and his one aim, the salvation of all men. During his Supernumeraryship he continued to preach with vigour and earnestness as far as his strength would allow. He anticipated his return to the active ministry, when he was called to the Homeland on May 12, 1925, in a ripe old age. Though dead, he yet speaketh by his Christian character. One of his sons is a Bishop in an African Christian Church.

(2) ROBERT M. ACQUAAH: our senior African Minister on the Gold Coast, passed away on August 4, 1925, at his native home of Kuntu, near Saltpond, at the age of 68, and in the forty-first year of his ministry. In 1884, whilst a Catechist at Abuasi, he entered the Ministry. He represented the West African Synods at the Wesley Centenary celebrations in England. He was a faithful and conscientious pastor, a sympathetic and firm friend. His preaching was evangelical, eloquent, and convincing, and he was instrumental in the conversion of many. He was a man of principle, conservative and yet open to conviction. Pious and studious, he cultivated his gifts and graces with diligence. His wisdom, high ideals, courage, and frankness gave him prominence among his brethren, and he commanded respect and affection in the various communities in which he lived.

(3) JAMES PAUL: who died at Gorakhpur, September 13, 1925, after twenty-three years of faithful service in connection with the Lucknow District. He was the first Indian Minister to be appointed to the Jubbulpore Circuit, and then had the honour of sharing with the Rev. C. P. Cape in the beginning of the wonderful ingathering of the Doms in Benares. In this difficult and, in many ways, unpleasant task, he was a faithful pastor and evangelist. The fruits of that hard toil are our pride and joy to-day. He became a Supernumerary in 1909, and, in his retirement, continued to help the Work of God in such ways as his strength allowed.

(4) SAMUEL C. DODD: born at Winnebah, where he received his training and education. Nurtured and influenced by a godly father, he became attached to Wesleyan Methodism. Later in life he served as a teacher. He was of a lovable disposition, and won the affection of all with whom he came into contact. In 1915 he entered the Ministry. His work was greatly owned by God. His natural gifts were touched with a heavenly refinement. He was prayerful, patient, and forbearing; and had a passion for soul winning. He was scrupulously conscientious, unselfish, gentle, and winsome. He was alive to all the interests of the passing hour and ministered with delight and instruction to the young life of the Church. In the fortieth year of his age and the tenth of his ministry, he passed away peacefully, after a few days' illness at Odumtu, where he had laboured for four years. Called to a nobler service, he died on October 5, 1925, in the full assurance of eternal life.

(5) SUNG SHAN T'U: born in 1866 in the country near Lang Lo. He was the son of one of the evangelists in the Wuchang District, and was thus brought early under Christian influence. When quite a young man he impressed the Church with his spirituality and sincerity of purpose, and was placed under the supervision of some of the Missionaries with a view to training him as a preacher. He won the esteem and confidence of all who knew him, and before long was placed in very responsible positions. In districts where new work was springing up he proved invaluable, ever keeping before his people the real nature of the spiritual claims of the Church. He entered the Ministry in 1904, and in all his circuits laboured hard to win men for Christ. He was tactful and discreet, and proved a wise counsellor to his colleagues in many difficult situations. His preaching was with power, and his aim was to bring men into living relationship with his Lord and Master. In 1923 he was compelled to become a Supernumerary, but for two years continued to render assistance as far as health allowed, till he passed to his rest on January 8, 1926, in the twenty-first year of his ministry.

(6) AUGUSTE ALBERT: born in the town of Cape Haytian, in the Republic of Hayti, of a respectable Roman Catholic family. For some years he was Local Inspector of Schools. He was soundly converted whilst attending a public prayer meeting. He became a very acceptable local preacher, and in 1892 entered our Ministry. He was a very attractive speaker on the public platform, and a sound and cultured preacher. He was exceedingly well-read and was a classical scholar. During his ministry he became very popular as a moral reformer, and up to the last he was a great power for good throughout the country. He had many friends amongst both Protestants and Romanists, Haytians and Europians. As a Haytian patriot he was of outstanding worth and of great influence. His death was lamented by the entire community. He died on April 17, 1926, at Cape Haytian, in the sixty-sixth year of his age and the thirty-fifth of his ministry.

(7) JOHN HOWARD: born at Mossley, Lancashire, in 1862, the son of loyal Methodist parents. Much in his early environment served to create deep convictions on social and religious questions, and these he maintained to the end. He began to preach as a youth, and in 1886 was accepted as a Candidate and sent to Richmond, where he applied himself with conspicuous diligence. In 1890 he was appointed to the East London Mission where for thirteen years he laboured as colleague to Rev. Peter Thompson. The story of the mission during that period reads like a romance, and in the vanguard of this great adventure of evangelism he ever marched. He stood as an apostle of liberty, the poor found in him a Greatheart and the oppressor a fearless opponent. In 1903 he responded to the call of the Transvaal, where he applied himself immediately to the needs of all races. His passion for social righteousness moved him to selfless devotion to Europeans, Indians, and Africans. He aroused opposition, but he had no enemies. He was pre-eminently an evangelist; many trophies he laid at the feet of his Master. Brilliant in debate, eloquent in the pulpit, masterly on the platform, yet his best work was done in his study, where great numbers of young men came to him as guide, philosopher, and friend. Many who occupy prominent positions in parliamentary, civic, and religious life owe their inspiration to him. His last task was to build a beautiful European church at Benoni, a fitting close to a beautiful ministry. He will be remembered in all his circuits for his unique combination of courage with tenderness, his dramatic gifts in the pulpit, his sanctified humour, his passion for souls. He was a true Knight of the Cross who lived "a life of duty transfigured into love." He died on May 14, 1926, at the age of sixty-four, in the thirty-seventh year of his ministry.

(8) JOSIAH ISAAC: born of Christian parents, August 22, 1870, was early instructed in Holy Scripture and urged to undergo theological training at the London Missionary Seminary, Bangalore. This he declined, as he felt no fitness for such a calling. Leaving Madras, he went to Penang, where life went hardly with him. On December 31, 1894, being alone in the house, in great heaviness of heart, he read again and again the story of the prodigal son. As he read, he realised his own wilfulness and ingratitude to God his loving Father. After a night spent in prayer, he found the peace that passeth understanding. He joined the M.E. Church, and became an exhorter. He also began to read Methodist books. After he returned to India, he became a local preacher in St. Thomas's Mount, and some years later assistant tutor at Guindy. The Conference of 1907 received him on probation. His preaching was evangelical and attractive. He was diligent in pastoral work. He travelled in the leading circuits of the Madras District. Extra work and the excessive heat of the season greatly reduced his strength. He developed severe typhoid fever and passed away at Nagari on Sunday, June 13, 1926. Even in his delirium his mind was busy with the work of his Master.

(2) Under the scheme for the Re-organisation of Probationers' Studies adopted by the Conference of 1921, the functions of the Connexional Board of Examiners previously appointed are fulfilled by the Panel of Directors of Studies and the Board of Correspondence-Tutors.

The scheme in detail is re-printed below.

3. Revised General Regulations:

(1) The subjects for study in each of the first three years of Probation shall be four in number, viz.:—(A) New Testament, (B) Old Testament, (C) Theology, in the third year especially Methodist Doctrine and Polity, and (D) Church History, or Philosophy, or the Study of Social Problems. In the fourth year the subjects shall be three in number, viz.:—(A), (B), and (C), omitting (D).

N.B.—The subject under (D) shall be chosen by the General Secretaries, in consultation with the College Tutors, and shall be consecutive during the years of Probation. All Probationers shall be required to include in their studies the prescribed subjects in the Old and New Testament. All Probationers who have passed through the Institution shall take these subjects in Hebrew and Greek respectively, unless they are exempted on the authority of the College Staff. Application for such exemption must be made at the beginning of the Connexional Year.

(2) In these subjects, in place of the system of independent study with a final examination, each Probationer shall study under the guidance of a Tutor in each subject, who shall direct his work and test it at suitable intervals.

(3) The report of the Connexional Committee to the May Synods shall be based on the reports of the Tutors in the various subjects, care being taken to secure an adequate estimate both of the amount and quality of the work.

(4) The scheme shall be worked out as follows:

I.—A small panel of Directors of Studies shall be appointed, to consist of four groups, with three members for each (one for each of the four subjects of study). The heads of groups dealing with subjects (A) (B), and (C), shall be Tutors at the Theological Institution, and the Tutors shall be expected to take this duty in rotation. For each of the subjects under (D) a Tutor at the Institution shall be asked to serve continuously from year to year, with two Assessors.

Their duty shall be to prepare a series of four study-papers before September in subjects (A) to (C), and of three study-papers before Easter in subjects under (D), and to forward to the General Secretaries.

II.—A large Panel of Correspondence-Tutors shall be appointed, whose work will be:

(a) To receive the study-papers from the General Secretaries, and to despatch a study-paper to each Probationer in subjects (A) to (C) at intervals of about six weeks, commencing in September. In the case of subjects under (D), the three study-papers shall be distributed between Easter and Conference, during the first three years of Probation only.

(b) To receive the work of each Probationer at the end of each period of six weeks, examine and mark it, register the mark, and return to the Probationer with suitable guidance.

(c) To return their reports to the General Secretaries as soon as possible after March 31, or, in the case of subjects under (D), after June 30.

III.—In this connection the work of the General Secretaries will be:

(a) To receive the study-papers from the Directors of Studies, and despatch them to the Correspondence-Tutors.

(b) To receive the reports from the Correspondence-Tutors in April (or for subjects under (D) in June), and to present them to the General Committee, which will report to the Synods as at present.

(c) To receive the recommendations of the Synods and present them to the General Committee.

IV.—The system here outlined shall apply to all Probationers except in cases where, in the judgment of the Secretaries (in consultation with the College Tutors), the older method of an annual examination without tutorial guidance may appear preferable in one or more subjects.

The arrangements for the selection of examiners for Probationers who take advantage of section IV shall be at the discretion of the General Secretaries. The date for the Examination under this Section is March 25, 1927.

(5) The marks of all study courses shall be returned in percentages and not in grades. The result for each Probationer shall be determined according to his average percentage in the whole study course in each subject. An average of 80 per cent. or over shall entitle to First Class Honours, one of 65 per cent. or over to Second Class Honours, while an average of under 35 per cent. shall involve failure in the whole course.

An Honours List shall be prepared each year, showing the names of Probationers who have attained Honours in the ordinary study courses, and also of those who have taken special subjects and have obtained an honours mark in the examination.

(6) The September Synod of each District shall appoint a District Secretary, and an examination shall be held under his supervision for Probationers taking advantage of paragraph IV above, care being taken in selecting a place of examination to reduce as far as possible the travelling expenses involved.

Every Probationer may claim third-class railway fare to and from the place of Examination. These and other expenses of the Examination, with the exception of local expenses, shall be defrayed from the Connexional Fund and the Theological Institution Fund.

(7) Students who are called out of College into the Home work during the Connexional year shall not take the Probationers' Studies, but shall be examined in subjects fixed by their College staff, and the results shall be reported to the Discipline Committee.

(8) Probationers who have not been to the Institution shall be assigned to Study Groups according to their attainments at the discretion of the General Secretaries. Those who have not previously studied Greek shall be expected to begin the study of New Testament Greek grammar, with a few verses of translation. The Secretaries shall have power to exempt from this for sufficient cause, substituting two English Biblical subjects. The marks obtained shall be reported to the Allocation Committee. From these Probationers a fourth (D) subject will not be required.

(9) The General Secretaries shall send to the May Synod a detailed report of each Probationer's work for the year. This shall show the subjects taken, the marks obtained in each, and the place in Honours, if any, together with any observations made by the Examiners or by the General Secretaries. The District Secretary shall receive these reports and present them to the Synod, and subsequently transmit to the General Secretaries the Synod's resolutions upon them.

(10) The General Secretaries shall prepare a report to the Conference. This shall contain a brief account of the year's work, with reports on all cases of failure from whatsoever cause.

(11) A Probationer who is prevented by illness or other imperative cause from sending in his answer-paper to his tutor or tutors at the appointed time shall send, at the time, a medical report to Rev. J. Grange Radford, B.D., who will inform the tutors; this medical report should indicate the length of time during which the Probationer is to be exempted from his studies. Should a Probationer, taking advantage of paragraph IV. above, be compelled to be absent from his examination, he shall communicate with his Chairman, and send to the General Secretaries a detailed statement of the work done in preparation for it, together with a full medical report; and the General Secretaries shall report their judgment to the Synod.

(12) Should any Probationer have been prevented from completing the year's work more than once during his probation, on account of health, the General Secretaries shall send to the Designation Committee, after the May Synod, a full report of the case, with a medical statement, and the Designation Committee shall report to the Conference on the question of his ordination.

(13) In the case of every Candidate for Ordination, a record of the whole of his studies during probation shall be prepared by the General Secretaries, and sent to the Synod, showing the average percentage each year, and place, if any, in Honours, together with general comments on the record as a whole. Should this record be deemed by the Secretaries unsatisfactory, they may recommend to the Synod that the candidate's ordination should either be deferred or made conditional upon his passing certain examinations before Conference. The number and character of such examinations shall be determined by the Synod upon the Secretaries' recommendation.

(14) When part of any candidate's probation has been spent upon the Foreign Field, the report to the Synod shall include a report supplied by the Missionary Secretaries as to his work while abroad.

(15) A report on English Probationers on Foreign Stations in their fourth year shall be presented to the Probationers' Oversight Committee by the Missionary Secretaries.

(16) Book List.—The Probationers' Oversight and Examination Committee is instructed to prepare, and, at the beginning of the Connexional Year, to send to each Probationer, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Probationers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the Scriptural Doctrine of the Church. The General Secretaries shall send to each Probationer, early in April, a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XXXVIII. What are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Candidates for the Ministry?

A. 1. For the GENERAL REGULATIONS see Summary, pp. 189–214.

Preliminary Examination.

2. The two papers of the Preliminary Examination shall be set and marked by Examiners nominated yearly by the Sub-Committee of Studies of the Theological Institution. The Examiners for this year are the Revs. Christopher R. North, M.A., S. Taylor Richards, M.A., Charles A. Gimblett, M.A., and W. S. Handley Jones. Two Examiners shall be appointed for paper (a) and two for paper (b). The questions shall be submitted in proof to three Ministers appointed year by year by the Conference. The following are appointed for this year: Revs. J. Wesley Hart, C. Claud Mayes, B.A., and Edward J. Gawne.

The answers shall be written in the presence of the Superintendents of the Circuits by which the Candidates are recommended, or of one or more other Ministers. This Examination shall be held on Thursday and Friday, April 7 and 8, 1927.

N.B.—(1) Candidates who have passed an examination qualifying for admission to any British University, or an equivalent Examination, are exempt from the Preliminary Literary Examination.

(2) Superintendents should send at once to the Secretaries the names and addresses of Candidates recommended by the Quarterly Meeting.

Sermons.

3. Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod for the hearing of each Candidate by three Ministers of the District, other than those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; such Ministers shall suggest a mark and immediately forward their Report to the Rev. W. Percy Hutton, B.A., Wesley Manse, New Road, Willenhall, Staffs.

July Committee.

4. (i) The Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry who have passed the District Synods shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury, respectively. This Examination shall be held in the week following Sunday, July 3, 1927.

(ii) The Minister appointed by the Welsh Assembly shall be a Member of the Southern Section.

(iii) The Revs. Arthur E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D., and W. Percy Hutton, B.A., General Secretary of the Theological Institution, are appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

(iv) All communications relating to Candidates must be addressed to the Rev. Arthur E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D., Glenwood, Ringstead Road, Sutton, Surrey.

(v) The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution and the Rev. George Marris are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary for the Didsbury Branch and the Rev. Thomas

A. Turney to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

Educational Standard for Candidates.

The attention of Superintendents and prospective Candidates for the Ministry is called to the fact that ordinarily the Conference does not accept Candidates who do not reach a definite educational standard. The examination to test the Candidates' ability to reach this standard shall be the Literary Paper set at the July Committee. A " pass " representing 50 per cent. of the total marks possible will ordinarily be required.

The Conference is strongly of opinion that the prescribed standard is a modest and reasonable requirement from men who offer themselves for the Christian Ministry, and considers it inadvisable to lower the standard. Recognising, however, that cases arise of Candidates whose failure to meet the required educational standard is more than counter-balanced by remarkable gifts in other directions, the Conference resolves that the above regulation shall not be so applied as to prevent either the acceptance of such Candidates or their being sent to the Theological Institution.

The Literary paper shall consist of :

(1) An Essay (20 marks).

It is recommended that not more than half an hour should be spent on this subject.

(2) Fifteen other questions of which any eight, but eight only, may be taken (10 marks each).

(a) Five on English Literature (set books).
(b) Three on English Grammar and Analysis.
(c) Three on English History (a set period).
(d) Four on Arithmetic.

On this paper 50 per cent. shall be required.

Candidates who have a good secondary education, but have not matriculated, shall, before their Oral Examination, be interviewed as to the use they have made of their educational opportunities, and a report of the interview shall be presented to the July Committee.

Set Books for 1927 :

(a) Shakespeare's Hamlet, and Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress.
(c) Green : Chaps. 8–9, " Puritan England and the Revolution."

(a) English Literature : Shakespeare's Tempest, and Bacon's Essays (Everyman's Library).
(c) English History : J. R. Green : A Short History of the English People, Chapters 6 and 7, " The New Monarchy and the Revolution."

N.B.—(1) Candidates who have passed an intermediate examination for a degree at a British University, or who, within a period of five years before their candidature, have matriculated, or passed an examination recognised as exempting from matriculation at any British University, shall be exempted from the July Literary Examination (Minutes, 1921, p. 258).

(2) The attention of all Candidates is called to the largely increased facilities for matriculating or passing some equivalent examination, and they are strongly urged to avail themselves of these opportunities before making their offer.

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

Retirement of the Rev. Marshall Hartley.—Upon the retirement of the Rev. Marshall Hartley after an active ministry of fifty-eight years, the Conference, both in its Representative and Pastoral Sessions, desires to express its deep and tender affection and veneration for him and its high appreciation of the manifold and valuable services, eminent alike in their ability and fidelity, which he has rendered to Methodism. First as Assistant Tutor at Richmond College for four years, then as a greatly esteemed Circuit Minister for sixteen years, and finally in the work of departments for thirty-eight years, Mr. Hartley has served the Church with conspicuous devotion and success. For thirty-one years he was one of the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society, where, by his capable administration and unwearied labours, he contributed largely to the improvement of its organisation and the extension of its work. The Worn-out Ministers' Auxiliary Fund and Ministers' Children's Fund, of which he has long been Treasurer, owe much to his sympathetic, sagacious, and able guidance, while his patient and loving individual oversight of Kingswood School as "Visitor" for twenty-three years has laid the whole brotherhood of the Wesleyan Ministry under deep and permanent obligation. His unique financial and administrative ability as Treasurer of the Theological Institution has guided that department through a difficult period, and has increased the efficiency and usefulness of our Colleges. Upon the Committees of other departments he has been an influential member and, by his unrivalled knowledge and experience, his mastery of our polity and his sound judgment, he has rendered great and enduring service.

The Conference desires respectfully to offer to Mr. Hartley its warm congratulations upon the completion of his long and distinguished ministry. It would further assure him that his name will always be held in honour and affection amongst us, and that he will be followed into retirement by the prayers of a grateful Methodist people.

Retirement of the Rev. David A. Rees.—In acceding to the request of the Rev. David Arthur Rees to become a supernumerary, the Conference desires to records its gratitude for half a century of service abroad, the whole of which was given to the Mysore District. The missionary record of Mr. Rees gives him a worthy place among a group of distinguished men of whom any District might be proud. His geniality and love of the brethren, his gift of fluent speech, his mastery of the vernacular, his administrative wisdom, his knowledge of the people, and his large-hearted sympathy, are the outstanding elements in a personality as lovable as eminent. His long occupancy of the Chair of the District gave him the opportunity of impressing his mark upon every part of its work, and to the very last he has retained a spiritual fervour unimpaired by the responsibilities of office.

Retirement of the Rev. J. Edwin Dixon from the Assistant-Secretaryship of the Conference.—The Conference deeply regrets that under medical advice the Rev. J. Edwin Dixon finds it necessary to relinquish the office of Senior Assistant Secretary. For seventeen years, as Assistant Journal Secretary, Journal Secretary, and Senior Assistant, Mr. Dixon has served upon the Conference platform with unfailing diligence and devotion. His work has earned for him the gratitude and appreciation of his colleagues and of the whole Conference, and his brethren would assure him of their high esteem and affectionate goodwill.

Retirement of the Rev. Thomas A. Turney from the "Record" Secretaryship of the Conference.—The Conference expresses its warm appreciation of the services of the Rev. Thomas A. Turney as Record Secretary during the past six years, and regrets that on grounds of health he feels unable to continue the duties of that office. It recognises the ability, energy, and devotion which have always characterised the work of Mr. Turney; and earnestly prays that his health may be fully restored, so that in other and larger spheres he may continue to serve the Church he loves.

Convener of Memorials Committee.—1. The Rev. JAMES R. IRVING is appointed Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions for the Conference of 1927, and as such is an ex-officio member of the Pastoral Session of that Conference.

2. The Convener is instructed to divide the District Suggestions into two lists, according to their Subjects: (1) For the Representative Session, and (2) for the Pastoral Session, of the Conference; and to submit the lists to the President before they are entered in the Agenda; (3) The Memorials from Circuits shall be printed and circulated throughout the Conference.

3. The Secretary of the Conference shall furnish the Convener with a List of all matters referred for consideration to the several Departmental Committees; and the Convener shall obtain the several decisions of the said Committees thereupon, and present them to the following Conference.

Convener of Scrutineers.—The Rev. J. HENRY MADDOCK is appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for all offices, at the Conference of 1927; and as such is an ex-officio member of the Pastoral Session of that Conference.

Conference Precentor.—The Rev. HOWARD WATKIN-JONES, M.A., B.D., is appointed to act as Precentor at the Conference of 1927, and as such is an ex-officio member of the Pastoral Session of that Conference.

Assistant Secretaries.—The Conference appoints the Rev. Robert Bond (Assistant Secretary), and re-appoints the Revs. Edwin Finch (Record Secretary), and John Telford, B.A., and Thomas H. Barratt, B.A. (Letter-writers).

Journal Secretaries.—The Conference re-appoints the Rev. J. Oliver Hornabrook, O.B.E., as Journal Secretary, and the Rev. Walter J. Morgan as Assistant Journal Secretary, who are thereby ex-officio members of the Conference of 1927.

The Pastoral Address.—The following Committee is appointed to prepare the Pastoral Address for the Conference of 1927: Revs. Dr. C. Ryder Smith, B.A., Herbert Cooper, G. E. Hickman Johnson.

Nominations for Election into the Legal Conference to fill vacancies caused by death, or absence for two years without dispensation. (See Minutes, 1923, p. 293.) The following Ministers are nominated: Revs. Alfred J. Costain, M.A., J. Kimber Hill, Arthur Rudman, R. Moffat Gautrey, Harold B. Rattenbury, Alfred E. Whitham, W. Fiddian Moulton, M.A., Edgar C. Barton.

Extended Ministerial Appointments.—The Conference adopts the following resolutions in respect of future procedure:

(a) That the Resolution of the Conference of 1923 (Min., 1923, p. 277) declaring that "it will be necessary in future to scrutinise these proposals much more carefully and that only in exceptional cases can extended appointments be considered" be re-affirmed.

(b) That whilst in no way interfering with the usual official invitation given in March, Circuit Stewards shall in future notify after the September Quarterly Meeting their intention to give an invitation for an extended term, and shall be requested to forward any such proposal in writing to their Representative on the Stationing Committee and to the Secretary of the Conference.

(c) That the Stationing Committee be required to meet in the month of October to examine each application and to make a recommendation, in an advisory capacity to the Circuits and Ministers concerned (Minutes, 1925, p. 281).

Reports of Candidates' Sermons.—The Conference instructs all Ministers appointed to hear the Trial Sermons of Candidates for the Ministry that the Reports be much briefer and that they should be written or typed on foolscap.

Candidates from the Welsh Districts.—The Conference places on record that in the case of Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts, the offer "General" is to be interpreted as meaning "Home," "Foreign," or "Welsh."

Dispensations to Probationers.—1. In granting Dispensations upon the recommendation of the Stationing Committee to certain Probationers to administer the Sacraments, the Conference directs that a "Form of Dispensation" signed by the President shall be supplied year by year to each Probationer to whom a Dispensation is given.

2. The Conference refers the whole question again to the Stationing Committee with a view to the adoption of some general principles for guidance in respect of these applications in the future.

Ordination Sermon at Synod.—The Conference resolves that the Standing Order, which requires Candidates for Ordination to preach at or before the May District Synod, shall be rescinded (Mins., 1925, S.O. 83 (4); Daily Record, 1926, p. 96).

Non-Collegiate Probationers Appointed to Circuits.—In view of the large number of Non-Collegiate Probationers appointed to Circuits and the urgent necessity that they should receive counsel and instruction concerning their new duties and responsibilities, the Conference requests the Rev. F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., General Secretary of Home Missions, to arrange, if possible, in association with other Ministers whose help may be obtained, to meet such Probationers in Retreat before they proceed to their appointments.

The Relation of Children to the Church—Junior Membership.—The Conference adopts the following addendum to the Regulations upon the Relation of Children to the Church (Summary, p. 26, par 4):

> Where it seems advisable to the Minister and the Leaders' Meeting concerned, the Classes so formed may be Junior Classes, their Members being counted accordingly as Junior Members. It is specially recommended that this course should be followed in connection with the Devotional Section of the Junior Wesley Guild. (Agenda, 1924, p. 324; Daily Record, p. 29.)

Re-appointment of Ministers to Former Circuits.—The Conference resolves that the Standing Order, which requires that the term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit before he can be re-appointed shall be three years, be suspended in all cases of Extended Appointments made at the present Conference (Daily Record, 1926, p. 92).

University Students and Status.—The Conference resolves that:

> "Welsh Candidates who have permission to continue their studies at a University shall be treated in reference to status exactly as other Candidates, and that however many years they may spend at a University, their probation (five years presumably) shall commence when they come under the direct control of the Connexion either at a branch of the Theological Institution or in a Circuit."

The Conference directs that Standing Order 79, sec. (e), par. iii (Min., 1924, p. 335) be amended to read as follows:

> "These regulations shall apply to Candidates accepted from the Welsh Districts."

Candidates at Universities.—The Conference resolves that in future all requests from accepted Candidates, for permission to reside in Circuits in order to continue their studies at a University, shall be submitted to the Designation Committee at its June Meeting, and that provisional sanction be obtained from that Committee for such arrangements.

Religious Oversight of Students in Universities and Colleges.—(1) The Conference receives the Report of the Home Mission Committee, referred by the Representative Session to the Pastoral Session for consideration (Minutes, p. 27).

(2) The Conference approves the proposals of the Report in their Pastoral aspects.

South Wales Coalfields—Interchange of Ministers.—Upon the recommendation of the South Wales Coalfields Commission (Agenda, p. 81), the Conference directs:

(1) That the English and Welsh Ministers stationed at Tredegar and Brynmawr respectively shall change with each other on one Sunday in every quarter.

(2) That, wherever possible, bi-lingual Ministers shall be appointed to the English Circuits in Wales.

Ministerial Contributions to the Worn-Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund.—(1) The Conference adopts the following scale of Contributions based on the stipends of Ministers and Probationers:

Stipends of over £400 to contribute £4 4*s*.

SECTION V.

STANDING ORDERS.

I. THE CONNEXION.

1. Title of the Connexion.—(1) Having regard to the terms used in our Trust Deeds and other Legal Documents, it is not possible for the Conference to alter the title of the Connexion as it appears on the front page of the Minutes of Conference. The Conference declares, however, that the title hitherto used is not, and never has been, inconsistent with the assertion for "the People called Methodists" of a true and proper position as a Church, with all the authorities, privileges, and responsibilities belonging to the New Testament Church; and in this view of our principles and of the facts of the case, the Conference, so far from discouraging, distinctly approves of the general and popular use of the term, "The Wesleyan Methodist Church." (Summary,* p. 3.)

(2) The Conference directs, particularly in all official documents, that our full and correct title of Wesleyan Methodist shall be used. (Summary, p. 3.)

2. Nomination Committee.—(1) The Nomination Committee shall consist of five ministers and five Laymen, in addition to the President and Secretary of the Conference, with two Secretaries (Ministerial and Lay); and shall meet twice in the year—in May, and immediately before the Conference. Some Representative of each Department shall be present at both these meetings, by arrangement of the Committee of such Department.

(2) The Nominations for the ensuing Conference shall be made by the several Connexional Committees not later than April (with the exception of the Local Preachers', Class Leaders', Auxiliary Fund, Connexional Fund, Ministers' Children, Theological Institution, and the Wesley Deaconess Institute Committees, together with the Wesley Guild Central Council, which shall report not later than July 2); and the Secretaries shall send to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, a full fortnight before its first meeting, at least twenty-five printed lists of members so nominated, on which there shall be a record of the attendances of the members during the past year. The names of new members shall be printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment shall be distinguished by an asterisk.

(3) One-fifth of the Ministers and of the Laymen on each Connexional Committee shall retire annually, and shall not be eligible for re-election, except by a two-thirds majority of those present. The vote shall be taken by ballot after all nominations have been placed before the Committee, first on those who have been proposed for re-nomination, and afterwards on those newly nominated.

(4) The Secretaries of the Nomination Committee shall compile a register of the names of such persons nominated or re-nominated, with a list of all the Connexional Committees on which it is proposed they should serve, and send a copy to each member of the Nomination Committee seven days before its first meeting.

(5) These names shall be considered by the Nomination Committee, which shall have power to make any suggestions it thinks fit in regard to them. While it is inadvisable to lay down any hard-and-fast limit, it is, as a general rule, undesirable that any person should be nominated for appointment on another Connexional Committee who is already a member of four such Committees.

(6) The Suggestions of the Nomination Committee shall be sent to the Secretaries of the Departments concerned, for consideration by their several Committees, and the decision of these Committees in each case shall be reported to the second Meeting of the Nomination Committee, which shall make such changes as appear desirable and report to the Conference.

(7) Members of Connexional Committees elected by the Synods, other than Chairmen of Districts, shall not be elected for more than three years in succession, except by a two-thirds majority of those present, the vote to be taken by ballot. These elections shall take place at the May Synod, and the names shall be forwarded at once to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee.

(8) The following are the committees within the scope of the Nomination Committee, Sub-Committees and Committees purely local being excluded:

Foreign Missions.
Ministers' Children.
Chapel Affairs.
Home Mission.
Connexional Fund.
Auxiliary Fund.
Theological Institution.
Education.
Sunday School Department.
Wesley Guild.
National Children's Home and Orphanage.

Class Leaders.

(Summary, pp. 427–8.)

3. Lists of Committees to Appear in the Conference Agenda.—All Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall, as far as possible, be printed in the Agenda for the Conference ; the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a two-thirds majority by ballot being distinguished by an asterisk ; care being taken to give the Christian name and address of each Layman. (Summary, p. 429.)

4. New Members of Connexional Committees.—The Secretaries of Departments shall inform all new members, Ministerial and Lay, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees. (Summary, p. 429.)

5. Postal Addresses of Lay Members of Connexional Committees.—A complete list of the Lay members of each Connexional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes. (Summary, p. 429.)

8.—Conference Tribune and Platform.—The Conference directs that a small Rostrum or Tribune shall be placed, when necessary, in front of the Platform, from which those who desire to address the Conference may speak. The Conference also directs that the Platform be brought within as small a compass as possible. (Summary, p. 407.)

9. Questions in Representative Session.—The Conference having approved of a system of Questions and Answers similar to that adopted in the House of Commons, by which Members of the Representative Session may submit Questions to be answered in Conference without debate (Minutes, 1918, p. 84), the Conference adopts the following as its method of procedure :

1. Any Member of the Conference has the right to address a Question to any Treasurer or Secretary of a Department or Connexional Committee, being also a Member of the Conference, about the affairs with which he is officially connected, or upon any matter of administration for which his Committee shall be responsible. The proper object of such a Question is to obtain information on a matter of fact within the special cognisance of that Representative of Department or Committee. The rules and practice of the Conference shall limit the right to ask questions so as to confine them to this object.

2. Notice of such Question must be given in writing to the Secretary of the Conference before the 16th day of June. The Secretary of the Conference shall be the judge of the propriety or admissibility of a Question, and disallow any question when, in his opinion, it is an abuse of the right of questioning. For instance, a Question may be disallowed on the ground of unreasonable length, impropriety of expression, or the like.

3. The Secretary of the Conference shall at once transmit the Question to the person concerned, so that he may have time to prepare his answer and return it not later than the 30th day of June to the Secretary of the Conference.

4. These questions and answers shall be printed under the direction of the Assistant Secretary of the Conference, who is responsible for the publication of the Agenda, and the Questionnaire shall be forwarded with the Agenda to each member of the Conference.

5. The Secretary of the Conference shall present the Questionnaire as the first order of the day on the first morning of the Conference. He shall call the numbers of the Questions in turn as printed. A period of three-quarters of an hour shall be set apart for this business.

6. During that period supplementary questions for elucidation may be asked within limits to be determined by the President, but no debate shall be allowed to arise therefrom.

7. The right to ask Questions shall be governed by the following Rules :

(1) A Question must not publish any name or statement not strictly necessary to make the question intelligible.

(2) If a Question contains a statement, the member asking it shall make himself responsible for the accuracy of the statement.

(3) A Question must not contain any argument, inference, imputation, epithet, or ironical expression.

(4) A Question must not be asked about proceedings in a Committee which have not been placed before the Conference by a Report from the Committee.

(5) A Question must not ask for an expression of opinion, or for the solution of an abstract legal question, or of a hypothetical proposition.

(6) A Question fully answered must not be asked again. (Summary, pp. 418–19.)

10. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, complete and print, not later than June 24 in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal Chapels during the Sessions of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, send to every person whom they have appointed to preach in those Chapels a copy of the Conference Plan.

Every Minister so appointed is responsible to the Conference for the fulfilment of his appointment. (Summary, p. 406.)

11. (Summary, p. 403.)

12. Vacancies among Connexional Lay Treasurers and the Lay Members Elected by the Conference itself.—(1) If any Treasurer of a Connexional Fund be unable to attend the Conference, the Committee of the Fund in question shall, at its last meeting previous to the Conference, elect one of its Lay Members to represent the Fund at that Conference, in the place of the Treasurer.

(2) In the event of one or more of the Forty-eight Laymen elected by previous Conferences being unable to attend the Conference, he or they shall inform the President at least one week before the date fixed for the commencement of the Representative Session. The President shall furnish the information to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, and the Committee shall nominate a person or persons to fill the vacancies thus created; such nominations being submitted to the Conference at the commencement of the Representative Session, which shall be requested to elect the person or persons so nominated.

(3) In the event of the death or unavoidable absence of a Connexional Treasurer for whom no substitute has been appointed by the Committee in question, nominations shall be made in the same way.

(4) In the event of a vacancy arising by appointment to a Connexional Treasurership, or by death, nominations shall be made in the same way; and the person elected shall, as regards retirement and re-election, be subject to the rules applying to the person whose place he takes. (Summary, p. 403.)

13. Representation of Women's Auxiliary in Conference.—Inasmuch as the Committee of the Women's Auxiliary of the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society is hereafter to be appointed by the Conference, provision shall be made for the presentation of its Annual Report to the Conference by a member of the Auxiliary, elected for this purpose by the Committee of the Auxiliary, who shall be included in the number of those allocated to the Representative Session.

The Conference resolves that it be an instruction to the Allocation Committee that the reduction of one in the number of Representatives, as arranged for in the above Resolution, should be made in turn from the larger Districts only. (Summary, p. 397.)

14. Daily Sessions of the Conference.—With a view to facilitating the despatch of business, there shall be two Sessions daily, and if necessary an Evening Session on each day of the Representative week. (Summary, p. 415.)

15. Open Session of Conference.—(1) An Open Session for the reception of Representatives from other Conferences shall be held on the Monday afternoon of the Representative Session.

(2) Arrangements shall be made to secure that Representatives from the General Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church South, the United Church of Canada, and the Australasian Methodist Church shall, if possible, be so appointed that every year one Representative from one of the above-mentioned Conferences shall be present and be heard.

(3) A Representative from the French Conference, and one from the South African Conference, shall be heard on alternate years; a Representative from the Irish Conference every year, and one from the Conference of New Zealand when appointed.

(4) Representatives appointed by this Conference to other Conferences shall be heard at the Conference following their return home.

(5) Other accredited Visitors, including those from the Annual Conferences of America and Australasia, shall be introduced to the Conference, but no provision can be made for them to address it.

(6) The Conference appoints a Correspondent whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the Secretary of the Conference, to see that the various Conferences are advised as to the years when Representatives are looked for, that the names of those appointed are duly known, that our own Conference Arrangements Committees are advised as to the hospitality and appointments on the Conference Plan, and that Representatives are clearly informed as to the date of the Open Session and of any pulpit appointment, and are personally welcomed on their arrival. (Summary, pp. 409–10.)

16. Deputations to Conference from Other Churches.—These Deputations shall be received on the Monday morning of the Representative Session. (Summary, p. 407.)

17. (Summary, p. 517.)

18. Scrutineers of Votes.—(1) At each Conference, in the Pastoral Session, a Convener of Scrutineers shall be appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for the offices of President and Secretary, at the succeeding Conference; and such Convener shall be an ex-officio member of the Pastoral and Representative Sessions of the Conference for which he is elected.

(2) The Committee of Scrutineers, annually appointed, shall consist of not less than twenty, and shall make all arrangements for the collecting and counting of votes. (Summary, pp. 514–15.)

19. Elections to the Legal Conference.—(1) All vacancies in the Legal Conference caused by death, or by absence for two consecutive years without a dispensation, shall be declared at the first meeting of the Conference in its REPRESENTATIVE SESSION, and such vacancies shall be filled by election by the Legal Conference only, from a list of eight names of Ministers nominated by the Pastoral Session of the previous Conference.

(2) The declaration of vacancies caused by Superannuation shall be deferred until the first meeting of the Conference in its PASTORAL SESSION, and such vacancies shall then be filled by Election by the Legal Conference after separate nomination by the Conference for each vacancy.

(3) In regard to these vacancies it shall be an honourable understanding that any Minister elected into the Legal "Hundred" from the time at which these regulations come into force shall, on becoming a Supernumerary, resign his position in the "Hundred," and the Legal Conference shall formally declare by a separate vote that

(a) certain Ministers, having been Supernumeraries for two years, and not having been Presidents of the Conference,

(b) and certain other Ministers having resigned their position in the "Hundred" on becoming Supernumeraries, now cease to be members of the Legal Conference, and that their places have to be filled.

(4) All Ministers in Full Connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right of nominating, by ballot, any Preacher whose name has been proposed to the Conference on that occasion for admission into the number of the Legal "Hundred"; and the Legal "Hundred" shall be requested in such cases to elect the person so nominated as a member of the Legal Conference. No person shall be so elected who has not travelled at least one year in Full Connexion.

(5) Immediately the vacancies have been filled a further vote shall take place by ballot, from the remaining names of those openly proposed, to form the List of eight names to be sent forward to the next Conference. The names of those thus openly proposed, but not chosen to fill immediate vacancies, shall be read to the Conference. It shall still be open to the Conference to propose additional names. Each Minister in Full Connexion present at the Conference shall be entitled to vote for eight of these proposed persons and no more. One vote only shall be given to one name. The eight names receiving the highest number of votes shall be those sent forward, in the order of the number of votes received.

(6) Should the Conference, during its sittings, expel any Member of the Legal "Hundred," another Minister to supply his place shall be immediately elected, after nomination in the usual form. (Summary, pp. 382–3.)

20. Nomination of the President and Secretary of the Conference.—In the nomination of the President of the Conference the Minister nominated shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second, and, if necessary, a third ballot shall be taken on the names on the list which have the largest number of votes.

This shall also apply to the nomination of the Secretary of the Conference. (Summary, pp. 384–5.)

21. Election of Chairmen of Districts.—In the appointment of Chairmen, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast, and the election shall be according to the Standing Order relating to elections to Departmental Offices. (See Standing Order 38.)

N.B.—In the case of the Welsh-speaking Districts, the Pastoral Session of the Welsh Assembly is authorised to nominate to the Conference such Brethren as it considers should be appointed to the Chair of these Districts. (Summary, p. 393.)

22. Election of Secretaries of the District Synods.—The title "Financial Secretary" is discontinued, and the "Secretary of the District Synod" shall be elected year by year by the Conference on the nomination of the Chairman of the District; and he shall be ex-officio the Secretary of both the September and the May Synods. (Summary, p. 337.)

23. The Pastoral Session and Press Reporting.—The Conference instructs the Conference Arrangements Committee to appoint some competent Minister to report the proceedings of the Pastoral Session and furnish a daily report to the Press, such Minister to be personally responsible for the information given, as is the case with the other ministerial newspaper Reporters in the Conference. The Conference Arrangements Committee is to be entirely responsible for the remuneration and the conditions of the appointment.

It is understood that these arrangements shall not prevent the publication in the Press of such additional descriptive articles by Ministers as may be arranged between newspapers and members of the Pastoral Session. (Summary, p. 409.)

24. Chairman of Memorials Committee.—The Ex-President, year by year, shall be the ex-officio Chairman of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions. (Summary, p. 410.)

25. Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—(1) Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward copies of the Obituaries of Deceased Ministers to the Convener of the Committee on Obituaries, immediately after the Annual Meeting of the Synod.

(2) The Obituaries of deceased Ministers received by the District Synods shall be revised by a Special Committee, to be appointed at the preceding Conference.

(3) The Obituaries thus revised shall be printed for the use of the Conference, under the direction of the Special Committee.

(4) The Obituaries of Ministers who have died since the May District Synods shall be revised by the Special Committee, and, if possible, be printed and presented to the Conference at the same time as those which have been submitted to the District Synods. (Summary, p. 328.)

26. Memorial Service for Deceased Ministers.—(1) The official reading of Obituaries in the Conference shall be discontinued ; and the List of the names of deceased Ministers shall be read by the Secretary of the Conference.

(2) The consideration of Obituaries shall be regarded and observed as a strictly religious service ; and, whilst this solemn business is being transacted, no Committees of the Conference shall meet.

(3) The Conference shall, as a rule, hold the Memorial Service on the Tuesday of the third week of its Sessions. (Summary, p. 328.)

27. Signing of Journal of Irish Conference.—To avoid the difficulty that might arise in the signing of the Journal of the Irish Conference, in the event of the death of the Vice-President of the Irish Conference and the absence of all the Delegates from the British Conference, the name of the surviving Ex-Vice-President shall be added to the other names in the delegation. (Summary, p. 392.)

28. New Legislation in Relation to the Foreign Stations.—Foreign Districts shall be informed of all new legislation adopted by Conference, but such legislation shall only become operative in those Districts where the Synods themselves desire, unless in any instance Conference shall itself otherwise determine. (Summary, p. 363.)

2. THE STATIONING COMMITTEE.

29. Election of Representative to Stationing Committee in District Synod.—The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen at the September Synod by the united votes of the Ministers in Full Connexion and Lay Members of the District Synod. (Summary, p. 419.)

30. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—(1) The Secretary of the Conference shall, early in October of each year, supply every Representative of a District with a Schedule on which he shall be required to enter the names of all Ministers in the District removing at the ensuing Conference, and for whom no provisional arrangement has been made; also the Circuits in which there is any vacancy not provisionally supplied. The Secretary of the Conference shall then forward to every Representative a complete list compiled from the information received.

N.B.—(1) This List shall be supplied also to any Minister or Circuit Steward concerned who may apply for same (enclosing 6*d.* for Printing and Postage). (2) If necessary, an additional List shall be prepared in February.

(2) Not later than the first week in May, each Representative shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Conference with a List of all Ministers for whom arrangements have not been made, and of all Circuits in like case; the information necessary to compile this List being sent by the Representative to the Secretary of the Conference not later than April 20; such Lists to contain complete information, and to be regarded as private and confidential.

(3) The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than June 1 in each year, upon a prepared Schedule, complete Lists of:

(a) The invitations accepted by Ministers in his District;

(b) The arrangements provisionally made for the appointment of Ministers to Circuits in his District;

(c) All Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made; and (d) All Ministers for whom an extended appointment is requested.

(4) A List of all Ministers to be transferred from the Foreign to the Home Stations shall, at the same time, be furnished by the Missionary Secretaries to the Secretary of the Conference.

(5) From these Lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, a Preliminary Draft of Stations embodying all arrangements thus provisionally made; and also a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and a copy of these shall be furnished to each member of the Stationing Committee, in London, on the Monday before the meeting of that Committee. (Summary, pp. 420–1.)

31. Regulations Concerning the Stationing Committee.

(1) The Stationing Committee shall, from year to year, hold its first Session in London.

(2) The appointments made shall not be printed day by day.

(3) The Stations shall be printed in the Conference Town.

(4) The First Draft of Stations shall be an absolutely confidential document until the Representatives' copies are ready for the post.

(5) Should any Minister be officially reported as under discipline and suspended until the Conference, his name shall not appear on the First Draft of Stations.

(6) Probationers on the List of Reserve, and Students leaving the Institution, who are eligible for appointment, shall be entitled to a copy of the First and of the Final Draft of Stations.

(7) Each Representative shall send to the Secretary of the "Conference Arrangements Committee" two sets of addressed wrappers for the First Draft and the Final Draft respectively, for the Ministers and Circuit Stewards in his District, and for six other Laymen—members of the District Synod; the cost of which shall be refunded by the "Conference Arrangements Committee." (Summary, p. 422.)

32. The President and Secretary and the Stationing Committee.—(1) As the President and Secretary of the Conference for the time being are ex officio members of the Stationing Committee, they shall in future attend it only in their public and official character as persons especially charged with the general interests of the whole Connexion; and neither of them shall be considered eligible to be sent by any particular District as its local Representative.

(2) The President and Secretary of the preceding Conference, having attended the earlier meetings of the Stationing Committee, shall continue to be official Members of it during the whole of its sittings for that year; even when it may be necessary for the completion of its business, that it should occasionally assemble after the election of the new President or Secretary shall have taken place. (Summary, pp. 419–20.)

33. Names of Ministers Appointed to Districts on First Draft of Stations.—The Conference resolves that the names of Ministers who are appointed to Districts and not to Circuits shall appear on the First Draft of Stations thus: "A.B., whose name is submitted to the Conference for re-appointment as Chairman of the District." (Summary, p. 422.)

34. Ministers for whom no Circuit can be found by the Stationing Committee.—The name of any Minister for whom no Circuit can be found by the Stationing Committee shall be omitted from the First Draft of Stations, a report being presented by the Stationing

Committee to the Conference, as to the reasons for such action. The Conference shall in all such cases, on the first day of the Pastoral Session, appoint a Special Committee to consider and report to the Conference. Notification of the action of the Stationing Committee shall be given to the Minister for whom no Circuit can be found, and the regulation of the Conference relating to the right of appeal in such cases shall be observed. (Summary, pp. 422–3.)

35. Extra Sitting of the Stationing Committee.—After the first reading of the Stations, the Committee shall, when it is deemed expedient, retire for the further consideration of the Stations. (Summary, p. 422.)

36. Reading of Stations in the Conference.—(1) The Stations shall be presented twice in the Conference, for a First and a Final Reading.

(2) In the First Reading of the Stations, the names of the Ministers shall not be read out one by one, but the Secretary shall call the names of the Circuits, and any member of the Conference shall be at liberty to question, or raise a discussion upon, any proposed appointment. In the Final Reading, the usage shall be observed of making changes only when all parties are agreed. (Summary, pp. 426–7.)

3. DEPARTMENTS.

37. Appointments to New Departments.—In future no Minister shall be set apart for the work of a new Department without the question of such an appointment having been referred to the Synods for their judgment. (Summary, p. 314.)

38. New Appointments to Departmental Offices.—In any new appointment to a Departmental Office, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken on the first two—or, if necessary, the first three names on the list which have the largest number of votes. (Summary, p. 315.)

39. Nomination of Ministers for Designation or Appointment to Departmental Offices.—(1) Twelve months before the end of any term of Departmental Office, the Committee in charge of the Department shall submit to the Representative Session of the Conference the name or names of one or more Ministers, not exceeding three, in nomination for that office; of whom the Officer for the time being may, or may not, be one.

(2) On any vacancy or vacancies arising in any Departmental Offices by death, retirement, expiration of term, or otherwise, the General Committee of the Department shall prepare a report concerning such vacancy or vacancies. This report shall contain a reasoned statement as to the particular features of the appointment which has to be made.

(3) The Committee may also submit the name of one or more Ministers, not exceeding three, whom it deems suitable for the vacancy.

(4) The Committee of any Department in which a vacancy occurs shall, prior to making any report or suggestion, appoint a Sub-Committee, which shall carefully consider the whole matter and advise the General Committee respecting it. In the case of the Theological Institution, the Local Committee may report and recommend names to the General Institution Committee as they do at present.

(5) On the presentation of the names by the Committee of the Department for designation or appointment, the Conference, in its Representative Session, shall retain the right to add other names, and shall in that case take at least one ballot, and then if an absolute majority has been secured, and the Conference thinks fit, it may by open vote pass on the result of the first ballot to the Pastoral Session, it being necessary that three names should be sent forward to that Session.

(6) The above was modified by the Conference of 1913:

(a) After the first vote has been taken it shall be open to any member of the Representative Session to move that the Standing Order which requires three names to be submitted to the Pastoral Session for designation or appointment to Departmental Offices be suspended in a particular case.

(b) Should the motion for suspension of the Standing Order be carried in full Conference by a two-thirds majority, the Representative Session may submit either one name or two as may be deemed expedient. In all such cases the Pastoral Session shall have the right to nominate an additional name, or if need be, two additional names to bring the number up to three, before proceeding to the ballot.

(c) The Nominee or Nominees of the Representative Session must always be included in the three on which the final ballot is taken, should the Pastoral Session decide in any given case to increase the number of Nominees.

(7) This was further modified by the Conference of 1915:

When only one name is nominated in the Representative Session, it shall be unnecessary to vote by ballot, but the nomination may by open vote be passed on to the Pastoral Session. (Summary, pp. 315–16.)

40. Re-appointments to Departments.—(1) Appointments to Departmental Offices shall be in the first instance, as now, for a period not exceeding six years, but all re-appointments shall be for three years only, and when any re-appointment is made, the number of votes cast in each case shall be reported

(2) In all cases in which a Minister has served a term in a Connexional Office, if he be proposed for re-election, special reasons shall be assigned to the Conference as in the case of a Minister whom it is desired to retain in a Circuit beyond a period of three years.

(3) The Conference resolves that every Minister elected to service in our Departmental Offices or Colleges shall return to circuit work at the end of six years, unless the Conference sees fit, under special circumstances, to re-elect to such office by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast.

Further, in order to bring the procedure of both Sessions of the Conference into harmony, the Pastoral Session respectfully asks the Representative Session of the next Conference favourably to consider the same rules when making nominations for re-election.

(4) Subject to the foregoing Regulations, the Conference is at liberty to renew the re-appointment to Departmental Offices as often as it shall deem necessary. (Summary, pp. 316–17.)

41. Postponement of Nomination to Departments.—If any question seriously affecting Ministerial character or fidelity should be raised upon a proposed name in the Representative Session of the Conference, the nominations for designation for appointment to the office in question shall be postponed without discussion to the Representative Session of the following Conference, when the nominations shall be made under the Regulations affecting nominations in cases of emergency for immediate appointment. By this arrangement the objection would be considered and decided by the Pastoral Session of the Conference in the Representative Session of which it has been raised. (Summary, p. 317.)

42. Emergency Appointments to Departments.—(1) In any case of emergency which arises during the Representative Session involving immediate appointment, the Conference shall determine its own method of procedure, but in each case three names shall be sent forward to the Pastoral Session.

(2) In any case of emergency which arises after the close of the Representative Session, the Pastoral Session shall have the right to appoint without a previous nomination. (Summary, p. 317.)

43. Ministers appointed to Act under the Direction of a Departmental Committee.—Ministers appointed to act under the direction of a Departmental Committee shall, if re-appointment be desired by the Committee, be annually invited by that Committee and dealt with by the Conference as in the case of Ministers in Circuits and Missions. (Summary, p. 317.)

44. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several Departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Sessions, should be furnished with all necessary statistical information on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up. (Summary, p. 251.)

45. Army and Navy Reports and Returns to District Synods.—(1) All Ministers working for the benefit of Soldiers and Sailors in Stations where Methodist Homes already exist, or shall be established, shall include in their quarterly Reports an account of the work done in the Homes; and at the May Synods the financial condition of such Homes shall be reported, as in the case of other Trust properties.

(2) The following information shall be presented from each of our Military and Naval Stations to the May Synods; together with a Report of the work done for the benefit of our Soldiers and Sailors.

(i) The number of declared Methodists in the Army, Royal Navy (including the Coastguard), and Air Force, taken for December 31 of each year.

(ii) The number of Members of Society in the Army, Royal Navy, and Air Force, including the wives and children of Soldiers, Seamen, and Airmen.

(iii) The average attendance at Divine Service during the year.

(iv) The amount of capitation and other official payments for the year.

In the case of Home Stations, these Reports and Returns shall be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall present them, with needful remarks thereupon, to the Synod. (Summary, pp. 286–7.)

46. Army and Navy Ministers in relation to Circuit Work.—Ministers who are appointed to Army and Navy Work are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit in which they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made with the Royal Navy, Army, and Air Force Board. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may give such help to the Circuit as they can, but only by arrangement in writing between the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Army and Navy Board. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Synod, subject to the before-mentioned conditions. (Summary, p. 287.)

47. Army and Navy Capitation Payments and Pastoral Duties.—Wherever capitation payments are received on behalf of our Methodist Soldiers, Seamen, and Airmen, the Pastoral duties which are entailed thereby shall be strictly fulfilled, and every facility and encouragement given to the men, their wives and families, to become attached to the services of the chapels in which, by these payments, they are now seatholders. (Summary, pp. 287–8.)

48. Army and Navy Garrison and Naval Ports in Foreign Districts.—The Chairmen and Superintendents of our Foreign Mission Districts and Stations where there are Garrison and Naval Ports are instructed to make arrangements with the Naval and Military Authorities as may be necessary for the benefit of Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, in concert with the Royal Navy, Army, and Air Force Board. (Summary, p. 286.)

49. Army and Navy Board and Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.—In addition to the Connexional sanction already required by our rules before any property can be acquired for Methodist purposes, Ministers or other persons connected with our Societies contemplating the erection or acquisition of a Soldiers' or Sailors' Home shall communicate with the Royal Navy, Army, and Air Force Board; and no binding arrangements shall be entered into until the written consent of the Home Mission Committee and of the Foreign Missionary Committee respectively shall have been received. (Summary, p. 287.)

4. MINISTERS, STUDENTS, AND CANDIDATES.

50. Conditions regarding Ministers becoming Supernumeraries.—(1) The Conference records its judgment that, since the accuracy of the forecast made by the Committee of the Auxiliary Fund depends on the assumption that the average duration of Active Service and of Supernumeraryship remain as at present (thirty-eight years in the one case and eleven years in the other), no claim for grant should ordinarily arise until thirty-four years after ordination, unless the claimant is medically certified as unable to continue to discharge his work efficiently, or unless the Conference shall in any particular case otherwise direct. The number of years each Minister has travelled when he applies to become a Supernumerary shall be presented in the Conference Agenda.

(2) When any Minister who has not rendered forty years' service applies to become a Supernumerary, he shall present a medical certificate of unfitness for the Full Work of the Ministry. (Summary, p. 320.)

51. Temporary Supernumeraryship in Relation to the Legal Conference.—In the case of a member of the Legal Conference who has been permitted to retire for one or for two years, he shall not thereby cease to be a member of the Legal Conference provided he then (that is to say, at the end of the first or second year) returns to the full work; and he shall remain a member of the Legal Conference for two years after becoming a Supernumerary permanently. (Summary, p. 384.)

52. Junior Ministers becoming Supernumeraries for One Year.—(1) Ministers who have travelled not more than twenty-one years and have lost their health, may be allowed to retire for one year, and may, if in necessitous circumstances, receive in addition to the Allowances payable from the Annuitant Society and the Connexional Funds, a sum not exceeding £80; of which one-half shall be provided by the Connexional Fund, the other half being paid by the Auxiliary Fund.

(2) Each case shall be considered by a Mixed Committee of seven members, who shall be appointed by the Conference; namely, the Ex-President, three Ministers, and three Laymen.

(3) Should the Conference deem it indispensable, a second year's Grant may be allowed. (Summary, p. 321.)

53. Compulsory Supernumeraryship: Financial Arrangements.—(1) When the Conference has decided that a Minister shall not be appointed to a Circuit for any reason other than physical incompetence, his case shall be considered by a Special Committee, to be appointed by the Conference in its Representative Session. This Committee shall determine whether any, and if any what, annual allowances shall be paid to him; or whether any, and if any what, sums shall be offered to him on condition of his retirement from the Ministry. The Committee shall further advise the Conference as to the sources whence such payments shall be made in each case.

(2) Representatives of the following Funds shall be among the persons appointed on the Committee: The Auxiliary Fund, Connexional Fund, and Children's Fund.

(3) The Members of the Annuitant Society shall be asked to treat Ministers who may retire from the Ministry under these arrangements, in the matter of compensation, as though they had resigned. (Summary, pp. 321–2.)

54. Compulsory Supernumeraryship in Relation to the District Synod.—In the case of any Minister who has been made a Supernumerary on the ground of either (a) discipline or (b) difficulty in finding him a Circuit, no District Synod shall recommend his reappointment unless some Circuit in that District is willing to receive him, or he shall have received an invitation to a Circuit in another District; and no such Minister shall be re-appointed to a Circuit unless recommended by the District Synod to which he belongs. (Summary, p. 322.)

55. Supernumeraries or other Ministers Resident Abroad.—(1) No Minister is allowed to be absent from the country during a great part of the year without the consent of the Yearly Conference, or, in case of emergency, of the President, who shall report the case to the ensuing Conference.

(2) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall have such permission annually renewed.

(3) If any Minister remain abroad for more than one year, he shall be required either to make arrangements with the officers of our Connexional Funds, with a view to retiring from the English Work, or to furnish the Conference annually with a satisfactory

Report from some other Methodist Conference in recognised relation with this Conference.

(4) If, during his residence abroad, any Minister shall enter into business, or shall accept office or emolument of any kind, he is required, without delay, to notify the fact to the Chairman of the District where his name appears on the Stations.

(5) In all such cases, the existing Rule which requires the presence of a Minister at the Annual District Synod shall be held to be binding unless his absence has been expressly sanctioned in accordance with the foregoing Resolutions; and even in that case he is required to furnish a statement in due time containing an answer to the question in the Order and Form of Business in District Synods as to his continued belief in our doctrines.

(6) Supernumerary Ministers connected with the British Conference, residing in Ireland, shall report to the Irish Synod to which the Circuit in which they reside belongs; and Supernumerary Ministers connected with the Irish Conference, residing in England, shall report to the English Synod to which the Circuit in which they reside belongs.

(7) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall furnish a Report as to his ministerial conduct from the proper authority, as defined in the above, or in the letter from the President giving the required permission.

(8) A list of all such Ministers shall be annually printed in the Minutes of Conference at the end of the Stations. (Summary, pp. 325–6.)

56. Supernumeraries returning to the Full Work.—The Conference resolves that in all cases where it is recommended that Supernumerary Ministers shall return to the Full Work, inquiry and report shall be made by the Committee appointed at Conference to examine the cases of those Ministers who have had Supplies during the year. (Summary, p 326.) See Standing Order 76.

57. Supernumeraries and Business.—The Conference re-affirms that the Regulation respecting Supernumeraries entering into business be suspended for the time being. (Summary, p. 325.)

58. Ministers without Pastoral Charge.—(1) Any Minister wishing to maintain his ministerial status whilst holding no definite appointment to a Circuit or a Department, and without becoming a Supernumerary, shall apply for permission through the District Synod to the Conference, which shall decide the case after full consideration by a Special Committee.

(2) Such Minister shall continue to be in every way subject to our discipline, including the usual inquiries as to character and doctrine.

(3) No such Minister shall receive any payment from any of our Connexional Funds during, or on account of, the years in which he shall occupy the position herein described.

(4) The name of every such Minister shall stand upon the Minutes in connection with some Circuit, and following his name shall be these words: "resides in this Circuit without Pastoral Charge." Nevertheless, he shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting or of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit.

(5) In the case of a member of the Legal Conference having been entered on the Minutes as without Pastoral Charge in conformity with the Resolutions of the Conference of 1888, the Conference resolves that, at the expiration of two years from the commencement of such an arrangement, he shall cease to be a member of the Legal Conference.

(6) The following question shall be inserted in the Order and Form of Business of the Pastoral Session of the Annual District Synod:

> Is there any Minister without Pastoral Charge residing in this District, and, if so, does the Synod recommend that the present arrangement be continued? (Summary, pp. 318–19.)

59. Inquiry into the Character of Ministers and Preachers on Trial.—(1) In response to the Inquiry in the Conference, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" the names of the Districts only shall be called, the Chairman of each District then giving the required information. The right to challenge any name, or bring a charge against any Minister, shall not be affected by this Regulation. (Summary, p. 279.)

(2) The Conference re-affirms its decision that subjects discussed in Conference in answer to the question, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" are to be regarded as strictly private and confidential. (Summary, p. 279.)

60. Ministerial Resignations.—In the event of any Brother determining to withdraw from the Ministry, he shall be expected in the first instance to intimate his resignation to the President. (Summary, p. 279.)

61. Ministers who have ceased to be Recognised by the Conference.—No Preacher excluded for immorality, or who resigns his connexion with the Conference while under charges which affect his moral character, shall at any subsequent period be allowed to be a Local Preacher, Class Leader, or even a private Member of Society, without the consent of the Conference, previously obtained. (Summary, pp. 18–19.)

62. Committee on Appeals regarding Character and Other Cases.—(1) At the beginning of the Pastoral Session of each Conference a Committee of twenty-one members shall be appointed, to whom shall be referred without discussion:

(i) All cases needing further inquiry, touching the Character of Ministers or Probationers, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Synods thereupon;
(ii) Any Notice of Charge or Appeal relating thereto; or
(iii) Any other matter which the Conference may so refer.

(2) Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and some other member of the Conference shall then be appointed to act instead of the member so objected to.

(3) Special cases may, if the Conference so decide, be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee.

(4) No Appeal shall be received after the completion of the year following the Conference immediately succeeding the act of discipline, except by special decision of the Conference. (Summary, p. 281.)

63. Missionaries and Disciplinary Inquiries.—(1) Ministers or Preachers on Trial appointed to any Missionary Station where there is no Annual Synod shall be answerable as to Doctrine and Discipline to the Synod of the First London District.

(2) In cases of Discipline, the Chairman of the Synod shall hold the necessary inquiry by means of the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society instead of the usual Minor District Synod.

(3) If in the case of a Minister stationed under a Foreign Synod, disciplinary inquiry is called for in regard to conduct alleged to have occurred in Great Britain or Ireland, the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society shall be empowered to institute such inquiry and report to the Conference. (Summary, p. 362.)

64. Doctrinal Committee of Appeal.—(1) The usual method of referring a charge to a Committee of Appeal sitting during the Pastoral Session of the Conference not affording sufficient opportunity for consideration in the case of a charge respecting doctrine, the Conference shall annually appoint a Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, consisting of the President, Ex-President, and Secretary of the Conference, together with twelve Ministers, four of whom shall retire annually in rotation, and shall not be eligible for immediate re-election. The function of this Committee shall be to consider all charges concerning doctrine arising during the year; its power and procedure shall conform to that of the ordinary Conference Committee of Appeal.

(2) If, and when there is a case to be investigated, the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal shall meet on a date earlier than the Conference, to be fixed by the President.

(3) All charges in respect of doctrine should be preferred as heretofore, either before or at the May Synod. A copy of any such charge, together with the findings of the Synod thereupon, shall be sent to the Convener of the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, who shall forward particulars of the charge to the members of the Committee as early as possible.

(4) Should the occasion for a new charge arise subsequently to the

May Synod, the appellant shall send a written statement of the charge to the President of the Conference as well as to the brother charged, and to the Chairman of the District in which he is stationed. The President shall send a copy of the charge to the Convener of the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, who shall then act as stated in paragraph 3.

Nothing in these Regulations shall interfere with the right of the accused to demand a Minor Synod, or with the discretion of the Chairman in respect thereto.

(5) In the event of any matter arising at Conference which could not have been dealt with under the foregoing provisions, it shall be remitted to the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, which shall sit either during the Conference and report forthwith, or in exceptional circumstances, if the Conference so determines, during the ensuing year. In cases in which the Committee shall judge immediate disciplinary action shall be taken, the Committee shall report the fact to the Chairman of the District.

(6) In any case involving doctrinal beliefs or statements, the Minister concerned shall himself be heard by the Committee, and the findings of the Committee shall be immediately communicated to him. (Summary, pp. 282–3.)

65. Re-appointment of Ministers to Former Circuits.—(1) The term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit in England or Wales, before he can be re-appointed, shall be three years. He may then return, provided that the invitation of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is substantially unanimous.

N.B—In relation to Scotland, a similar resolution was adopted in 1866. (Summary, p. 424.)

(2) In cases where the 1893 Regulation for extended appointments has been acted upon, the above Standing Order touching re-appointment shall be suspended. (Daily Record, 1924, p. 73.)

66. Changes of Ministerial Appointments during the Intervals of Conference.—Whenever any change of Preachers which it may be necessary to make in the interval of Conference takes place, such Preacher or Preachers shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Synod into which he or they may be thus removed. (Summary, p. 343.)

67. Extended Appointments.—(1) The Conference attaches to any extension of the term beyond three years the following safeguards:

(i) That the proposals shall be much more carefully scrutinised and that only in exceptional cases can extended appointments be considered.

(ii) That the invitation be given, as our polity requires, from year to year.

(iii) That in no case shall such an extension be made where there is not practical unanimity in regard to it in the Quarterly Meeting, or in the Committee to which the power of invitation belongs.

(2) In respect of Procedure, the Conference resolves:

(i) That whilst in no way interfering with the usual official invitation given in March, Circuit Stewards shall in future notify after the September Quarterly Meeting their intention to give an invitation for an extended term, and shall be requested to forward any such proposal, with a record of the reasons for it, in writing to their Representative on the Stationing Committee and to the Secretary of the Conference. The number of votes cast in each case shall be recorded and shall be reported in the following order—"For, Against, Neutral."

(ii) That the Stationing Committee be required to meet in the month of October to examine each application and to make a recommendation in an advisory capacity to the Circuits and Ministers concerned.

(iii) That the vote of the March Quarterly Meeting, or of any Committee acting under the authority of the Conference, shall be reported to the Stationing Committee in July, and by the Stationing Committee shall be reported to the Conference, with a recommendation upon it.

(3) Ministers appointed to act under the direction of a Departmental Committee shall, if re-appointment be desired by the Committee, be annually invited by that Committee, and dealt with by the Conference as in the case of Ministers in Circuits and Missions. (Summary, pp. 424–5; Minutes, 1925, p. 281).

68. University Degrees.—(1) For the future, no Minister shall be entitled to have his Degree printed in the Minutes until the approval of the Probationers' Oversight and Examination Committee has been obtained; and Superintendents of Circuits are directed to observe that no Degree be printed on Circuit Plans other than those printed in the Minutes of Conference.

(2) In the case of every Degree printed in the Minutes, the source of the Degree shall be stated, except in the case of that of Doctor in Divinity received before the Conference of 1895.

(3) Degrees obtained from a Foreign University, by means of Examinations conducted in this country, shall not be printed in the Minutes.

(4) In future, degrees, honorary and otherwise, shall only be recognised if they proceed from Corporations which have a full University status. For Great Britain and the Dominions that shall mean Corporations recognised by the Universities' Bureau of the British Empire; and for America, the Institutions approved by the Association of American Universities. This regulation, however, shall not be retrospective.

(5) In addition to the statement of the source of Degrees, the affix (Hon.) shall be added to all British and Foreign Degrees if they be honorary; of other academic distinctions, only F.R.S. shall be printed in the Minutes.

(6) In view of the extension of University facilities for ad eundem degrees, such degrees shall not in future be printed in the Minutes. (Summary, p. 426; Minutes, 1925, p. 311; Pastoral Agenda, 1926, p. 68.)

69. Ministers under Affiliated Conferences.—(1) British Ministers who have elected to remain in Full Connexion with the Yearly Conference whilst continuing to be employed under an Affiliated Conference must be held to be absolutely subject to the Affiliated Conference in all matters connected with the work and within the limits of that Conference; but the question of their continued connection with the Yearly Conference can be determined only by the vote of the Yearly Conference.

(2) Any British Minister who has elected to enter into Full Connexion with an Affiliated Conference, or who may hereafter so enter, must be regarded as having thereby resigned his connection with the Yearly Conference; and the fact of such resignation shall be entered on the Journal of the Yearly Conference.

(3) Ministers who were not sent out from England, but were taken into the Ministry in the countries now belonging to Affiliated Conferences, and also Native Ministers, are absolutely subject to the jurisdiction of their respective Affiliated Conferences, and have ceased to be in connection with the Yearly Conference.

(4) On the death of any Minister of an Affiliated Conference who had a right of return to this country, an Obituary shall be inserted in the Minutes of the Yearly Conference. (Summary, p. 311.)

70. Native Ministers and Ministers accepted for Service in a Specified Country.—(1) Wherever such Ministers are employed, or are proposed to be employed, the Synod concerned shall submit to the Missionary Committee a scheme for their Allowances, etc., covering not only stipend and provision of House, but also furlough and retiring Allowances.

(2) The Conference declares that, except in the case of Ministers sent out from this Country and duly authorised to return, the admission of Brethren abroad into Full Connexion with the Conference does not carry with it any right to a Circuit in Great Britain. Nor shall such Ministers have the right to attend the Sessions of the British Conference, unless they are selected by the General Committee of the Missionary Society as its Representatives.

(3) Inasmuch as it has been and is the purpose and practice of the Conference to establish on its various Mission Fields, as soon as may be, self-supporting and self-controlling Churches, and as the progress of Mission Churches renders it expedient from time to time to develop their organisation in agreement with this purpose, and gradually to entrust them with powers of general administration and of discipline in particular, as preparing the way for the constitution of Affiliated Conferences:

In order, therefore, to define both the relation to the Yearly Conference of Ministers employed in these Missions, and also the disciplinary powers which may be entrusted to them, the Conference resolves as follows:

That in place of the Question, "Who are now admitted into Full Connexion with the Conference?" and its Answer as heretofore, the entry in the Journals and in the Minutes shall be in the form following, viz.:

Q. Who are now admitted into Full Connexion with the Conference?

A. (1) In Great Britain:

(2) In our Foreign Missions:

a. Ministers sent out from this Country.

b. Ministers admitted for Service in the Countries specified, viz.:

(3) In Ireland:

Under Section (2, a) of this Answer shall be entered the names of all Ministers who have been sent out by the Missionary Committee, and have a claim, on their return, to enter the Home Work.

Under Section (2, b) shall be entered the names of all Ministers, whether Native or otherwise, who have been called into the work on Foreign Stations. These have no claim to any appointment in this Country, or to any payments from Home Funds.

N.B.—If any Minister who has been admitted into Full Connexion with the Conference for service in a specified Country shall be appointed to service in another Country, his Full Connexion with the Conference shall not be disturbed thereby. (Summary, pp. 308-9.)

71. Status of Ministers admitted for Service in a Specified Country in Relation to the British Conference.—(1) Ministers wishing to be transferred to the work at Home shall submit their application to the Committee appointed by the Conference to consider Applications from Ministers of other Churches, and shall submit themselves to such examination as that Committee may determine.

(2) The Conference, while not prepared to recognise the claim for Full Status of men who have been received for work in specified countries, nor on the other hand seeking to exclude their applications, deems it undesirable to lay down any general principles in regard to such applications, but recommends that the existing usage of the Conference should be continued and each case considered on its merits.

(3) The following shall be the financial arrangements:

(i) MINISTERS RECEIVED FOR WORK IN INDIA.—Inasmuch as each of these brethren has paid the £180 for the privilege of entering upon a House on returning to this country, it is resolved:

That in the event of such Minister not claiming a house in the Home Work (through death, not returning to this country, or from any other cause), the £180 be returned to him or to his heirs and administrators; and that meanwhile interest at the rate of 2½ per cent. be paid to him annually so long as the £180 is in the hands of the Missionary Society, less any amount which the Society will be charged by any of the Home Funds in excess of what has been received from the Minister in question for that Fund.

(ii) MINISTERS RECEIVED FOR WORK IN WEST INDIES,

To the Home Mission Fund .. £180.
To the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children, for each child under 18 years of age .. .. £40.

(The above payments shall be made when the Minister actually returns to a Home Circuit. Whenever his return has been approved by the Committee appointed for this purpose, the money shall be placed in the hands of the Foreign Missionary Society before the case is dealt with by the Pastoral Session of the Conference.)

To the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund, £9 for each year counted upon admission by the Conference. (This payment to be made by the Foreign Missionary Committee on behalf of the Minister concerned.)

(4) The Conference further resolves that whenever it is recommended that an Applicant shall receive Full Status the Conference shall adhere to its rule that the Financial Payments shall be paid through the Missionary Committee when the Full Status is granted, and not delayed until the Minister makes application to return to the Home Work.

N.B.—The Conference further resolves that so far as the payments to the Children's Fund are concerned, the Ministers in India and the West Indies shall be placed, if possible, on an equal footing, and that this question shall be referred to the Pastoral Committee already in existence. (Summary, pp. 309-11.)

72. Courts of Superior Jurisdiction in Foreign Mission Field.—(1) Courts of Superior Jurisdiction shall be constituted in such manner and for such Districts or Groups of Districts as the Conference may from time to time direct.

(2) These Courts shall hear all Appeals from the decisions of the District Synods concerning Discipline.

(3) These Courts shall investigate and decide all questions of fact, and the certified Records of the Courts shall be taken as conclusive evidence of what the facts are: subject always to the right of the Conference, if new and material evidence is produced, to direct a new trial.

(4) The decisions of these Courts as to penalty shall be final except that:

(i) On questions of judicial procedure, of the interpretation of law, or the definition of Doctrine, an appeal shall lie to the Conference.

(ii) In the case of an ordained Minister a sentence of expulsion, or loss of one or more years in Ministerial standing, shall be liable to revision by the Conference.

(iii) Any similar sentence in the case of a Preacher on Trial sent out from England shall be liable to revision by the Conference, but only as affecting his relation to the Home Work.

(5) Provided always:

(i) That no Appeal shall be allowed to the Conference, unless the case has first been presented to the Superior Court.

(ii) That in every case in which there is an Appeal to the Conference from the decision of the Superior Court or any request for revision by the Conference, it shall be sent to the Secretary of the Conference; but notice thereof shall be given to the Chairman of the Superior Court, and a copy of the appeal or request placed in his hands within six weeks after the decision of the Court. The said copy shall be forthwith forwarded by the Chairman to the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society for the consideration of the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society, and that Committee shall thereon report to the next Conference.

(6) Provided further that every Minister or Preacher on Trial shall be subject to the Provincial and District Synods within the area of whose jurisdiction he is for the time being appointed to labour. (Summary, pp. 363–4.)

COURTS OF SUPERIOR JURISDICTION FOR THE CEYLON AND BURMA, SOUTH INDIA, AND NORTH INDIA PROVINCIAL AREAS shall be constituted as follows:

(1) The North India Provincial Synod shall include the Bengal, Lucknow and Benares, and Bombay and Punjab Districts; the South India Provincial Synod shall include the Madras, Negapatam and Trichinopoly, Haidarabad, and Mysore Districts; and the Ceylon and Burma Provincial Synod shall include the South Ceylon, North Ceylon, and Burma Districts.

(2) Each Court shall consist of twenty members, of whom ten shall be Missionaries from England, including Chairmen of Districts ex officio, and ten Ministers accepted for service in Ceylon or India respectively. The members (exclusive of Chairmen of Districts) shall be elected by the several District Synods; and the numbers to be elected by each Synod shall be determined from time to time by the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society.

(3) All elections shall be by the united votes of the European and other Ministers.

(4) Probationers shall not be eligible as Representatives.

(5) Each Court of Superior Jurisdiction shall elect its own Chairman and Secretary. (Summary, pp. 364–5.)

PROVINCIAL SYNODS.—That, on account of the distances which divide the North India Districts from one another, the wide diversities of the work in the different Districts, and the expense involved in holding the Provincial Synod as at present constituted, the Conference approves of the following alterations in the representation of the Districts:

(a) The Provincial Synod shall consist of the four Chairmen, with four Ministers from England and four accepted for service in India.

(b) When sitting as a Court of Superior Jurisdiction (Discipline) the said Synod shall consist of the four Chairmen, four elected Ministers, and two Ministers—one European and one Indian—to be nominated by the Chairman of the Provincial Synod. (Summary, p. 365.)

(c) The representation of Burma in the Ceylon and Burma Provincial Synod shall be the Chairman and two Ministers, one of whom may be a Burmese Minister; together with one Lay Representative in the Representative Session. When sitting as a Court of Superior Jurisdiction, the representation of Burma shall be the Chairman and one Minister. (Daily Record, 1924, pp. 6, 23.)

73. Missionary Council.—The Missionary Council shall be constituted as follows:

(a) The members of the Missionary Committee.

(b) One minister and one layman nominated by the Missionary Committee of each District in Great Britain.

(c) Thirty persons to be summoned at the discretion of the General Committee to any meeting of the Council. (Minutes, 1924, pp. 6–7).

74. Transfers of Ministers from Welsh to English Work.—(1) No transfer of a Minister from the Welsh to the English Districts shall be made until the Home Mission Committee has had the opportunity of considering the case in its financial bearings and has approved the same.

(2) In special cases of application for such transfer the Conference requires: (i) The opinion of the Welsh District Synod concerned and of the Welsh Assembly as to the advisability of the transfer, both upon the ground of personal fitness and also in view of the needs of Welsh Methodism. (ii) The recommendation of the Designation Committee after a personal interview with the applicant for transfer, and also after examination and test of preaching in English. (Summary, p. 230.)

75. Methodist Episcopal Students from European Nations.—The Conference gives general authority to the Executive Committee of the Theological Institution to consider requests for the admission of Methodist Episcopal Students from European Nations to Richmond College, and, if there be vacancies, to admit such men under proper conditions. (Minutes, 1925, p. 316.)

76. Supplies for Ministers.—(1) Any Minister needing a Supply is directed to communicate with the Chairman of the District before applying to the President; and the Chairman is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal inquiry, that an efficient local Supply cannot be obtained.

(2) Any Minister on whose behalf a Supply has been appointed shall retain the Supply for one month after he has given notice to the President that his services will no longer be required—unless the President has employment for him sooner. And such Minister when he gives notice to the President that, after a given date, the services of the Supply will be no longer required, shall, at the same time, notify the fact to the Chairman of the District.

(3) The Ex-President shall furnish to the Conference, at the commencement of the Pastoral Session, a list of all Ministers who have had Supplies during any part of the preceding year, with the dates in each case on which the Supply was sent and withdrawn. And on receiving this list, the Conference shall appoint a Committee to inquire whether these Ministers are physically competent to take Circuits. (Summary, p. 227.)

77. Payment of Supplies for Ministers.—(1) Every Probationer sent by the President as a Supply shall be paid at the rate of Thirty Guineas a year for the time he is in the Circuit; this allowance being in addition to Board and Lodging.

N.B.—To this payment is added a bonus at the rate of £20 10*s.* a year.

(2) In regard to Travelling Expenses, a Probationer sent to a Circuit as a Supply is dealt with on the same principle as one who is appointed by the Conference to his first Circuit. Once arrived in a Circuit as a Supply, he receives his travelling expenses from that Circuit to another when removed by the President during the year, or by the Conference at the end of the year.

(3) In respect of payment, the year of a trained man on the President's List of Reserve, appointed in connection with, or immediately after, the Conference, shall reckon from the first day of September to the last day of August. (Summary, pp. 227–8.)

78. A "Supply" in relation to a Third Year Appointment.—A Probationer sent by the President as a Supply is not thereby disqualified for appointment for a third year to the Circuit where he served as a Supply. (Summary, p. 425.)

79. List of Reserve.—(1) Except in special cases, the President's List of Reserve shall consist of men who have been trained in the Theological Institution.

(2) The retiring President shall furnish to the Designation Committee a Report as to the health and fitness for our Work of those Probationers who have been, during the year, on his List of Reserve; the Committee to report to the Conference. For Designation Committee, see p. 324.

(3) At the beginning of the Pastoral Session of each Conference the retiring President shall furnish a List of the names and addresses of the Preachers on his List of Reserve, with particulars of their employment during the year. The List shall contain (1) the names of those sent out as Supplies by the President, with the date of appointment; (2) the names of those employed under private arrangement.

(4) All applications for the services of Probationers on the List of Reserve shall be forwarded to the President of the Conference not later than July 1 in each year; and a Committee to classify the cases shall meet, when necessary, during the Sessions of each Conference. (Summary, p. 228.)

80. Special Discipline Committee of Theological Institution.—The work and fitness of every Student shall be fully reported upon year by year by a Special Committee of each Branch of the Institution, consisting of the Tutors of that Branch, four other Ministers, and eight Laymen, who shall be chosen by the Local Executive Committee, but shall report to the General Discipline Committee. (Summary, p. 221.)

81. Students and Probationers.—(1) (a) The interval between the acceptance of a Candidate and his reception into Full Connexion shall normally be Seven Years. This period shall be spent by him partly as a Student at some branch of the Theological Institution (usually for three or four years) and the remainder of the period as a Probationer in Circuit or other Connexional work.

(b) Where practicable, all Preachers shall have had experience of Circuit work before being received into Full Connexion with the Conference. The Conference recognises that there are special cases in which exception must be made.

(c) The Probation is not to be considered as completed until the Probationer is received into Full Connexion with the Conference, and no Preacher on Trial is to marry during his Probation.

(d) The Probationary period of a Candidate accepted for Home or Foreign "Immediate" shall be four years.

(e) Candidates for the Ministry who at the beginning of the Connexional year following their acceptance have obtained a Degree at a University in Great Britain or Ireland, or have passed an equivalent examination, shall have the interval of Seven Years reduced to five, provided that the Committee for the Oversight and Examination of Probationers judges that their previous course of study justifies the reduction.

N.B.—(i) Candidates for the Ministry who shall obtain a University Degree or its equivalent by the end of their first year in College, shall under the same conditions have the interval of seven years reduced to six years.

(ii) Accepted Candidates for the Ministry who are permitted to continue their studies for a University Degree before entering a Branch of the Institution shall be considered as beginning the interval when their University course is completed. The length of the interval shall then be determined upon the basis of the above paragraphs. (Mins., 1924, p. 335.)

(iii) These Regulations shall apply to Candidates accepted from the Welsh Districts. (Minutes, 1925, p. 318.)

(f) All the above Regulations are subject to satisfactory yearly Reports both in College (Summary, p. 220) and in the Probationary years in Circuit or other Connexional work (Summary, p. 241).

(2) The Representative of each branch of the Institution to the Stationing Committee shall advise as to the appointment to Circuits of Students who have completed their term in the College he represents, and especially as to the appointment of any Student of the first or second year, should it be found necessary to make such an appointment.

(3) (a) Before calling out any Student to supply, the President shall consult with the Staff of the College in which the Student resides.

(b) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and were not called out during their third year by the President, and have not received appointments at the Conference, shall be placed on the President's List of Reserve.

(c) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, but were called out during the previous year by the President, yet have not received appointments at the Conference, are under the care and at the cost of the Home Mission Committee.

(d) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and have been sent by the President as supplies, shall, when their services are no longer required, be placed by the President under the direction of the Home Mission Committee, which shall be responsible for their maintenance; the Committee shall, however, be entitled to a week's notice from the President before such Student receives another appointment. (Summary, pp. 231–3.)

82. Probationers and Reports concerning General Fitness.—The District Synods shall be required to declare their judgment, year by year, as to the general fitness for our work in all its details, of the Preachers on Trial resident in the several Districts. This judgment shall be furnished to the Committee for the Oversight and Examination of Probationers. (Summary, p. 241.)

83. Probationers to be Received into Full Connexion.—(1) Before a Probationer is recommended to be received into Full Connexion, the several reports on his case from his acceptance as a Candidate (or a summary of them) shall be presented to the Synod, together with the judgment upon them of the Committee for the Oversight and Examination of Probationers. This Committee shall have power to recommend to the Synod, either that a Probationer's reception into Full Connexion be deferred, or made conditional upon his satisfying further tests.

(2) Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful oral examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. This Oral Examination may be omitted when the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works is satisfactory.

(3) Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves our Discipline.

(4) The Welsh Assembly has power to arrest the Ordination of any Candidate for Ordination in the Welsh Districts, but not to proceed to Ordination in cases where the Welsh Synods decline to recommend. (Summary, pp. 241–2.)

84. Probationers' Reading and Book Lists.—(1) The Probationers' Oversight Committee is instructed to prepare, and, at the beginning of the Connexional Year, to send to each Probationer, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the Scriptural Doctrine of the Church. The General Secretaries shall send to each Probationer, early in April, a classified Form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year.

(2) This Form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. When the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairman shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list.

N.B.—The Synod may appoint a Committee to examine the Book Lists in detail and to report to the Synod. (Summary, pp. 240–1.)

85. Probationers and Wesley's Works.—Those Preachers on Trial who do not already possess Wesley's Works are required to procure them during the period of their Probation, and shall be allowed to pay for them to our Book Steward by such instalments as may best suit their convenience. (Summary, p. 234.)

86. Probationers and Preaching during the Synods.—Whenever practicable, Preachers on Trial shall preach during the District Synods. (Summary, p. 234.)

87. Probationers on the Foreign Field.—The Conference directs that the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society shall transmit to the Committee on the Oversight of Probationers its report and recommendation on any Probationer stationed abroad in the last year of his Probation, or earlier if he returns to the Home Work, and that the Oversight Committee shall in each case make its own recommendation to the Conference. (Minutes, 1924, p. 293.)

88. Probationers returning from the Mission Field.—If a Preacher on Trial enter upon the Home Work after spending part of his probation on the Foreign Field, the Missionary Secretaries shall furnish the Chairman of the District to which he is appointed with a Report upon each year of the Probation which has been spent abroad. This Report shall be laid by the Chairman before the District Synod in May. (Summary, pp. 234–5.)

89. Probationers and their First Circuit.—(1) The Conference recommends the Chairmen of District Synods, whenever a Probationer receives his first appointment within their respective Districts, to arrange, as early as possible in the Connexional Year, and at a suitable place, a Dedicatory Service, in which the Chairman shall affectionately welcome the Probationer to his sphere of work, commend him to the prayers of the assembled Church and congregation, and speak to him such words of counsel and encouragement as he shall deem fitting, and the service shall be followed by the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

(2) A copy of the "Resolutions on Pastoral Work" shall be presented by the Book Steward, under the direction of the Chairman of each District, to every Probationer on his first appointment to a Circuit. (Summary, p. 233.)

90. Administration of the Sacraments by Probationers.—(1) The Conference directs the Stationing Committee, year by year, to prepare a List of appointments in which permission should be granted to Probationers to administer the Sacraments. In cases of special emergency, application for a dispensation shall be made to the President of the Conference through the Chairman of the District. (Summary, pp. 38.)

(2) A "Form of Dispensation" signed by the President shall be supplied year by year to each Probationer to whom a Dispensation is given. (Minutes, 1925, p. 282.)

91. Ministers and Probationers and the Annuitant Society.—The Conference directs that, in future, each Minister and Probationer shall be required to become a Member of the Annuitant Society, and that every Candidate for the Ministry, if accepted, shall state his willingness to conform to this Rule. (Summary, pp. 233–4.)

92. Candidates for the Ministry.—(1) Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the Character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his Colleague or Colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary Station, the Character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District. (Summary, p. 196.)

It is required that in the written character of Candidates for the Ministry the Superintendent shall give information as to whether the Candidate has had "fruit" to his preaching. (Summary, p. 196.)

No Candidate shall be nominated until he has been heard by the Superintendent and by his Colleagues. Full opportunity should also be given to the members of the Quarterly Meeting to hear the Candidate before the nomination is made. (Summary, p. 190.)

In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the District Synod. (Summary, p. 196.)

Where Candidates are in temporary residence in any Circuit for the purpose of special theological training, they shall be recommended as Candidates by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit in which they have resided and worked as Local Preachers, and not by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit in which they are temporarily residing. (Summary, pp. 196–7.)

(2) Whilst, as a general rule, Candidates should be fully accredited Local Preachers, yet the door should be left open for exceptional cases. (Summary, p. 191.)

(3) Every Candidate shall, at or before the time of the May District Synod, preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidate is proposed; and a special Report of the Sermon shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates. (Summary, p. 194.)

(4) Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod for the hearing of each Candidate by three Ministers of the District, other than those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall suggest a mark, and immediately forward their Report to the Rev. W. PERCY HUTTON, B.A., Wesley Manse, New Road, Willenhall, Staffs. (Summary, p. 195.)

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript to the Secretaries of the Special Examination Committee. (Summary, p. 198.)

(5) In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be adopted; number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest.

The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very Good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very Poor. The marks 1, 2, 3, shall denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair). (Summary, pp. 193–4.)

(6) The Summary of Methodist Law and Discipline takes the place of the Large Minutes, and Candidates are required to read the Abridgment of the Summary. (Summary, p. 191.)

(7) Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the General Work. (Summary, p. 195.)

In the case of Candidates from the Welsh Districts, the offer "General" is to be interpreted as meaning "Home, Foreign, or Welsh." (Minutes, 1924, p. 339.)

(8) Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution. (Summary, p. 216.)

93. Candidates on the List of Reserve.—(1) Every accepted Candidate on the List of Reserve who is not appointed by the President shall be placed under the care of the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he resides, who shall be responsible for furnishing to the Designation Committee the required report concerning the said Candidate.

(2) Candidates on the List of Reserve who receive an appointment shall be required to take a course of Reading to be prescribed by the Probationers' Oversight Committee, varying according to the date of appointment. This Committee shall satisfy itself that its requirements have been observed, and shall report to the Designation Committee.

(3) As proper time for study is essential to the work of our Probationers, the Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits and Missions to arrange accordingly. The Conference directs the Secretary of the Examination Committee to report to the Designation Committee those cases in which, in consequence of pressure of special work, there has been comparative failure in the Courses of Study for two successive years. (Summary, pp. 228–9.)

94. Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Churches.—(1) The Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and the Candidates from other Conferences and Churches shall apply in all particulars to married men who are accepted in the ordinary way as Candidates for the Ministry; and the payments required therein shall be made, and the privileges described therein shall begin to be enjoyed, in both cases, at the time of their admission into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Summary, pp. 197–8.)

(2) The following is the revised scale of payments to be made to the Connexional Funds by Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches, and married men received as Candidates:

1. To the Home Mission Fund ..	£180.
2. To the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children	£88 8 0 for each child.
3. To the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund ..	£9 for each year counted, upon admission by the Conference.

N.B.—(1) In view of the fact that, ordinarily, claims upon the Maintenance Section of the Children's Fund do not arise during the first five years of a Minister's term of service; and seeing that the Memorandum of Agreement does not contemplate the case of married men being received into the Wesleyan Methodist Church who may have children born during their Probation, the scale of payments is revised so as to meet the equity of such cases, viz. that for each year of probation in which no claim arises one-fifth of the amount charged for maintenance shall be remitted.

(2) The amount charged for Maintenance shall be fully paid up before such Probationer is received into full Connexion, and before his child is admitted as a claimant upon the Fund.

(3) A written acknowledgment of every such arrangement shall by signed by the father of the child, and be preserved by the General Secretary.

(4) Where desired, payments to the Education Section of the Fund, entitling a child to receive the usual Education Allowances, may be spread over a period of years until the child is nine years of age; simple interest, at 5 per cent., being charged until the full amount has been paid, and until such time no claim for Educational Allowance shall be admitted. (Summary, pp. 197–8.)

95. Provincial Synods and Candidates for the Ministry.—In those areas of the Mission field in which Provincial Synods have been established, the recommendation of the Provincial Synod shall be required: (1) Before a Candidate for the Ministry from a District within the Provincial area is received on trial by the Conference; (2) Before a Candidate for admission into Full Connexion from a District within the Provincial area is received into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Summary, p. 365.)

II. THE DISTRICT.

1. SYNODS.

96. District Synods, 1927.—The Annual Meetings of the several District Synods shall be held between May 8 and 15, with the exception of those of the First North Wales, Second North Wales, South Wales, Nottingham and Derby, Lincoln, Hull, York, Isle of Man, and Scotland Districts.

97. Attendance of Ministers at Annual District Synods.—(1) The attendance of all the Ministers at their respective Synods (unless they are excused by dispensation of the Synod) is required by the Conference. No Minister shall be permitted subsequently to answering questions affecting Character to absent himself from any of the Sessions of the Synod without the permission of the Chairman. The above Regulation shall be printed in the form summoning the Ministers to the Meetings of the Synod. (Summary, p. 343.)

98. Supernumeraries and District Synods.—(1) Supernumerary Ministers, with the exception of those who have received permission to reside abroad, shall be considered to belong to the Districts in which their names appear in the Minutes of the Conference. They shall attend the annual Synods of their own Districts, unless they receive a Dispensation allowing them to be absent. They shall be subject to their own Synods in all matters of Discipline. In case of unavoidable absence from the Annual Synod, they shall send to the Chairman, in due time, a statement concerning their continued belief in our Doctrines.

(2) A Supernumerary who removes into another District after the publication of the Minutes of the Conference may, by arrangement with his own Chairman, attend the Synod of the District in which he resides. In that case he must give notice to the Chairman of the District in which he is resident, of his intention to be present at the Synod. Such attendance, however, shall not, in any degree, remove him from the jurisdiction of his own Synod, to which he is responsible in all matters of Doctrine and Discipline.

(3) Since all Supernumeraries are required to attend the May Synod, their expenses shall be paid by the Secretary of the District Synod, and be included in the Synod Assessment on the Circuits for District Expenses. (Summary, pp. 320–1.)

99. Expenses of Interchanges of Ministers.—The expense of interchanges between Ministers residing in various Circuits appointed by the Conference shall in no case fall upon the Ministers themselves, but shall be provided by the Circuits concerned, under the direction of the District Synods. (Summary, p. 135.)

100. Additional or Fewer Ministers.—All applications for additional Ministers, or for the reduction of the number of Ministers in any Circuit, shall be considered by the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall report thereon to the May Synod. (Summary, pp. 453-4.)

101. Election of Ministers to attend the Conference.—(1) The election of Ministers to attend the Conference in its Representative Session shall be made by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who may express desire to attend the Conference.

(2) The Ministers so elected shall have permission to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session.

(3) The Ministers necessary to complete the number permitted to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session shall then be elected.

(4) In the event of any Minister elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session offering "to provide for himself," his election shall not thereby be rendered void. (Summary, p. 340.)

102. Election of Lay Representatives to the Conference.—(1) No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected by the Conference, or by the May Meeting of the Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his nomination in the District Synod, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a member of a District Synod. Any Layman nominated in a District Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District.

(2) Duly qualified and elected women are eligible as Lay Representatives to the Conference.

(3) The election of Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Meeting of the District Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay members only.

(4) The Conference recommends the Synods to re-elect annually, when practicable, one-third of the total number of Lay Representatives from among such of the Lay Representatives elected at the previous May Synod as shall be eligible and shall offer themselves for re-election. (Summary, pp. 395-6.)

103. Substitutes for Representatives to Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Ministers or Laymen elected by the Synod to attend the Conference in its Representative Session being unable to fulfil their appointments, they shall inform the Chairman of the District before the beginning of the Conference, and their place or places shall then be taken by the person or persons who received the highest number of votes next to those elected. (Summary, p. 340.)

104. Re-election on Synod Committees.—In harmony with the legislation with reference to re-election on Connexional Committees [S.O. 2 (3)], the Regulations in regard to the election of Members of Synod Committees shall read: one Lay member shall retire annually, but shall be eligible for re-election on the vote of two-thirds of the Synod. (Summary, p. 337.)

105. District Home Mission and Chapel Committee.—(1) The District Home Mission and Chapel Committee consists of ten Ministers and ten Lay members, to be chosen at the September Synod. The ministerial section of the Committee shall include the Chairman of the District and the Secretary of the District Synod, who shall be members ex-officio, and two Secretaries of the Committee to be appointed by the September Synod, one of whom shall have special charge of all schedules and documents relating to Chapel affairs. The Lay members so appointed shall during their tenure of office be members of the Synod.

(2) Two Ministers and two Lay members shall retire annually by rotation, but shall be eligible for re-election on the vote of two-thirds of the Synod.

(3) The Synod shall also have power, if it be deemed desirable, to appoint as associated members of the Committee five Ministers and five Lay members, the latter of whom may be selected from members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in the District, whether members of the Synod or otherwise, but this election shall not constitute such persons members of the Synod.

(4) The Committee shall meet at stated intervals, to be determined in each case by the Synod, and at such other times as the Chairman shall see fit to summon it.

(5) The Committee shall discharge the duties heretofore assigned to the District Home Mission and District Chapel Committees respectively. Special consideration shall be given to all applications for Grants to dependent Circuits and Home Mission Stations, and to all requests for additional Ministers, or for the reduction in the number of Ministers, and the Committee shall prepare recommendations to the Synod on all such applications and requests.

(6) The Committee shall consider and advise the Synod respecting all proposals for the division or amalgamation of Circuits, or alteration of the boundaries of Circuits, and shall minutely inquire into the circumstances of our Churches, and of the population, and as to the number of effective Local Preachers, Class Leaders, and responsible Office-bearers, so as to avoid the creation of weak Circuits or of Circuits unable to deal with the needs of large and populous localities.

(7) The Committee shall either itself, or by its Sub-Committees, at least once in every year meet the Ministers, Circuit Stewards, and Lay Representatives in the Synod of each dependent Circuit and Home Mission Station in the District, and shall receive such statements of accounts and such other information as will enable them to give suitable advice respecting the finances and conditions of work in such Circuits.

(8) In any case in which the Conference shall empower the Synod to appoint a Committee for the management of any special Mission in the District, it shall be competent for the Synod, if it deem such a course desirable, to appoint the Home Mission and Chapel Committee of the Synod to act as such Committee of Management.

(9) The Committee may advise respecting the purchase of Sites, and the promotion of schemes for the extension of Methodism in both towns and villages.

(10) The Committee shall be empowered to institute inquiries as to the best methods of reviving and extending the work of God in those Circuits which are stationary or declining, or in which the growth of the population, or the boundaries of the Circuit, have made adequate efforts by the Circuit impossible.

(11) The Committee shall have power to appoint a Sub-Committee that can easily and promptly be called together to consider, in conjunction with the Chairman of the District, any ordinary applications intended for the Monthly Meetings of the Chapel Committee. All such applications, with the Resolutions adopted thereon, shall be reported at the next meeting of the Committee. Any case which shall be deemed by the Chairman specially important and critical shall be considered, in the first instance, by the full Committee.

(a) No sale of any Chapel for which a substitute is not to be provided, or respecting which there is a difference of opinion in the Circuit, shall be recommended without the sanction of the full Committee.

(b) The examination and report on the Annual Chapel Schedules shall be made at a Meeting of the full Committee to be held prior to the May Synod.

(12) The Committee may appoint one of its members as a Lay Treasurer for any Funds at the disposal of the Synod, and one of its members to be associated with the Ministerial Secretary, having special relation to Chapel affairs.

(13) Besides attending to the formal business of the Committee, it is hoped that all its members will take a personal interest in the Home Mission and Chapel schemes of the several Circuits, and will seek in every possible way to promote the interests of the General Funds in the District. (Summary, pp. 451–3.)

106. Home Missionary Ministers.—A special inquiry shall be made at the May District Synods whether the regulations for the employment of Home Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home Missionary Ministers are appointed; and a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference. (Summary, p. 285.)

107. Grants from Connexional Fund.—Application for Grants for Supplies, Circuit Travelling, Removals, Furniture, and Afflictions, from the Connexional Fund shall be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, whose recommendations shall be reported to the May Synod. One Lay member retires annually by rotation.

(2) The Synod has power to associate with the members of the Foreign Missions Committee other Ministers and Laymen of known missionary sympathy and experience, provided always that the Laymen so associated shall not thereby become members of the Synod.

The Synod appoints two Secretaries: a Minister and a Layman.

(2) The Synod has power to associate with the members of the Local Preachers' Committee other Ministers and Local Preachers interested in the subject; provided always that the Laymen so associated shall not thereby become members of the Synod.

129. Inquiry into Discipline of Methodism at Synods.—The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at the May Synods in reference to the several points of Discipline specified on pp. 516–22 of Minutes, 1902. (Summary, pp. 278–9.)

130. Copies of District Minutes.—(1) Chairmen of Districts are required to procure two complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the Synods, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Synods shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary.

(2) One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records ; the other shall be sent to the Rev. ROBERT BOND, 1, *Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.*1, not later than June 1, and delivered by him to the President on the first day of the Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion.

(3) The copies of the latter class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

(4) The Secretary of the District Synod is required to furnish the Chairman with such extracts from the District Minutes as he will need at the Conference. (Summary, pp. 338–9.)

131. Trial of the Chairman of a District.—(1) In case of any complaint arising against the Chairman of a District, in reference either to his personal or his official conduct, the accuser, after duly apprising the Chairman of his intention, shall place his complaint in the hands of the President of the Conference for the time being, who shall have authority (if he deem such a course necessary or expedient) to summon a Meeting, consisting of the President of the Conference, the Secretary of the Conference (who shall act as the Convener of the Meeting), and twelve other Ministers who are in Full Connexion with the Conference, of whom six, wherever practicable, shall be chosen from among the Ministers of the District of which the accused is Chairman (each party having the right to challenge any or all of the persons first nominated by the President), and to place the Chairman on his trial before them ; when, if the guilt of the accused be proved, the Meeting shall have power to suspend him till the ensuing Conference, or to depose him from the Chair; and in that case the members of the Synod concerned shall, as in the case of the death of a Chairman, elect another Chairman.

(2) The above Resolution shall not apply to the legislation of 1835 (Minutes, vol. vii. [1835], p. 581) relative to the trial of an Appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit. (Summary, p. 334.)

III. THE CIRCUIT.

132. Monthly Meetings of Ministers in Large Towns.—The Preachers of different Circuits, when resident in the same town, shall meet at least once in every month for the purposes of mutual conference and prayer, in order to promote brotherly love, and to afford frequent and regular opportunities for friendly consultation on subjects of common concern in their respective Circuits. (Summary, p. 249.)

133. Weekly Meetings of Ministers.—Ministers who labour together in the same Circuit shall meet together once a week, or as often as practicable, in order to converse freely with each other respecting the affairs of their Circuit. (Summary, p. 249.)

134. Reading of the Liverpool Minutes.—These Resolutions, in the Abbreviated Form, with the introductory statement prefixed to them, shall be read in the May Synods, and at the Ministers' Meetings in September. Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry concerning the due observance of this Requisition, so far as the reading in the Ministers' Meeting is concerned. (Summary, p. 266.)

135. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—All the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuit to which they are appointed. (Summary, p. 51.)

136. Quarterly Fast-days.—(1) A general Fast shall be held in all our Societies the first Friday after New Year's Day, after Lady Day, after Midsummer Day, and after Michaelmas Day. (Summary, p. 24.)

(2) The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the ensuing year, are Fridays, October 1, 1926, January 7, April 1, and July 1, 1927.

137. Annual Return of Members.—The number of Members in the Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported at the District Synods, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference. (Summary, p. 22.)

These Returns of Members in the Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May Synods, to the Rev. F. LUKE WISEMAN, B.A., 1, *Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.*1.

138. Emigration Bureau.—All removal notes of Emigrants are to be sent to the Rev. JOSEPH H. BATESON, C.B.E., Secretary of Methodist Brotherhood, 1, *Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.*1. (Summary, p. 21.)

139. Custody of Trust Deeds.—The Conference recommends that a Fire-proof Safe be provided in each Circuit, and that all Deeds relating to Trust Property shall be carefully preserved therein. (Summary, p. 79.)

140. Register of Trust Deeds.—A Register of all Deeds and Documents relating to Trust Properties in the Circuit shall be preserved in a book; and the Deeds and Documents shall be compared with this Register annually by the Superintendent Minister and the Circuit Chapel Secretary, or by some other person to be appointed by the Annual United Trustees' Meeting for the purpose. (Summary, p. 79.)

141. Lay Agents in Circuits.—(1) All Lay Agents employed in our Circuits shall be Members of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, and shall be accredited as such by the Superintendents of the Circuits from which they come.

(2) A Lay Agent who is a fully accredited Local Preacher, having presented his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan to the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he is to work as a Lay Agent, shall have his name placed at the foot of the list of Local Preachers on the Circuit Plan, unless the Local Preachers' Meeting, in exercise of the power given to it by the Conference (see Minutes, 1895, p. 436), shall decide to place his name in a higher position. The words "Hired Local Preacher," "Lay Agent," or otherwise, shall be added to his name on the plan; and while employed as a Lay Agent in the Circuit, he shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting.

(3) Any Lay Agent desiring to offer himself as a Candidate for the Ministry must be proposed in, and approved by, the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit of which he is a member, the directions concerning the residential qualification of Candidates for the Ministry being strictly observed.

(4) If a Lay Agent is not a Local Preacher, his name shall appear on the Circuit Plan, but not among the names of the Preachers. He shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting in the same manner as Exhorters are subjected to that jurisdiction by the provisions of our Discipline. (Summary, pp. 170–1.)

142. Circuit Missionary Accounts.—In no Circuit shall the Missionary Accounts for the year be closed until they have been passed by the Local or Circuit Missionary Committee, and duly signed by the Superintendent of the Circuit. (Summary, pp. 305–6.)

1: QUARTERLY MEETING.

143. Ministers' Allowances: Method of Payment.—The Conference recommends that as far as possible there shall be throughout the Connexion a uniform method in the payment of Ministers' Allowances; viz. that at the September Quarterly Meeting a full Quarter's Allowance should be paid to each newly appointed Minister. The Conference directs that this recommendation be read in every September Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 158.)

144. Sanitary Condition of Ministers' Houses.—(1) Circuit Stewards are required to have an inspection of every Minister's House, at every change of Minister, by an independent sanitary expert (and wherever possible such inspection shall be by the Sanitary Inspector of the Local Authority), and to forward a Certificate of the good sanitary condition of the House to the Chairman of the District before August 21.

(2) The Conference directs that whenever a Minister is appointed to a Circuit or Department for more than three consecutive years, there shall be a sanitary inspection of the House in which he resides, and a Certificate of its satisfactory sanitary condition shall be presented, not only when the Minister is first appointed, but after every three years of his residence.

(3) Attention shall be called to these requirements at the May Synod, and Inquiry shall be made at the September Synod whether these requirements of the Conference have been carried out. (Summary, p. 138.)

(4) The following question shall be inserted in the Order and Form of Business of the September Synod: "Has any case of infectious disease occurred during the past year? If so, has the house been duly disinfected?" (Agenda, 1924, p. 17; Daily Record, p. 52.)

145. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, the Conference directs that, in future, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall be fully stated in the Minutes of the District Synod to which they belong, and the Secretary of the Synod shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and in such cases, copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned shall be coloured so as to show the boundaries and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust

Deeds of the Circuits. These arrangements shall be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits. (Summary, p. 133.)

146. Discontinuance of Public Services.—(1) Before Public Services are finally discontinued in any Chapel held on a Connexional Trust, at least three months' notice of such intention shall be given by the Superintendent Minister to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, and also to the General Secretary of the Home Mission Committee, in order that steps may be taken, if thought advisable, to avoid such a necessity.

(2) Before any place is taken off the Plan it is necessary to obtain the sanction of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 176.)

147. The Ballot in Quarterly Meetings.—(1) At the elections in Quarterly Meetings of the Representatives to the District Synods the usage of open voting may be departed from, and the elections decided by ballot, after nomination by the Lay members of the Meeting.

(2) In respect of all other elections made at Quarterly Meetings, the Conference re-affirms its declaration of 1884, namely: "The practice of voting by ballot in the administration of Methodism in our Circuits is contrary to long-established usage, and its adoption would in various ways be injurious to the interests of our Societies." (Summary, p. 148.)

148. Lay Representation of Circuits in the Synods.—(1) Each Circuit shall be represented in the Synod by its Circuit Stewards, or, in their unavoidable absence, by substitutes, in accordance with the existing Regulation on that subject.

(2) In addition to the Circuit Stewards, the March Quarterly Meeting of the Circuits may elect, as members of the Synod at its next meetings in May and September, Lay members, who are considered suitable on general grounds, in the following proportion; viz. (a) Circuits providing for one or two Ministers in Full Connexion shall elect one representative; (b) Circuits providing for more than two Ministers in Full Connexion may elect one additional Representative for each Minister in Full Connexion over the number of two. (Summary, p. 137.)

149. Circuit Stewards and the Synods.—Circuit Stewards, who are otherwise members of the District Synod, shall not be at liberty to decline to attend the District Synod as Stewards, and then claim the right to sit and vote by virtue of any other office. (Summary, p. 137.)

150. Substitutes for Lay Members of Synods.—(1) The Circuit Quarterly Meeting in March is entitled to elect, provisionally, a substitute for each of the Circuit Stewards, whether he shall, or shall not, have declared his ability and willingness to attend the Annual Synod in May; also a substitute for each of the Representatives, or for the Representative. Any Circuit Steward or Representative who shall find himself unable to attend the Synod shall inform the Superintendent, who shall thereupon invite the substitute to be present.

(2) Substitutes for Circuit Stewards duly elected at the March Quarterly Meeting shall be empowered, if need be, to attend the September as well as the May Synod. (Summary, pp. 137–8.)

151. Eligibility for Membership of the Synods.—No one is eligible for membership of a District Synod, or upon any Committee thereof, who is not a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. (Summary, p. 137.)

152. Quarterly Meeting Inquiry concerning Foreign Missions.—(1) In every Circuit Quarterly Meeting inquiry shall be made from the Chair as to the amount received on behalf of Foreign Missions during the quarter, and the payment thereof to the District Treasurer.

(2) At the March Quarterly Meeting the Annual Report and Audited Accounts are to be presented, and the Circuit Missionary Committees and Officers for the ensuing year are to be appointed.

(3) In the appointment of the Circuit Missionary Committee, due representation of the Women's Auxiliary should be provided.

(4) The above instructions [pars. (1) and (2)] apply also to the Women's Auxiliary. (Summary, pp. 304–7.)

153. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—(1) In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation is allowed: One-third of the sums received from Juvenile Associations to be paid to the Funds of the Foreign Missionary Society, it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years; one-third to the Home Mission Fund; one-third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting.

(2) A Return of the gross amount collected in the various Circuits by Juvenile Missionary Associations, with the proportions of that amount allocated to the various objects, shall be made yearly, at the May Meeting of the District Synods. (Summary, pp. 140–1.)

154. The Weekly Offertory.—The weekly Offertory System shall not be adopted in any chapel without the consent of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 150.)

155. Grants towards Removal Expenses.—If any Minister be appointed to a Circuit, after an invitation sent by that Circuit to the Minister, every expense incurred by his removal, beyond what the Circuit he is leaving may provide, shall be borne by his new Circuit. (Summary, p. 158.)

156. Report of Connexional Funds at June Quarterly Meeting.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting affords a most valuable opportunity for bringing the Connexional principle before the leading officials of our Circuits; and the Conference recommends that at each June Quarterly Meeting this should be done, and a report made of the Circuit contributions to each Connexional Fund during the year. (Summary, p. 162.)

For list of Connexional Funds, see pp. 403–6; also Summary, pp. 163, 441–5.

157. Wesley Guild Circuit Returns.—The Circuit Guild Returns which are prepared for the District Synod shall be submitted to and considered by the March Quarterly Meeting in the same way as other Departmental Returns. (Summary, p. 129.)

158. Memorials to Conference.—(1) Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so, that Meeting itself, subject to the regulations which follow, shall have authority to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference.

(2) Any member of the Quarterly Meeting intending to propose a Resolution, and bring the same before the June Quarterly Meeting as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference, shall give notice, with a copy in writing, of the particular Motion or Resolution which he intends to propose, either at the March Quarterly Meeting, or to the Superintendent Minister not less than seven days preceding the date of the June Quarterly Meeting; and no proposal of which such notice has not been given shall be brought forward that year. But should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend, as well as simply adopt or reject it.

(3) A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting; and he shall add a footnote stating the number of persons present, and also the number voting for and against the Memorial.

(4) The Quarterly Meeting has complete freedom to memorialise the Conference. Provided that the Regulations of this Standing Order are observed, it is not competent for the Chairman of a June Quarterly Meeting to rule any Memorial out of order. The Conference reserves to itself alone the right to determine whether a Memorial contains a proposal of a revolutionary character, or is subversive of the doctrine or discipline of Wesleyan Methodism.

(5) The Conference cannot sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit.

(6) No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit except in manuscript.

(7) Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings are to be forwarded by the Superintendents of Circuits to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, the Rev. JAMES R. IRVING, 4, Church Street, Southport, not later than June 30. Any Memorial adopted by a Quarterly Meeting which is held too late for this to be done, shall be forwarded as soon as possible to the Convener, who shall, if necessary, present it to the Conference without its being printed.

(8) All Memorials thus received by the Conference shall be referred to a Committee of its members, who shall carefully classify and consider the whole, and present their report thereon to the Conference.

(9) The consideration and determination of all questions raised by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof, respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide. (Summary, pp. 144–5.)

159. Status of Wesley Deaconesses.—Inasmuch as Wesley Deaconesses are set apart to a Ministry of Women by the recognised authorities of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, after due training and examination, these Deaconesses when acting under the direction of the Warden and Committee of the Wesley Deaconess Institute and appointed by them to labour in our Circuits, with the approval of the Quarterly Meeting, shall be Members of the Leaders' Meetings of the Society and Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed. (Summary, p. 186.)

160. Circuit Lay Treasurer of Connexional Funds.—The Circuit Official appointed as Lay Treasurer and Secretary on behalf of Connexional Funds to relieve Superintendents of their Financial and Statistical burdens, being a member of Society, shall be an ex-officio member of the Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 253.)

161. Circuit Lay Treasurer of the Theological Institution Fund.—The Conference authorises the appointment of a Lay Treasurer in every Circuit where possible, in order to obtain increased subscriptions. (Summary, p. 216.)

162. Circuit Lay Secretary for Foreign Missions.—The Circuit Lay Secretary and the Circuit Treasurer for Foreign Missions are ex-officio members of the Quarterly Meeting, provided they are members of Society in that Circuit. (Summary, p. 305; Minutes, 1926, pp. 68, 324.)

163. Circuit Secretary of the Women's Auxiliary.—The Circuit Secretary of the Women's Auxiliary, being a Member of Society in that Circuit, and whose election is made or confirmed by the Quarterly Meeting, shall be ex-officio a member of that Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 307.)

164. Lay Secretary of Circuit Sunday School Council.—The Lay Secretary of the Circuit Sunday School Council, being a member of Society in the Circuit, and over twenty-one years of age, is ex-officio a member of the Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 105.)

165. Annual Circuit Meeting of Class Leaders.—An annual Meeting of Class Leaders shall be established wherever possible in every Circuit. The Meeting shall consist of all the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to the Circuit, and all the Class Leaders and Assistant Leaders in the Circuit. All Leaders of Junior Society Classes shall be entitled to attend the Meeting, but only those can vote who have reached the age of twenty-one years. The Meeting shall be held annually at a time to be fixed by the September, or, where desirable, by the June, Quarterly Meeting. The Quarterly Meeting shall also appoint a Circuit Secretary. The Superintendent Minister is authorised to call Special Meetings when necessary. (Summary, p. 58.)

166. Central Mission Quarterly Meetings and Non-resident Trustees.—The direction that the Quarterly Meeting of the Manchester Mission (Oldham Street Circuit) shall include the Trustees of all Chapels and Mission Halls, who are members of Society, whether such Trustees are resident in the Circuit or not, shall apply to all the Central Missions whose Committees are appointed by the Conference. (Summary, p. 147.)

2. SUPERINTENDENTS.

167. Probationers and the Lord's Supper.—Superintendents are required to make the necessary arrangements in their Circuit Plans for securing to their Junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of the Lord's Supper. (Summary, p. 235.)

168. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—Superintendents are directed to appoint at each principal Chapel in their Circuits a Special Society Meeting, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read to the Society, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations. (Summary, p. 41.)

169. The Covenant Service in Villages.—As many of the Members of our Church in Village Societies cannot take part in the annual Covenant Service when held only in our principal Chapels, the Conference directs Superintendents to arrange, when necessary, for additional Covenant Services for the smaller Societies, to be conducted by Ministers on the week-nights at the commencement of the New Year; and that, in connection with these Services, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be administered. (Summary, p. 42.)

170. Administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on Weekdays.—The Conference is impressed with the advisability of arranging for the more frequent administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on week-days in those Places where it is difficult to arrange for its administration on Sundays. The Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits to pay special attention to this important matter. (Summary, p. 39.)

171. Minute Books in Discipline Cases.—In all our Circuits separate Minute Books shall be kept for cases of Discipline in Leaders' Meetings, and for such cases in Local Preachers' Meetings as seriously affect the moral character of Local Preachers; and that such Minute Books shall be under the care of the Superintendent Minister of the Circuit for the time being, who shall be responsible for their safe custody. (Summary, p. 52.)

172. Names and Addresses of Trustees.—The Superintendent shall annually revise the Names, Addresses, and Occupations of the Trustees of all our Trust Properties, as entered in the Circuit Book. (Summary, p. 79.)

173. Expulsion of Members.—Inasmuch as a Superintendent is directed to bring before the Weekly Meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit every case of proposed expulsion of a Member, in order that he may have the advantage of hearing the opinions and advice of his colleagues and co-pastors, before he shall finally decide on the course he ought to adopt, the Conference directs that when the Superintendent has not a Colleague, and cannot therefore consult a Weekly Meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit, he shall, in every case of the proposed expulsion of a Member of Society, take counsel with the Chairman of the District. (Summary, p. 33.)

174. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman and the Secretary of the District Synod with names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting, with the name and address of any person elected to attend the May Synod in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such Synod; and also the names and addresses of those persons, in addition to the Circuit Stewards, who have been elected as Representatives to the Synod. (Summary, pp. 138, 160.)

175. Prison Chaplains.—Superintendent Ministers of Circuits in which County or Borough Prisons are situate are required to furnish each year in September to the Ministerial Secretary of the Home Missions' Prisons Sub-Committee the name and address of a Minister in the Circuit for recognition by the Governor of such jail as authorised to visit any Wesleyan prisoners. (Summary, pp. 274–5.)

176. Pastoral Oversight of Wesleyans in County Asylums.—The Pastoral oversight of Wesleyans in County Asylums shall be regarded as part of the duty of the Ministers in those Circuits in which County Asylums are situated. (Summary, p. 275.)

3. LOCAL PREACHERS.

177. Regulations regarding Local Preachers.—(1) Before any Candidate comes upon the Plan on Trial, he shall be examined by the Superintendent, or under his direction, in the Summary of Christian Doctrine and Bible History [The Catechisms of the Wesleyan Methodists, No. II], and, when necessary, in the elements of English Grammar. (Summary, pp. 174–5.)

(2) No Candidate shall be fully admitted as a Local Preacher until he has read the first four volumes of John Wesley's Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament; and until he has passed a satisfactory examination in the definitions and Scripture proofs of the leading Doctrines of Christianity, as there explained. (Summary, p. 173.)

(3) Before any Candidate is fully admitted as a Local Preacher he shall have been twelve months on probation. The Local Preachers' Meeting shall have power to extend the period of probation in individual cases if such a measure be deemed advisable. (Summary, p. 173.)

(4) All Local Preachers shall meet in class. (Summary, p. 172.)

(5) Wherever practicable, Local Preachers, after being received on Full Plan, shall be recognised at a Public Religious Service. (Summary, p. 174.)

In furtherance of the aim for the worthier admission of Local Preachers to Full Plan, a suitable Letter, signed by the President of the Conference, shall be given to each Local Preacher so received, such Letter to be handed to him either on his acceptance on Full Plan or at a Public Recognition Service. (Summary, p. 174.)

(6) A Local Preacher who shall be adjudged a bankrupt, or who shall make a composition with the general body of his creditors, shall thereby be suspended from his office as a Local Preacher until the Local Preachers' Meeting shall have decided whether the circumstances of the case are such as to justify his continuance on the Plan.

N.B.—This Regulation applies also to a Local Preacher who is a Director of a Company which is in similar financial circumstances. (Summary, p. 170.)

(7) Every duly accredited Local Preacher is entitled to be placed, without renewed trial or examination, upon the Plan of any Circuit to which he may remove; provided he present his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan, and has become a member of Society in that Circuit. This, of course, does not apply to Local Preachers on Trial.

The position of a Local Preacher on the Plan of the Circuit to which he may remove shall be decided by the Local Preachers' Meeting concerned. (Summary, pp. 172–3.)

(8) Before a Local Preacher from another branch of the Methodist Church is put on the Circuit Plan he shall satisfy the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting that he holds our Doctrines, approves our Discipline, and has competent abilities for the work. (Summary, p. 167.)

(9) The necessities of our work require that suitable persons should be employed in the capacity of Exhorters; such persons having the approbation of the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting. (Summary, p. 175.)

178. Women Local Preachers.—The Conference declares that women are eligible to become fully accredited Local Preachers on the same conditions and shall hereafter enjoy the same rights and privileges as men who are Local Preachers. (Summary, p. 169.)

179. Wesley Deaconesses and Women Preachers.—The Conference grants permission to Local Preachers' Meetings, in the case of Wesley Deaconesses and other women who have already been preaching under the sanction of the Regulations of the Conference of 1910, to receive them upon Full Plan without further examination. (Summary, p. 169.)

180. Reading of Local Preachers on Trial.—(1) In every Local Preachers' Meeting the Superintendent shall inquire quarter by quarter as to the reading of Local Preachers on Trial, and especially as to their reading of Wesley's Sermons and Notes on the New Testament. (Summary, p. 174.)

(2) The Conference directs that the following question be added to the Order of Business for Local Preachers' Meetings:

"Have the brethren on trial received information concerning the 'Union for Biblical and Homiletic Study,' and have they been advised to join?"

N.B.—The names of any willing to join are to be sent to the Lay Secretary of the Connexional Local Preachers' Committee. (Summary, pp. 176–7.)

181. Secretary of Local Preachers' Meeting and Connexional Committee.—The Secretary of the Local Preachers' Quarterly Meeting shall forward annually to the Connexional Local Preachers' Secretary the Circuit Plan for the March Quarter, and also send the name and address of any person received "on trial" as a Local Preacher or becoming a fully accredited Local Preacher in the Circuit. (Summary, p. 177.)

IV: THE SOCIETY:

182. Orthodoxy of Office-bearers.—No person shall, on any account, be permitted to retain any official situation in our Societies who holds opinions contrary to the total depravity of human nature, the divinity and atonement of Christ, the influence and witness of the Holy Spirit, and Christian holiness, as believed by the Methodists. (Summary, p. 44.)

183. The Society Meeting.—(1) The whole Society in each place shall, wherever possible, be called together, by appointment on the Circuit Plan, at least once a quarter, for purposes of general fellowship amongst its members, for testimony concerning Christian experience, and for pastoral guidance and common counsel in the things of the Kingdom of God, both as touching personal religion and the work of God in the congregation and neighbourhood.

(2) At the Society Meeting new members, after being reported to the Leaders' Meeting, shall be introduced by their Leaders to receive the right hand of fellowship. Members transferred from other Societies, or other Churches, shall be introduced. Baptisms that have taken place since the preceding meeting, and losses suffered through death or through the removal of any members of the Church, shall be reported. New appointments, and retirements of Class Leaders and Stewards, shall be announced. At the first meeting in the New Year the Roll of Membership, containing the names of all fully accredited members on the Class-books, as reported to the Leaders' Meeting, may be read in the Society, and each member shall be expected to answer to his name. It is recommended that once in the year, if not more frequently, the Society Meeting shall conclude with the observance of the Lord's Supper.

(3) None but members of our Church, with those on trial for membership, shall be admitted to the Meeting of the Society. It is desirable that the Quarterly Ticket of membership should be brought to the Meeting, and shown at the door on entrance. (Summary, p. 14.)

184. Recognition of New Members.—The public and formal Recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage new members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition should be associated, wherever practicable, with the Public Service of the Lord's Day, morning or evening, and be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. In some places it might be found more expedient to recognise New Members at a Society Meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week-evening service.

The Conference therefore directs that, at least two or three times a year, if practicable, meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held in every Circuit, the frequency and exact nature of such meetings being left to the discretion of the Superintendent. (See "Form of Service," Minutes, 1894, pp. 448–54.)

If any have not previously received Christian Baptism, that Sacrament should be administered either before or in connection with the Recognition Service. (Summary, p. 19.)

1. LEADERS' MEETING.

185. Representation of Members in the Leaders' Meeting.—(1) The representation of our members in Local Church Management shall be secured by the enlargement of the Leaders' Meeting.

(2) The elected members of the Leaders' Meeting shall be in the proportion of one in fifty, or fraction of fifty, members of Society in connexion with that Leaders' Meeting up to four hundred, thus providing for a maximum of eight elected members.

(3) Persons thus elected to the Leaders' Meeting shall thereby become members of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

(4) Persons eligible for election to the Leaders' Meeting shall be not less than twenty-one years of age, and shall have been in continuous full membership for at least three years.

(5) Persons eligible to take part in the election of representatives to the Leaders' Meeting shall have been full members for at least twelve months, and shall be not less than twenty-one years of age. This shall not exclude from voting those persons who are already members of the Quarterly Meeting.

(6) Representatives to the Leaders' Meetings shall be chosen after nomination, either by open voting or by ballot, as the Meeting of Members may determine. The nomination shall be made in the Meeting by any member who is eligible to take part in the election. The election in each case shall be for one year, provided the membership be maintained.

(7) The election of Representatives shall take place annually at an aggregate Devotional Meeting of the Members of each Society to be held as early in the year as conveniently possible, and shall be presided over by the Superintendent Minister or one of his Colleagues; the Members to be admitted to the Meeting by showing their Ticket of membership for the previous Quarter.

(8) If a vacancy in the number of the elected Representatives should through any cause occur during the year, the place may be filled at a Society Meeting duly called and constituted, as in the case of the Meeting described in the preceding paragraph. (Summary, pp. 41–2.)

186. Disciplinary Functions.—The disciplinary functions of the enlarged Leaders' Meeting shall be the same as those exercised by the Leaders' Meeting as heretofore constituted. (Summary, p. 52.)

187. Chief or General Sunday School Superintendent.—The chief or general Superintendent of each Sunday School shall be ex-officio a member of the Leaders' Meeting of that Society with which the Sunday School is connected, he being a member of Society and not a member of any other Leaders' Meeting. (Summary, p. 52.)

188. Admission of Members.—(1) The Leaders' Meeting shall have a right to declare any person on Trial improper to be received into the Society; and, after such declaration, the Superintendent shall not admit such person into the Society.

(2) It never was intended that the names of all those who are on Trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on Trial, such objection may be stated by him, and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to the person so objected to at that Quarterly Visitation. (Summary, p. 18.)

189. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation. (Summary, p. 29.)

190. Trial of Members who are also Trustees.—(1) No Trustee, however accused or defective in conformity to the Rules of the Society, shall be removed from the Society unless his crime or breach of Rule be proved in the presence of the Trustees and Leaders, namely, the Leaders' Meeting of the particular Society of which he is a Member, together with the Trustees of the Chapel with which that Society is connected, such Trustees being themselves Members of the Methodist Society.

(2) When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purpose of the investigation. If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting, as above constituted, the Trustees of the Chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or, if there is no such chapel, then the Trustees of the Chapel in connection with the principal Society in the Circuit town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated unless he is himself a Member of the Society in the same Circuit. (Summary, pp. 31–2.)

191. Appeal to the Leaders' Meeting.—No Appeal to a Leaders' Meeting shall be received against an act of Discipline by a Minister, in withholding a Ticket of Membership, after the completion of twelve months from the time when the member has been informed by the Minister of such act of Discipline. (Summary, p. 35.)

192. Assistant Class Leaders.—Where a Society Class is large, a Leader infirm, or it appears otherwise expedient, an Assistant Leader may be appointed by the Leaders' Meeting on the nomination of the Superintendent, and such Assistant shall be a member of the Leaders' Meeting. The number of Assistant Leaders who shall be members of the Leaders' Meeting shall not exceed one Assistant for one class. Assistant Leaders shall be members of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. The appointment of Assistant Leaders shall be an annual instead of a permanent one. (Summary, p. 50.)

193. Junior Society Classes.—In connection with our Societies, Classes shall be generally established which shall directly provide for the religious instruction of young people. They shall have as their object the early conversion of children to God, their instruction and training in Christian doctrines and morality, and the development of Christian experience and character. For these purposes Holy Scripture shall be largely used. As a rule, these Classes shall be met week by week. (Summary, p. 24.)

194. Leaders of Junior Society Classes and the Leaders' Meeting.—Leaders of Junior Society Classes shall be members of the Leaders' Meeting and the Circuit Quarterly Meeting, provided they have reached the age of twenty-one years. (Summary, p. 26.)

195. Quarterly Returns of Membership.—Where practicable, the numbers of each Society shall be read in the Leaders' Meeting immediately before each Quarter Day. (Summary, pp. 22, 54.)

196. Local Foreign Missionary Committee.—Where a Local Foreign Missionary Committee is not otherwise appointed, the Leaders' Meeting shall act in that capacity, and have power, for the transaction of Missionary Business, to co-opt other members. (Summary, p. 54.)

197. Combined Meetings in the Society.—For the purpose of representing, when necessary, the general interests of the Society in regard to any special purpose or object that needs to be dealt with, combined meetings of the Leaders' Meeting with the Trustees, the Local Sunday-school Council, or any other local body connected with the Society, may be held occasionally. (Summary, p. 52.)

2. TRUSTEES.

198. Political Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Trust Premises.—Having regard to the fact that a desire has been expressed in some places to use our Trust Property for the purpose of Political Meetings, the Conference declares that such uses are not contemplated by the provisions of any of our Trust Deeds; and it reminds Superintendents and Trustees that our Trust Properties can only be lawfully used for the purposes provided for in the Trust Deeds. The Conference further expresses the conviction that any such use of the Premises as that suggested would be detrimental to the best interests of our Societies by endangering their peace and unity. (Summary, p. 63.)

In regard to allowing the use of Wesleyan Methodist Trust Property for meetings of Parish Councils, see Summary, p. 63.

199. Entertainments on Trust Premises.—The Conference directs that the previous Standing Order upon this subject be re-stated as follows:

The Conference has reason to believe that in certain localities entertainments have been allowed which are, to say the least, highly inexpedient, and that in a few cases the practice obtains of holding entertainments which are altogether inconsistent with the purposes for which our property is held in Trust. The Conference therefore directs that the greatest possible care must be taken not to allow premises set apart for religious purposes to be used for entertainments which would bring a reproach upon the Church, or constitute a ground of offence to our people generally.

The Conference re-affirms its declaration that dancing, card playing, games of chance, theatrical entertainments, and amusements of a frivolous or vulgar type, are contrary to the general rules and usage of the people called Methodists as affecting the use of our Trust Property, and cannot be allowed.

The Conference is as strongly opposed as ever to our premises being used for such purposes, and earnestly deprecates any movement which would result in the general introduction of entertainments which require a dramatic licence. The Conference recognises, however, that there are entertainments of an innocent and helpful character for which a licence is required by the Public Authorities, primarily as a condition of public safety. It may therefore at times be necessary to apply for such a licence. In that case the Conference relies upon the loyalty of Trustees and Superintendents, and urges upon them the necessity of wise discrimination and careful oversight. It should always be remembered that our premises are held for religious worship, and no entertainment should be allowed which conflicts with the Trusts under which our property is held. Subject to the aforesaid statement, the Conference lays down the following conditions precedent to any application for a dramatic licence:

(1) No attempt shall be made to include entertainments of an undesirable character under cover of a dramatic licence.

(2) No entertainment which requires a dramatic licence shall be given on our premises without the programme being submitted to and approved by the Superintendent Minister or one of his colleagues.

(3) On all occasions when a dramatic licence is sought, it shall in each case be after the express vote of the Trustees, and the application shall be made on their behalf by some person duly authorised by the Trustees, subject to the consent of the Superintendent Minister.

(4) No application shall be made for a building to be regularly licensed for dramatic entertainments. (Agenda, 1924, p. 345; Minutes, 1924, p. 105.)

N.B.—For Raffles on Church Premises, see Summary, p. 508.

200. Trust Premises and other Religious Societies.—The Conference resolves that our Trust premises shall not be let for any public religious meeting unless the Superintendent of the Circuit concerned be able to accept general responsibility for the teaching which shall be given. (Summary, p. 64.)

201. Friendly Societies and Meetings on Trust Premises.—Friendly Societies and Approved Societies under the National Insurance

Act may be encouraged to hold their Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Schools or Vestries, especially where there is no other public building available for the purpose ; care being taken to avoid any action which would render the Trust Property liable to rates (Summary, p. 63.)

202. Voting in our Chapels on Municipal and other Matters.—It is not within the province of any person occupying our pulpits to submit Resolutions and take votes on municipal and semi-political matters, nor to ask the congregation to vote thereon at the close of the service in our chapels on the Lord's Day. (Summary, p. 64.)

203. Trusts and Connexional Funds.—The Conference of 1921 resolved as follows :

(1) In every place of worship throughout our Church, both in Circuits and in Missions, the Connexional Collections shall be duly announced, and the object of them explained to our people.

(2) In the case of Missions, bearing in mind that the cost of the upkeep of the property and all ordinary expenditure depend upon the Offertory, at least one-half of the collections taken on a given Sunday shall be paid to each of the Connexional Funds.

(3) Where the Envelope System is in use, an average of collections for the past three years shall be paid to each Connexional Fund, it being understood that this shall be budgeted for in the amounts required year by year by each Church. Special gifts should be encouraged at each anniversary, and private donations solicited. Whenever there is a surplus on the year's working of the system, the Connexional Funds should benefit pro rata with the local church fund.

(4) Circuits which do not adopt the Envelope System shall be directed to conform to Conference Regulations, and devote a whole Sunday's collections to each Connexional Fund.

(5) The Conference recognises that in this matter the case of Scotland is exceptional, and recommends that the present arrangements there for helping the Connexional Funds shall be continued. There are difficulties in altering existing arrangements in Scotland, but the Conference is hopeful that in the near future the Envelope System will be generally adopted, which it believes will help to solve the difficulties. (Summary, pp. 444–5.)

3: SUNDAY AND PRIMARY SCHOOLS.

204. Sunday School Official Meetings.*—The Superintendent Minister of the Circuit shall preside at the Annual Meeting of the

* This Standing Order applies to the old Regulations still in force in some Schools.

Committee and Subscribers; also at all meetings of the Committee and at all meetings of the Teachers. If at any one of the said meetings the Superintendent Minister be not present, one of the other Ministers of the Circuit shall preside. If either at an Annual Meeting or at a meeting of the Committee no Minister is present, the meeting shall appoint one of the Officers of the institution to act as Chairman. If at any Teachers' Meeting no Minister is present, one of the Superintendents of the School shall preside. (Summary, p. 117.)

205. Representation of Sunday Schools in Circuit Quarterly Meetings.—(1) No one who is not a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of at least three years' continuous standing shall be ex-officio, or eligible to be elected as, a Representative from a Sunday School to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. No person shall be deemed eligible to represent a Sunday School at the Quarterly Meeting of any Circuit in which he is not at the time a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

(2) The chief or general Superintendent of every Sunday School shall be a member, ex-officio, of the Quarterly Meeting.

(3) In Schools with an average attendance of one hundred to three hundred scholars, in addition to the ex-officio Representative, a special representative shall be chosen from the teachers and officers of the School at the Annual Meeting of the Local Council.

(4) In Schools with an average attendance of three hundred scholars and upwards, a second special representative shall be elected in like manner. The special representative or representatives shall be elected annually, the same persons being eligible for re-election. Only members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church shall vote for representatives.

(5) Where there are two Sessions, the average attendance shall be that for the larger session, as given in the official returns for the year preceding that in which the election is made.

(6) Should any School Superintendent not be a member of the Church, the teachers and officers of the school may, at the Annual Meeting of the Local Council, elect from among their own number as a representative, some other person who is duly qualified in respect of his membership.

(7) The time and place of the meeting when representatives are elected shall be fixed in consultation with the Superintendent Minister, either he or one of his colleagues being in the chair; and in the event of a Circuit Minister not being present the chairman shall be elected by the meeting, such Chairman being a member of the Church. (Summary, p. 116.)

206. Correct Returns from Sunday and Primary Schools.—(1) The Local Sunday School Council shall consider, at a Meeting to be held not later than January 31 of each year, the School Returns for the year ending December 31 previous, and immediately forward the Schedule to the Circuit Secretary.

(2) The Report of each School is to be submitted by the School Secretary to the officers of the School, and countersigned by the School Superintendent before being sent to the Local Council.

(3) The Circuit Sunday School Council shall consider the Sunday School Schedules and report thereon to the Circuit March Quarterly Meeting.

(4) The Statistics of the Primary and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the Circuit March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the Circuit June Quarterly Meeting.

(5) The Sunday School and Education [Primary School] Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendent to the District Sunday School Secretary not later than April 3 in each year. (Summary, p. 111.)

207. Local Temperance Officials.—The Conference directs that the Local Secretary of the Abstainers' League be ex-officio a member of the Local Sunday School Council, and that one of the Circuit Temperance and Social Welfare Secretaries be ex-officio a member of the Circuit Sunday School Council. (Summary, p. 122.)

208. Orthodoxy of Sunday School Officers and Teachers.—The Chapel Model Deed provides that in any School held in a building settled on the Trusts of the Chapel Model Deed the teaching is always subject to the Clause in the Deed respecting Doctrine; and the Conference has specifically directed that no person shall be continued as an Officer or Teacher who shall at any time be declared by the Local Sunday School Council or the Leaders' Meeting unfit in respect of general character or of religious opinions for the Office he sustains, or for taking part in the Christian Education of the Young. (Summary, p. 109.)

209. Our Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.—The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our Catechisms in our Sunday Schools. (Summary, p. 112.)

210. Returns of Adult Bible-classes, P.S.A.'s, etc.—The Secretary of the Sunday School Department shall obtain the information from the Secretaries of the District Synods. The Returns are to be made in three columns.

N.B.—The three columns represent the number of Members in :

(a) Adult Bible Classes.
(b) Pleasant Sunday Afternoon Classes.
(c) Brotherhoods and Sisterhoods.

(Summary, p. 56.)

211. Scholars' Removal Notes.—With a view to preventing, as far as possible, the loss of scholars by removal, " Scholars' Removal Notes " should be used in all our Schools. The Conference requests the Connexional Sunday School Council to supply, free of cost, in the first instance, a Specimen Book of Removal Notes to the officers, and to intimate the willingness of the Department to assist in any case of difficulty. (Summary, p. 113.)

212. Young People's Day.—The Conference directs that the Third Sunday in October be observed as a day of special prayer on behalf of our Young People, and that our Ministers and Local Preachers be asked to co-operate with the Sunday School Authorities in bringing before the young the necessity of immediate decision. (Summary, p. 114.)

213. Erection of Sunday School Premises.—All Trustees who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises intended for Sunday School work shall communicate with the Connexional Sunday School Department before the plans are finally accepted and before they are submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings, and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted. (Summary, p. 115.)

214. Boy Scouts and Girl Guides.—Each Circuit Sunday School Secretary shall send to the Connexional Sunday School Secretary, not later than March, a report of the working of the Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs, the Girl Guides and Brownies, and that, should any local difficulty arise, the help of the Sunday School Department should be sought. (Summary, p. 114.)

THE WESLEYAN METHODIST TRUST ASSURANCE CO., LTD.

(See Advertisement in Insurance Section.)

THE Company was established in 1872 with the sanction and commendation of Conference for the insurance of Connexional property against loss by Fire. Powers were subsequently obtained for the transaction of other classes of insurance, including Workmen's Compensation, Third Party, and Burglary.

The dividend paid to Shareholders is limited to 5 per cent. on the amount paid up on their shares. As the whole paid-up capital is only £1,250, the shareholders all told receive less than £100 per annum. The chief beneficiary under the Articles of Association is the Worn-Out Ministers' Fund, to which grants have been made amounting to £108,400. The grant to this Fund in 1926 was £7,500. All grants are paid free of income tax.

SECTION VI.

ANNUAL ADDRESSES.

The Address

OF

TO THE METHODIST SOCIETIES.

DEAR BRETHREN,—

We are living in stormy and tempestuous days. Old landmarks have been swept away, swift changes have come, there are new parties and new cries, everything flows. No one can say of our land to-day: "Thou art a fen of stagnant waters." We have not resting upon us the stillness of death. We have cried for movement, and the call has been answered. There is something breathless about us all. The tragedy amidst all this fierce speed is that so many know not whither they are going. The age wants something, and will not be happy till it gets it. But it knows not what it is. There is a revolt against things as they are—a sort of dumb desire to fashion a better world. So there is a seeking for new forms and methods in Art, Literature, Music—in the world of politics and in the Church. We cannot say that the age speaks of arrival, but it does, indeed, tell us that it is on the march—often it may be without much sense of direction, journeying in the night without guidance of stars or compass. It is within this age of unrest, of change, movement, that our Church has to do its work. We do not fear change—for we have a message which can speak to the needs of every time—for the gospel is not for an age but for all time. It is a difficult age—but we have never been daunted by difficulties, but rather have welcomed them as a spur and a dynamic to more eager and inventive action. Was not Methodism born amidst the rationalism and coarse brutality of the eighteenth century? Did not our Foreign Missionary Society come into existence in days of national crisis? There is a divine opportunism in Methodism at its best. For it has that high gift of adapting itself to new conditions. It is not bound by the dead hand of tradition, but is led forward by the living hand of mercy unto those who have need. Whenever

Methodism is true to itself it can say: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, for He anointed me to preach good tidings to the poor, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

During the year special attention has been paid to Foreign Missions, to Sunday Schools, to Temperance and Social Welfare, and also to our work in Rural Areas.

The World for Christ.

The Foreign Missionary Society realised that this was a "Great Day of the Lord," and that there had come to it an insistent call. With a fresh vividness its leaders saw the needs of the world and realised their utter inadequacy to the urgent call and gigantic tasks of to-day. They betook themselves to prayer, and to continuous waiting upon God, and were led to call the Church to a new discovery of the exceeding and great riches which are in Christ Jesus. During this year, all over our land meetings have been held calling the people of our Church to a deeper realisation of the great opportunities of the work in distant lands, and also to the understanding of the fact that the work, both at Home and Abroad, is indissolubly bound together. We are one with the Church Father who said: "I look upon every land as the Father's land." These meetings have not been public meetings in the old sense of that phrase, but have been rather conferences for the deepening of our fellowship with God and with one another, and in the travail and the sorrow of the world. We do not tabulate results. The aim has not been financial—but spiritual. The spirit of many of these meetings has been stimulating, and gracious visions have come to us. We have waited and prayed, and we have seen Jesus crowned with glory and honour. We have listened and have heard Him calling us to a deeper consecration. We are assured that the way to the world's redemption will not come through a pity which is akin to patronage, but rather by the Divine Compassion which drives us forth to stand side by side with the afflicted and the distressed. Again and again we have heard Jesus calling to us and saying, "He that would be first amongst you, let him become the servant of all." We have seen the vision of the world as the Father's family, and we know that the many calls which come to us from many lands are those of our brothers and sisters, and that we are bound and knit to the folk of other countries by the ties of spiritual kinship. We have been driven from our sense of utter insufficiency to the sufficiency which is found in God: we have awakened to the fact that the problems of distant lands are not those of men and women of other races and other colours, but rather are of those who, in Christ, are our brothers and sisters. This should surely give to us a new sense of the dignity, urgency, and joy of the task. We are all called to this great campaign, and we yearn with a deeper yearning for the coming of that day, "when at the name of Jesus every knee shall bow, and every tongue shall confess Jesus Christ as Lord to the glory of God the Father."

The Church and the Children.

Much good work has been done during the year in relation to our Sunday Schools. We had a special week of campaign. Meetings were held, pamphlets were distributed, and the various tasks of Sunday Schools were stated, and much good advice and counsel were given. The week was not meant to end in seven days, but was rather a week which was to serve as a dynamic and inspiration for all our Sunday School work. We rejoice that through the ministrations of this week many have realised in a deeper sense the words of Francis Thompson that "in the satchel of the child lies the key of to-morrow." In this sphere also we see that patronage is of no use. We have heard our Lord calling and saying, "Except ye become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of God." Once again we have seen Him "set a little child in the midst," and heard Him calling to us to become as little children. The prayerful consideration of our task has given to us a freshness and youthfulness of spirit. We have heard our Lord calling to us, and reminding us that only those who are young in spirit and mind can minister to the young. We do not think so much of our service as of our joy in being privileged to company with children, and to know that if at times we lead them, the greater truth is that the little child doth, indeed, lead us.

The Church and the Drink Evil.

The campaign on behalf of temperance has been waged with fine daring and inventive skill. The case against the Drink Traffic has been stated with lucidity and passionate earnestness. In meetings all over the land it has been clearly shown that intoxicating liquors are destructive to body, soul, and spirit, and that no nation can attain to true greatness if it is in bondage to Drink. The crusade has not sounded a negative note; it has made a direct appeal to Youth to consecrate itself to the great tasks of the age. It has insisted that the campaigns of to-day are so great as to demand all the strength of unimpaired faculties. The call has been that of high chivalry, and has expressed life in terms of sacrificial service and of devotion to the mind and will of Christ. The response has been swift. Already a small army of eager and earnest Youth has been mobilised on the side of temperance. The campaign is only at its commencement, and we rejoice to know that the movement begun this year is to be continued with renewed consecration in the years which lie before us.

The Church and Rural Areas.

We rejoice that a carefully organised inquiry has been made during the past year as to our work in Rural Areas. We believe that here is a great task for our Church—to bring new sources of help to our villages, to put this work in the very fore-front of our Church's service. The solving of the problems of village Methodism will demand wise statesmanship, a new and increased devotion, and a vivid realisation of the Gospel of Christ. Let us remember that village Methodism has the divine power of rearing saints—for rural areas have not only produced the "village Hampden," but also the "village Wesley." We all know them, and the latchet of their shoes we are not worthy to unloose.

The National Crisis.

During the year we have realised with a new insistence that we are members one of another. We have passed through a National Crisis of great magnitude and peril. There has been much misunderstanding, much bitterness, and the end is not yet. Surely we must all realise that there is committed unto us the ministry of reconciliation. This cannot be fulfilled by resolutions at meetings, or by pious platitudes. We shall never build Jerusalem in England's green and pleasant land, if we are dominated by self-regarding interest. It is our task to stand amongst those who seek to understand—for those who try to dominate make a hell of God's world. It is a hard task to look at life from the standpoint of the other person—for it demands insight, poetic vision, and understanding. But it is the Christian way. We must learn to express life in terms of service, in a willingness to help all who have need, in a passionate desire to give to all a share of the best things in life. For there is in the social order much that is contrary to the kingdom of God. We see brutal inequalities, lives impoverished, men unemployed, wealth flaunting its luxury, grimy and destroying poverty, the shirking or partial fulfilling of offered tasks, loud claims for rights by contending classes, and silence touching duties. These things ought to haunt us more than they do. We need imaginative sympathy. Something akin to that tenderness of the one who said: "O, I have suffered with those that I saw suffer." The Church cannot stand outside the sorrow and welter of our social system. It is not our task to define by what economic measures reform shall come, but we must in season and out of season insist that each life is of eternal value to God, that we are all of one family, and that life's great gifts are not for a few but for all. Methodism has a great task in ministering to the disinherited, to the neglected—in leading out of the prison-house those that are bound. God grant that this National Crisis may cleanse our eyes! God is, we believe, giving us purity of vision through our national and world sorrows. We need that exercise of a nobler intellect—of an intellect that is no longer cold, but is kindled by emotion. "A tear is an intellectual thing."

Surely the logic of facts is driving us to a deeper realisation of the truth of the message of Jesus. We shall never have national peace without international peace—and never international peace without national. The call is to love the world as God loved it—to love it in terms of persons—of men, women, and children. We are called to establish peace on earth. During the year we have had great disappointments—for the fruit of Locarno was not garnered. But as Viscount Grey said: "There are some disappointments which numb us, others that rouse us to more determined action. The disappointment of Geneva is of the latter class." It is a clarion call to a new consecration to the cause of world-peace.

The Cheerful Giver.

The tasks are many and great, and we cannot solve them without a new spirit. We gratefully recognise the manifold generosity of many of our people. We need, however, a new scale of values in giving. Too often has it been true of us—"with the remnant thereof he maketh a 'god.'" We must learn to give more systematically, not after the pattern of a niggardly planning—but sacrificially. If we loved much, we should give much. For giving is the manifestation of love. "For God so loved . . . that He gave." Let us give cheerfully, for "the Lord loveth a cheerful giver." The untapped financial resources of Methodism are tremendous. We call upon all our people to put more conscience into their giving. To-day there is a call of majestic instancy. Let us answer it by giving systematically, generously, and gaily. Let us all look upon our goods as held in stewardship. All things will never truly be ours until we say: "We are Christ's, and Christ is God's."

We believe that there is in our Church a deepening sense of Fellowship. We realise more deeply than ever the truth of John Wesley's wise counsellor—"The Bible knows nothing of solitary religion." We need a deeper fellowship with man—but this we cannot have in its noblest sense until "our fellowship is with God and with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord." Let us wait humbly in Christ's presence, and seek the knowledge of His love and of His grace. We need more communion with God, the shut door, the silent room.

In a noisy world the soul has a double need of rest: amidst all the strife of to-day our hearts yearn for peace. We find both our rest and peace in Jesus. In Jesus we shall find the world's peace and our own: the world's rest and ours too. "Thou hast made us for Thyself, and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee."

Now the God of peace, Who brought again from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep with the blood of the Eternal Covenant, even our Lord Jesus, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in us that which is well-pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ; to Whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

THE ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1926 TO THE BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1926.

HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Onec again it is our joy to send you from our Annual Conference cordial and affectionate greeting. We greatly value the ties that bind us to you, and assure you of our vital interest in all your concerns.

We have received with very great respect our honoured President. We rejoice in his world-wide activities in connection with the Bible Society and in the high place he holds in the affection and esteem of all the Churches. He has presided over our Sessions with grace and wisdom, helping us in difficult places; while his public utterances have raised us to higher spiritual levels, and given us a clearer comprehension of God's redeeming purpose for the world.

We have welcomed with great pleasure the President's companions, the Revs. T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A., LL.D., C. Ensor Walters, F. H. Benson, B.A., and your distinguished Lay Representative, Mr. Charles Terry, O.B.E.

They have stimulated us by their presence and counsel, and have gained an enduring place in our regard.

As a Church, we are grateful to God for the measure of success that has attended our work during the year. Our membership returns show a gratifying increase, largely due to the careful attention given to our young people in training them for their responsibilities and privileges. The reports from our Synods are expressive of gratitude and hope, although in many places conditions have greatly altered.

As a Connexion, we suffer much from the increasing tide of emigration; while unemployment, especially in Belfast, menaces our happiness and progress. Despite all hindering circumstances, however, God is helping us to carry on His work.

The Forward Movement in the North is proceeding with its plans for providing more adequate accommodation for those who seek a spiritual home amongst us. The Central Mission premises and several churches are being rebuilt; the Irish-American Memorial Scheme is being prosecuted with vigour and in confidence of ultimate success; our Theological Hall in Belfast has been enlarged, and the vital necessity of ministerial training is receiving fuller and more general recognition.

The practical sympathy shown in these projects by many of your leading laymen is gratefully acknowledged by us.

In the South of Ireland our ministers and people are bravely maintaining our distinctive witness; their influence is out of all proportion to their numbers. There is abundant evidence of a widespread spirit of inquiry among the people. Many are turning to us with the eager, wistful cry, "Who will show us any good?" Among such our colporteurs receive a ready welcome, their feet being shod with the preparedness of the Gospel of Peace. Their sales of Scriptures and religious books during the past year have been phenomenal, and the future of colportage and open-air work is bright with promise. All the operations controlled by our Evangelistic Committee, including the work of women—gifted and consecrated—have been crowned with blessing.

During his year of office, our Vice-President conducted in Northern Ireland a popular Temperance Campaign, which has further enlightened public opinion and stressed the need for a larger programme of reform.

Again we report with sorrow some breaches in our ministerial ranks. In the passing of William Harpur, John Magill, and John E. Green we have lost true-hearted servants of the Master. Even in their later years they were in labours more abundant; and now they enjoy the open vision and engage in tireless service.

This year we have received fourteen Candidates for our Ministry, young men full of promise whose hearts God has touched. We are deeply grateful to God Who thus by His Spirit helps us to maintain in our land the evangelical succession.

During the year a political event of great importance, the settlement of the Boundary Question, has lifted a load from many minds, and there are indications of a growing spirit of good-will between all classes of our countrymen.

However much absorbed by our own affairs, we in Ireland have always sought to cultivate the wider outlook and to give missionary interests a large place in our thoughts and life.

The Spiritual Advance Campaign produced an abiding influence and deepened our consecration to the cause of world evangelism.

We rejoice in the growing spirit of unity among the Churches, and anticipate with thankfulness the approaching consummation of Methodist Union in Great Britain. With the larger and united Methodism it will be our joy and privilege to maintain intimate communion.

We have appointed as our delegate to your Conference the Rev. Robert Mowbray Ker; as a City Missioner and as Secretary of the Conference he has for many years rendered unique service.

As his companions, we have selected the Revs. William W. Hutchinson and Robert H. Gallagher, B.A., and as our Lay Representative, Mr. W. Mills Forsyth. These have our fullest confidence, and they will inform you further of our affairs.

Be assured, Fathers and Brethren, of our sympathy and affection, and of our continued prayer on your behalf. Especially do we pray for you in this time of industrial unrest. We have watched with admiration your fortitude and that of the English people in confronting a national danger.

May the Holy Spirit be outpoured among you, and the Prince of Peace gain His rightful sway over all classes and over all nations.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

R. LEE COLE, Secretary.

THE REPLY OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE TO THE ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE.

BELOVED AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

Once again by letter we convey to you the affectionate greetings of the Conference, with the assurance that you are ever in our thoughts and prayers.

We proudly acclaim you as fellow-workers in the service of Christ's Church. Your successes are ours, your sorrows and anxieties we share, and our life is enriched by the deepening of your own.

We note with thanksgiving the strain of high hope in your letter, the bright outlook for your work in the increasing pacification of your beloved land after the years of strife and division. You have proved yourselves a gallant company by the courage with which you have faced manifold difficulties; such faith and courage enrol you among the heroic sons of the Church in all ages, who, undaunted and undismayed, have contended for the faith.

In this your shining example of endurance through dark days and years we find a pledge that God will entrust to you more signal responsibility in the days to come.

Your representatives to our Conference received a cordial welcome and their impressive words were listened to with deepest interest.

The message we would send you is the message we believe we have received from God during the days of the Conference. The burden of the world, its levity and weariness, its brave but inadequate efforts to find peace and a happy issue out of all its afflictions, lies heavy upon the heart and conscience of the Church. We have been led to claim the whole of life for God, and we are deeply convinced that the whole of life is crying out for God as never before in the history of mankind. To interpret that cry to the world and to ourselves is our task.

At the same time the weighty words of our President in his addresses have brought us all into the presence of the sufficient resources of God in Christ, and with a note of elation we have rejoiced in the Gospel given to us to preach. Hard things have been said of the Church in these post-war days by voices outside. The hopeful thing is that the Church in particular has said hard things to herself and already the blessing of the contrite seems to be coming to her in new measure.

We have been called once again to the need for prayer and the cultivation of our devout life, to the exploring of our riches and resources in Christ, so we say to you what we say to ourselves: "Lift up your hearts"; "We lift them up unto the Lord."

Signed on behalf of the Conference,

THOMAS KIRKUP, Secretary.

ADDRESS OF THE FRENCH CONFERENCE OF 1926 TO THE BRITISH CONFERENCE.

Dear and Honoured Brethren,—

It is the desire of our hearts, as we begin the session of our Conference, to address to you a message of loving gratitude.

Your constant help, both disinterested and fraternal; your annual addresses, which are always inspiring; the delegates of the Missionary Society, who take such interest in our own work and bring us something of your rich experience in their refreshing messages, all these constitute for us so many proofs of your affection. We are the more deeply touched when we remember the multiplicity of calls for your service from all parts of the world.

We have followed with interest the development of God's work in your own country, your plans for new conquests, and the way you have encouraged all activities on behalf of young people; these with the signs of revival among you are to us matters of rejoicing and hope. Suffer us, dear and honoured brethren, to associate you with us in our sadness and in our hopes and joys.

We have lost one of the most influential men of our staff of ministers, Onésime Prunier, pastor and theological tutor. You have had opportunities, from time to time, of seeing and hearing our brother and you will thus understand our loss. Nearly all our ministers have, during their course of studies, been under the sway of his bright influence; all have benefited from his erudition and his masterly mind. He was a leader and a master. Our hearts venerate his memory and bless God for His grace in permitting us to know and love him.

The truce of arms, long waited for, between science and religion, is now an accomplished fact in France. Hands before clenched to fight are now clasped. We can now work with more assurance, and we hope to reap where our fathers sowed with perseverance. We perceive a movement towards the Church, not yet very clear in the masses, but quite distinct in the educated classes. We see a growing phalanx of men of good-will, and young scholars inspired by the example of noble characters such as Peguy, Proust, Rivière, who are taking the lead. Protestant students are not behind in this movement. The compelling visions of the possibilities of Christ awaken an ardent will to serve.

These are not hopes only, for we already note results in real conversions that are full of promise. Vibrating and enthusiastic testimonies come to us from many quarters. The attraction of Christ is an actual reality. To proclaim with conviction the person of Jesus, in His divine and eternal greatness and in His glorious splendour, as Saviour, and the only Saviour, this, we see clearly, compels admiration and finds the way to the hearts of men.

In organising our work, we have to take into account the disappointment and disenchantment of too much discoursing. The forum has no longer its former attraction. People are athirst for truth, but are tired of words. Thus we meet with the difficulty of attracting crowds, and we have to win souls one by one. This personal work gives actually the best results. To form, one by one, groups of souls imbued with the same Spirit, shedding forth the light, this is the way to establish solidly our basis. But this means an overflowing activity, and requires more labourers than are at present at our disposal.

The Lord has preceded us in our work: His voice has been heard, and several young men have given themselves, full of joy, to God's work. Four new students have been admitted to our theological school. What joy for us, and what a promise! The Lord who makes "all things work together for good to them that love Him" has not led these young people to us without reason. He does not send them to labour in a desert. We already hear the shouts of joy of our missionaries in West Africa, and we have had the great satisfaction of ordaining for this work a new missionary. God honours us in entrusting us with a more extensive service. We do not shrink from it. Our Master does all things well!

Without illusion, led by the Divine Spirit, we feel we are in the right place and are ready to follow the heavenly signs, always and anywhere. We trust in the Lord. We trust also in your wise and kindly guidance, in your financial aid and in your prayers to help us through these difficult times. We shall remain faithful to our call as Christians and Methodists, and we doubt not your affection.

May you be blessed, you who have loved beyond your frontiers, loved without failing, loved in giving yourselves.

"Unto Him who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be the glory in the Church, by Christ Jesus throughout all ages."

Signed on behalf of the French Conference,

L. PARKER, Secretary.

THE REPLY OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE TO THE ADDRESS OF THE FRENCH CONFERENCE.

DEAR BRETHREN,—

We were glad to receive your loving message, and hasten to assure you of our sympathy with you in these confusing and difficult days. We share your sorrow in the passing of M. Onésime Prunier, and can understand how bitterly the many men who have been trained by him for your Ministry will regret his loss to the Church visible. We congratulate you on the accession to the chair of your Conference of your new President, and hope that his ministry amongst you in this responsible office may be abundantly blessed by God.

We know some of the difficulties you have to face every day, the tyranny of a hostile ecclesiastical machine which cannot afford to be tolerant, degraded and superstitious religion and still more degraded unbelief and pagan living, the smallness of your numbers and the many discouragements inevitable in a country whose social and religious traditions are hostile to Protestantism, and specially to Methodism. But we are glad to hear of the promise of great success in your work, especially in Brittany, and of your attempts to cover the whole country with groups of Methodism here, there, and everywhere. With you we are glad to notice the dissolution of theoretic materialism, and the new alliance of science and religion.

Your work of winning men one by one, and so, laboriously and gradually, but surely, permeating your country with the Methodist spirit and witness has our prayerful sympathy. We love your country too, and pray that the genius of France may soon contribute, not merely to scientific research and the lucid exposition of results of such investigations, but also to the winning of Europe and the world to the gospel of the grace of God in Christ Jesus our Lord and Saviour. In this connection we congratulate you on your foreign missionary work in West Africa, and rejoice that you have spirit and strength, in spite of your exceptionally difficult surroundings at home, to think of the regions beyond.

Our thoughts are with you continually; you are isolated, but not alone; you are weak, but God has always chosen the weak things of the world to confound the strong. You are working as Paul worked in Europe in the first century, in the back streets of great cities and amongst the poor and the despised. What you are achieving, you will not know till the veil is lifted and the multitude which no man can number from every nation and tongue comes into the Kingdom before our eyes. Therefore, be of good courage, brethren; what He is doing in France we do not know now; we shall know hereafter, and it will prove to be more than we have ever dared to ask or think possible. Yours, in the service of our common Lord, and of the Church which is His Bride.

THE ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH OF SOUTH AFRICA TO THE YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1926.

Dear and Honoured Fathers and Brethren,—

Assembled in our Annual Conference in East London, we send you heartiest greetings. Although it is forty-four years since we were established a separate Conference, we still regard with deep affection the Mother Church, and acknowledge our sense of dependence. We are deeply interested in your welfare. When you suffer, we suffer with you; when you are honoured, we rejoice.

That God continues to honour your work is evident from the inspiring reports we read from time to time in the Methodist Press, and from the tidings brought to us by those who visit your shores. Our delegates to the Lincoln Conference gave us glowing accounts of the uplift and inspiration of that Assembly. They also spoke encouragingly of what they had seen in the circuits, especially in the great City Missions, where large numbers are brought under the influence of the Gospel. It seems to us that there are not wanting signs of the return of the spiritual tide in England, and in that return we shall share.

We rejoice greatly in your continued missionary zeal and in the progress made, in spite of great difficulties, on the Mission Field. We also have our problems, chief among them being questions of race. The natives outnumber the Europeans by nearly five to one, and constitute a serious problem. With the largest following of any Church of the Bantu race, we continually endeavour to minister not only to the spiritual needs of these people, but also to secure for them political justice. Our voice is heard on questions of Temperance and Social Purity, and we have used our influence to secure the removal of certain obnoxious clauses from the proposed new Liquor Laws.

For several years one of our ablest ministers has been loaned to the South African Temperance Alliance, and largely as the result of his leadership, the cause of Temperance has been greatly advanced.

We record with gratitude a year of progress. This is evidenced by the increase of 2,466 full members, 2,125 members on trial, and 895 in junior classes, the total number in classes being 219,087. We are also happy to report a record missionary income.

We deeply regret the death of Ernest Hodkin, one of our choicest ministers. During his twenty-three years of service, chiefly in the large towns, he won golden opinions by his devotion, loyalty, and attractive personality.

We also record with a sense of loss the passing of three Native brethren: Christopher Lubisi, Joel D. Goronyane, and William D. Siwisa. Each of these brethren faithfully served the Church.

Five European ministers and one Native minister become Supernumeraries this year: Albert H. Hodges, Griffith W. Rogers, and Arthur J. Lennard are ex-presidents of our Conference; they have all occupied foremost places in our Church life. Mr. Hodges and Mr. Rogers have fulfilled gifted and influential ministries in European circuits, whilst Mr. Lennard, who for twenty-five years was Governor of the Clarkebury Institution, and for fifteen years the Chairman of the Clarkebury District, has left a deep and abiding influence on the Native work of our Church. The other brethren who are retiring—Frank F. Cosnett, William F. Evans, and Samuel H. Jozi—have rendered loyal and efficient service.

We greatly appreciate your approval of the election of the Rev. Andrew Graham as our President. Our choice has been amply justified by his conduct in the Chair. His spiritual and cultured utterances have given a high tone to the Conference—an outstanding Conference in gracious spiritual influences.

We deeply regret the breakdown in health of the Rev. F. Holmes early in his presidential year. This necessitated calling upon the Ex-President, Rev. J. M. Watkinson, to undertake the presidential duties. The Conference highly appreciates the loyal and unselfish service he has rendered.

The Conference warmly welcomed the Rev. Amos Burnet. Your fraternal greetings brought by him, together with his own inspiring words, were received with great enthusiasm.

We learn with devout thankfulness that you have loaned the Rev. Norman Dunning, M.A., LL.B., for an Evangelistic Mission in South Africa, and we earnestly pray that his visit may be fraught with widespread blessing.

We have nominated as our President for the Conference of 1927, the Rev. Theo. R. Curnick, S.T.B., a brother greatly beloved, a devoted missionary, an expert translator of works in the Xosa tongue. He had a responsible part in the work of preparing the new revised edition of the Xosa Bible, now in the press; he was General Editor of the new Xosa Prayer and Hymn Book, and numerous other useful publications have come from his pen.

We have appointed the Revs. G. H. P. Jacques, M.B.E., and Robert Matterson, with Messrs. Duncan Taylor, George Tune, and R. Ralph Wells, to represent us at the next Conference to be held at York. May the Divine blessing continue to rest on you and upon all your labours.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

ALFRED A. STILE, Secretary.

EAST LONDON,
April 1926.

THE REPLY OF THE BRITISH WESLEYAN METHODIST CONFERENCE TO THE ADDRESS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN WESLEYAN METHODIST CONFERENCE.

BELOVED AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

The address of your Conference held in East London was presented to our Annual Conference, which met in the ancient city of York, and was received with much pleasure and deep affection.

Your able and distinguished representatives, the Revs. G. H. P. Jacques, M.B.E., and Robert Matterson, with Messrs. Duncan Taylor, George Tune, and J. Bisseker, received an enthusiastic and affectionate welcome and two of your brethren addressed the Conference.

We thank God for your work of faith and labour of love, and the long-continued and wonderful success of the work of God in your great country. We note with thankfulness that you report an increase in Church membership of 2,466 full members and of 2,125 on trial for membership. That is something that must fill your hearts with great gratitude to God. You and your fellow Methodists form the largest Christian Church in South Africa. "What hath God wrought." The faith, courage, and devotion of the early pioneers of the missionary movement in your country have been wonderfully owned and blessed by God.

We heard with admiration of your missionary efforts in Central Africa. God is undoubtedly calling you to take the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ to your brothers and sisters who still sit in darkness and wait for the coming of the light. Christ has done much for you, and like the great apostle Paul, you are recognising your debt to the people of your great continent who know not Christ.

Your representatives told us of the 1,500 native Christians, the 66 churches, and the 20 schools with 3,000 children now under your care.

The Conference heard with deepest sympathy of some of the tremendous difficulties in your work. Difficulties there are sure to be that we in England know little about. Your large native Church; the heathen population growing more rapidly than the Christian community; the clash of colour and racial prejudice, must make your work difficult, but may we remind you and ourselves that the secret of happy, joyful Christian service is not in measuring ourselves against our difficulties, but in measuring our difficulties against our God. The God Who has led you so far, and done so much for you and through you, will not forsake you now. The past is but a prophecy of what He will do for you in the future, and we believe that there are still greater things in store for the Methodist Church in South Africa.

The Conference received with pleasure the resolutions of the South African Conference, together with a report of the suggested clauses of an Enabling Bill to be brought before the South African Legislature, with a view to securing the complete independence of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa. The Yearly Conference had no hesitation in giving the necessary approval, and it renews its warm wishes for the highest welfare of its brethren and kinsfolk across the seas.

We mourn with you the loss of so many beloved and faithful brethren, both European and Native, but we rejoice that they have served their Lord, the Church, and the Kingdom of Heaven so devotedly. They have their reward and their works do follow them.

It has been a source of great joy to us to know that you have appreciated and profited by the presence and ministry of such loved and honoured Ex-Presidents of the Mother Conference as the Rev. Dr. Ferrier Hulme, M.A., and the Rev. Amos Burnet. These brethren returned to us full of gratitude to God for all they saw and felt of the grace of God while in your midst.

We commend to your prayerful interest and hearty co-operation the impending visit of the Rev. Norman G. Dunning, M.A., one of our youngest and ablest evangelists. We pray that his visit to your country may be fraught with great and wonderful blessing.

Our own Conference has been marked by the presence of God. The Rev. Dr. Russell Maltby is a leader whom we are all glad to follow. His address to the Pastoral Session will not soon be forgotten. He called us back to some of the simple things of our faith and the Conference was greatly moved.

We, too, report a large increase in membership. The work of our Home and Foreign Missions, Temperance and Social Welfare, have all received due consideration. The Conference has given much time and thought to the question of Methodist Union and a decisive vote was taken. May we ask you to remember us in your prayers, that in the further consideration of this momentous matter we may be guided by the spirit of God ?

Some of our most honoured brethren in the Ministry are retiring from active work this year. The Rev. Marshall Hartley after fifty-eight years of an almost unique ministry, many of which were spent as one of the secretaries of the W.M.M.S., retires from active service. Mr. Hartley is greatly loved and honoured by his brethren.

The Conference heartily confirms the nomination of the Rev. Theo. R. Curnick, S.T.B., as your President for 1927. We pray that he may be sustained by the grace of God during his year of office and that under his presidency the work of God may still greatly prosper and the Kingdom of God come with power.

Signed on behalf of the Conference,

THOMAS KIRKUP, Secretary.

YORK,
July 27, 1926.

P.S.—During the Sessions of our Conference we noted with some concern that the visit of the Rev. Amos Burnet had not wrought the improvement in his health that we anticipated, and you will have since received the mournful intelligence that on August 1 our friend and brother passed to the Homeland. Methodism had no nobler son and South Africa no truer friend. While we deeply mourn his loss, we give thanks to God for a life so rich in fruitful service for the Kingdom of Christ both at home and abroad.

APPENDIX I.

LAY WORKERS' COLLEGE.

The year has been one of abounding mercy and grace. The health of the College has been good, the spiritual tone has been high, and the Evangelistic passion has been well maintained. There have been eighty-three students in residence during the year, making a total number since 1904 of 1,391. The Providence of God is specially manifest in the way He provides the College with both students and funds. The work was begun by Thomas Champness as an adventure of Faith. A formal covenant was made in which God undertook to see to supplies, and His servant pledged himself to put into it all he had of personality and possessions, so long as God gave the money and the men. That covenant was faithfully kept, and it is good to be able to place on record after more than forty years that God has never failed us in any single detail. We ask no man to come. We refuse no man He sends. We have no fees and no financial terms. We have always a waiting list of men, and we have always money to pay our accounts. We never go into debt. We owe no man anything but love and service. The Committee gratefully acknowledges the generous help of the Home Mission Committee. The College is a Branch of its Home Mission work, and from the time the Committee took it over it has been responsible for the ministerial members of the Staff of the College.

The Staff is as wonderfully supplied as the money and men. For twenty years Mr. C. E. O. Rush, B.A., rendered unique service, as the director of studies and the inspiring guide of men of warm hearts but untutored minds. After twenty years God called him to the Mission Field. It seemed hopeless to look for a successor. One day Mr. D. W. Lambert, M.A., of Cambridge and a Master in a Grammar School, came and offered himself for the work unconditioned and without reserve. His service to the College is beyond price. In the same way others have come, such as Norman G. Dunning, M.A., LL.B., and Noel Palmer, M.A., a giant 6 feet 8 inches of massive mind and saintly spirit. These are now in other spheres of evangelistic work, one under the direction of the Home Mission Committee and the other in the United States of America. Mr. W. Cameron Young has been on the Staff for two years, and has rendered good service both in tuition and evangelistic organisation. The Rev. W. Fiddian Moulton, M.A., has passed through great sorrow in the passing of Mrs. Moulton, and his loss is ours also, for she took a deep interest in the students and regularly gave private tuition to a selected number. Those who criticise the College as emotional without a corresponding balance of regard for intellect speak without knowledge.

The College stands broad based and four-square on the Methodist doctrine of Entire Sanctification, and its one business is to train evangelists. There has been a mighty work of the Spirit during the year, and those who had never so much as heard of Entire Sanctification have entered gloriously into the experience. Our evangelists have had a year of abundant harvest. The special feature of the year has been the trek of "Methodist Friars." The team missions began at Cliff, and now the "Trekkers" lead a campaign of evangelism to those outside the Churches. They have a trekking outfit, and go without money and no set programme. They evangelise as they go. They make no collections, ask for no accommodation, seek no patronage. They sleep under canvas, prepare their own food, give their own testimony. They were on trek six weeks, covered 400 miles, held services as often as three or four times a day. They never lacked a meal, never had a day's sickness, and all their needs were wonderfully supplied. As shoes and stockings wore out supplies were always at hand. At the end of the Campaign the trek account balanced to a penny. The text that got for them a new meaning was "Your Father knoweth what things ye have need of before ye ask Him." Everywhere the people were eager to hear, and all sorts of people received the Good News of Full Salvation. We are out to save souls for whom no one seems to care very much, and it is laid upon our hearts that the Lord of the Harvest is arranging to send us a hundred such Methodist Friars. We are ready for whatever He wants. Everybody in the College exults in every call to adventure in the salvation of those for whom Christ died.

APPENDIX II.

GENERAL SUSTENTATION FUND.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE.

THE General Sustentation Fund continues to render essential and valued service throughout the Connexion. With a loyalty and liberality worthy of her best traditions, Methodism in six years has raised and distributed through this Fund over £100,000 for the benefit of the weaker Circuits. What this has meant in comfort and encouragement, in quietness of mind and spiritual efficiency, it is impossible to estimate.

1. A Review of the Year.—Once more the Committee is able to review the work of the year with great satisfaction. All the aims of the Conference have been realised and, so far as has been ascertained, no Minister or Probationer has received less than the Minimum Allowances, either for Stipend or Children's Maintenance. Even more gratifying than the realisation of the aims of the Conference by the Committee is the resolute effort of Circuits to maintain the present scale of Allowances from their own resources. It is significant that Grants to realise the minimum stipend grow steadily less in number and amount, a proof that Circuits hitherto dependent upon the Fund are no longer in that category. With "proper pride," some now rejoice in self-support, while others are, at least, doing more for themselves. Here and there are exceptions—Circuits which regard the Fund as a crutch and are content to lean upon it—but the number is few and is gradually being eliminated.

The total income of the Fund, including a balance of £731 8*s.* brought forward from the previous year, has been £13,356 15*s.* 10*d.* and the total expenditure £13,258 7*s.*, leaving a credit balance in the hands of the Treasurer of £98 8*s.* 10*d.* To this must be added the sum of £1,500 on deposit to meet future liabilities. It will be observed that the actual income of the year has fallen short of the expenditure by over £600 and the credit balance has practically disappeared. This loss was anticipated on account of the final payment a year ago of the subscriptions promised for a limited period at the inception of the Fund. But there is no cause for fear. Notwithstanding the depressed industrial and commercial condition of the country, the Annual Collections in November last realised £11,228 8*s.* 9*d.*—a truly noble contribution from the rank and file of Methodism. By careful administration the expenditure of the year has been considerably reduced, and possibly next year will bring substantial economies in respect of working expenses.

In all, 206 Circuits representing 393 Ministers have benefited during the year. Of the Circuits 118 have received Grants for Stipend only (44 of these in the Welsh Districts), 54 for Stipend and Children's Maintenance and 34 for Children only.

2. Minimum Allowances for 1926-7.—The present Minimum was recommended by the Conference of 1923 and has remained unchanged in the interval. The Committee does not feel that there is any sufficient ground for an alteration, and therefore suggests that the existing scale of Minimum payment be maintained for the next Connexional year.

3. The Future of the Fund.—As a mandate of the Conference which authorised the continuance of the Fund until 1927 expires twelve months hence, the Committee has explored the whole situation both in respect of the probable need for the Fund beyond that date and the ways and means necessary for its support. While recognising that at its inception the Fund was regarded as "temporary," the hope that the cost of living would revert in a few years to something approaching pre-war standards has not been fulfilled. In the judgment of the Committee there is no probability of that hope being fulfilled in the near future. The continued need for the Fund is therefore undoubted. Notwithstanding all that has been accomplished by Circuits in the direction of increased Allowances, there are still 191 Ministers and 58 Probationers in the English Districts requiring nearly £8,000 a year from the Fund in order to realise Minimum Stipends. In addition, there are the Ministers of the Welsh Districts whose need is often pathetic in its urgency. Moreover, there is the group of young Married Ministers who through shortage of houses are left in Probationers' appointments with a single man's Allowance supplemented by the Home Mission Grant in lieu of house. To close down the Fund in 1927 would create embarrassment in many Circuits, cast a shadow upon many homes, and lead inevitably to the withdrawal of Ministers from needy areas.

In view of these facts, and of the inability of the weaker Circuits to provide Allowances which both need and equity demand, the Committee feels it imperative that the Sustentation Fund should be recognised as an essential part of our Methodist economy. It therefore recommends the Conference to sanction the continuance of the Fund beyond 1927 and to direct that Collections shall be made annually as heretofore on its behalf, together with such an appeal for Subscriptions as may be necessary.

APPENDIX III.

SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE.

RESOLUTIONS WITH A VIEW TO INDEPENDENCE.

The Plan and Constitution of the South African Conference was approved and adopted by the Yearly Conference in 1882. The part of it which relates to pastoral and ecclesiastical affairs was submitted to the Conference when composed of Ministers only, and that part of it which relates to financial affairs to the Conference in its Representative Session. Subsequently the whole was approved and adopted by the Legal Conference. Owing to special circumstances in 1916, the Plan and Constitution was the subject of consultation between Representatives of South Africa and a Special Committee appointed by the Yearly Conference. The power of free and independent action was then suggested but was declined.

At the last South African Conference held in East London in April 1926, the following Resolutions, embodying independence, were passed, and are now submitted to the Yearly Conference for its approval. Printed along with these Resolutions are the suggested clauses of an Enabling Bill to be brought before the South African Legislature with a view to securing the position legally.

I. Resolutions.

This South African Conference of the people called Methodists, gratefully acknowledging the cordiality of the relations which have for some four and forty years existed between itself and the Yearly Conference in Great Britain from which it derived its being and to whose wise guidance, assistance, and sympathy it owes so much, records its view, after anxious and careful consideration, that the time has arrived when it should become an independent and autonomous body in control of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa consisting of the People called Methodists within the area of its jurisdiction, having the same doctrines and objects as the said Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists in Great Britain.

And it therefore records its view that its Plan and Constitution first resolved upon by the said Yearly Conference in the year 1882, as amended from time to time thereafter, should be modified, so that the delegation of powers and privileges therein contained should be made irrevocable, the legislation and alteration of the said constitution therein referred to should no longer be subject to the approval of the Yearly Conference, and the control over and supervision of its affairs therein reserved to the Yearly Conference and the affiliation therein set out should cease.

In addition, it records that in order to attain the objects aforesaid it will be necessary for it to seek power from the Parliament of the Union of South Africa vesting the various properties within its jurisdiction presently held in trust for the People called Methodists in Trustees for such of its purposes as it may from time to time appoint and declaring the trusts relating thereto, and such other powers as may be necessary to achieve the objects aforesaid.

Now therefore the said South African Conference resolves as follows:

1. That any delegation by the said Yearly Conference of its powers contained in the Plan and Constitution of the South African Conference as originally resolved upon in the year 1882, and in any amendment thereof should be henceforth declared to be irrevocable by the said Yearly Conference.

2. That the provisoes contained in Clauses 5 and 14 of the said Plan and Constitution whereby the legislation and alterations therein referred to should only come into operation when the said Yearly Conference should have approved the same should be deleted.

3. That the provision contained in Clause 7 of the said Plan and Constitution whereby the appointment of the President of the next South African Conference from time to time should rest with the said Yearly Conference and the references consequent thereupon in Clauses 9, 10, and 13, should be deleted.

4. That the references to affiliation in Clauses 1, 7, and 16 of the said Plan and Constitution should be deleted.

This Conference further records that if the said Yearly Conference should approve the said resolutions, it may at the same time place upon record that its power in that regard is limited by the provisions of Section 7 of the Methodist Conference Act, 1876, with the existence of which limitation this South African Conference is familiar and which in so far as relevant it hereby accepts.

This Conference further resolves that in the event of the said Yearly Conference approving the foregoing resolutions and being favourably disposed to its desires and being agreeable to do such things as are in its power and to express its concurrence in such other steps as are necessary to effect the said objects, subject to the limitations imposed by Section 7 of the Methodist Conference Act, 1876, so far as relevant and to such safeguards as are necessary to ensure the maintenance by this Conference and the organisation it controls of the doctrines and the general rules and usages of the People called Methodists.

Then, recording its concurrence in the view that it and the organisation it controls must provide for such maintenance aforesaid, this Conference resolves:

(a) That it shall become an independent and autonomous body in control of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa consisting of the People called Methodists within its area of jurisdiction which is as follows: Geographically the Provinces of the Cape of Good Hope, Natal and the Orange Free State, comprising ecclesiastically the districts of the Cape of Good Hope, Grahamstown, Queenstown, Clarkebury, Kimberley and Bloemfontein, and Natal, having the same doctrines and objects as the Yearly Conference of Great Britain and the People called Methodists in Great Britain, and that its constitution shall be the Plan and Constitution as aforesaid as amended heretofore and as amended by the Yearly Conference upon the lines of the foregoing resolutions.

(b) That it shall seek power from the Parliament of the Union of South Africa vesting the various properties within its jurisdiction presently held in trust for the People called Methodists in Trustees for such of its purposes as it may from time to time appoint and declaring the trusts relating thereto and such other powers as may be necessary to achieve the objects aforesaid.

(c) That in seeking such powers provision shall be made for safeguarding the maintenance by this Conference and the organisation it controls of the doctrines and the general rules and usages of the People called Methodists.

(d) That subject to the foregoing the Draft Bill submitted to this Conference, copy whereof is appended as Schedule A hereto be approved as the basis of the legislative powers to be sought as aforesaid. And a Committee of the following: The President, the Ex-President, and Secretary of the Conference, the Chairmen of the Districts, the General Treasurers of the Sustentation and Mission Fund, the Revs. C. Pettman, H. Cotton, J. Metcalf, A. Eben Griffin, L. S. H. Wilkinson, A. C. File, and S. Msimang; Messrs. J. A. Polkinghorne, J.P., W. V. Dyer, W. G. Lowe, W. B. Roberts and W. Ndhlovu; the Rev. Henry Cotton is the Convener, is empowered to communicate with the said Yearly Conference in regard thereto with power to make such amendments not in conflict with these resolutions as the said Yearly Conference may require and the said Committee may agree upon, and thereafter to proceed with such steps as may be necessary to achieve the objects set out in the foregoing resolutions.

II. Clauses of Enabling Bill.

Schedule "A."

An Act to provide for the independence of the South African Conference of the People called Methodists, to declare and define its powers, to vest certain property in Trustees for the benefit of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa for certain uses and purposes, to make other provision in regard to the said Conference and property, and to make provision for the maintenance by the said Conference of the doctrines and religious usages of the People called Methodists.

Whereas the Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists in Great Britain was constituted by Deed Poll of the Reverend John Wesley dated the 28th day of February, 1784, and is the governing authority for Great Britain and elsewhere of the Religious Organisation known as the Society of People called Methodists, the Wesleyan Methodist Church, or other like title.

And whereas in virtue of the powers conferred by the said Deed Poll as amplified by the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament known as the Methodist Conference Act, 1876, the said Yearly Conference (hereinafter referred to as the Yearly Conference) in the year 1882 by resolution constituted a South African Conference of the People called Methodists (hereinafter referred to as the South African Conference) and defined its jurisdiction powers and functions and delegated to or conferred upon it certain powers and privileges, providing however that the South African Conference should be affiliated to it, and should in certain respects be under its control, and that the said constitution might be altered from time to time by the South African Conference with its concurrence.

And whereas in consequence thereof the South African Conference now has jurisdiction over all the Wesleyan Methodist Ministers, Preachers on trial, Churches and Missions in South Africa in the Province of the Cape of Good Hope, Natal and Orange Free State and is within those districts the governing authority of the said Religious Organisation which is therein commonly called the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa.

And whereas there is a considerable quantity of movable and immovable property in the said Provinces held under various forms of Trusts but all substantially for the use and benefit of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa which is administered, controlled or dealt with by the South African Conference or by representatives or officials under its control and direction, but the said South African Conference acts in the premises as a delegate of and as affiliated to the Yearly Conference and under its supervision and control.

And whereas the South African Conference desires that the delegation aforesaid should be made irrevocable, that the control and affiliation aforesaid should cease and that the power to alter the said constitution should be vested in it, and that it should become an independent and autonomous body in control of the foregoing property and of a religious organisation to be called the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa consisting of the People called Methodists within the area of its jurisdiction, having the same doctrines and objects as the People called Methodists in Great Britain, and has resolved accordingly.

And whereas the Yearly Conference is favourably disposed towards the desires of the South African Conference and has by resolutions made irrevocable the said delegations, as empowered by the said Methodist Conference Act, 1876, agreed to waive the affiliation and control aforesaid and further agreed that the said constitution may henceforth be altered by the South African Conference.

And whereas the Yearly Conference has by resolution also agreed to the South African Conference becoming an independent and autonomous body as aforesaid.

And whereas the Yearly Conference has passed the foregoing resolutions subject to the limitations imposed upon its powers in that behalf by its constitution and by Section 7 of the said Methodist Conference Act, 1876, and to such safeguards as are necessary to ensure the maintenance by the South African Conference of the doctrines and general rules and usages of the People called Methodists.

And whereas the said South African Conference having as its paramount object the maintenance of the doctrines and religious usages of the People called Methodists is agreeable to the necessary safeguards in that behalf being imposed.

And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether the desires of the South African Conference, concurred in by the Yearly Conference can be duly and properly realised and given effect to without legislative sanction in that behalf being obtained from the Parliament of the Union of South Africa.

And whereas both the Yearly Conference and the South African Conference are agreeable that such legislative sanction should be obtained.

And whereas it is expedient that such legislative sanction should be obtained ensuring the independence aforesaid, defining the powers of the South African Conference, vesting the Trust Property aforesaid in Trustees for the benefit of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa, for such of its uses and purposes as the South African Conference may from time to time appoint, making other provisions in regard to the said property and Conference, and further making provision for the maintenance by the South African Conference of the doctrines and religious usages of the People called Methodists.

And whereas the Yearly Conference has at present jurisdiction and control in the Transvaal Province over the affairs therein of the Society of People called Methodists or the Wesleyan Methodist Church and there is therein certain property movable and immovable held substantially for the benefit of the said Society or Church and the said affairs and property are controlled, administered and directed by means of a Committee of the said Yearly Conference known as the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society.

Now therefore be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty the Senate and the House of Assembly of the Union of South Africa, as follows:

1. The South African Conference of the People called Methodists constituted by the Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists of Great Britain in the year 1882, and known as the Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa, is hereby declared to be an independent body and the governing authority in and for the Provinces of the Cape of Good Hope, Natal and Orange Free State of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa (consisting of the People called Methodists from time to time within the said area), with full jurisdiction over all the Wesleyan Methodist Ministers, Preachers on Trial, Churches and Missions within the said area.

2. Subject to the provisions of this Act the said Conference shall have power to alter its constitution, to make rules and regulations for the good government of the said Church and for the due and proper exercise of its jurisdiction aforesaid and to do all such acts, matters and things as are expedient and necessary for the maintenance, advancement and benefit of the said Church and its objects, and the Constitution, Rules, Procedure and Organisation of the said Conference and the said Church shall except where in conflict with the provisions of this Act, remain of force and effect until altered in pursuance of the powers hereinbefore conferred to the extent which they are from time to time unaffected by such alteration.

3. The whole of the movable and immovable property presently administered, controlled and dealt with by or under the control or direction of the said Conference for the use and benefit of the said Church all as more fully described in the Schedule to this Act, marked A, shall upon the passing of this Act vest in the President of the said Conference from time to time for the benefit of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa in trust for such of its uses and purposes as the said Conference may from time to time appoint, and in trust to exercise such acts of full ownership of any kind thereover, and to allow the same to be managed and administered by such representatives or officials of the said Church, lay or otherwise, as the said Conference may from time to time by resolution prescribe.

4. The whole of the movable and immovable property presently administered, controlled and dealt with as aforesaid, which is subject to special trusts, all as more fully described in the Schedule to this Act, marked B, shall vest as in the foregoing Section provided but subject to the special trusts and conditions contained in the title deeds thereof.

5. The Registrars of Deeds of the various Provinces of the Union shall upon production to them of the Title Deeds of the immovable properties hereinbefore referred to, by any person deputed thereto by the said President, endorse the same to the effect that the immovable property therein referred to is vested in accordance with the section of this Act relating thereto.

6. Nothing in this Act contained shall affect any person who is entitled to a vested or accruing right to any pension gratuity or like payment or advantage from any fund not administered or controlled by the South African Conference at the date of the passing of thisAct.

7. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore in this Act contained, the South African Conference as the governing authority within its area of jurisdiction of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of South Africa shall not at any time be entitled to do, perform, suffer or permit any act, matter or thing which is repugnant to the doctrines and religious usages of the People called Methodists.

8. If the Yearly Conference and South African Conference aforesaid should both hereafter by resolution decide that the area of jurisdiction of the South African Conference should be extended so as to include the Transvaal Province, and other parts adjacent thereto, over which the Yearly Conference now exercises jurisdiction by one of its committees known as the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society, then all the provisions of this Act shall from the 1st day of January next succeeding the later of such resolutions apply to such Province as if it were specifically mentioned in this Act, and the South African Conference shall accordingly have the same jurisdiction, powers and authorities and be subject to the same limitations therein as it has or is hereby subjected to in the remaining Provinces of the Union by virtue of this Act and the movable and immovable property in the Transvaal Province then held substantially for the benefit of the Society of People called Methodists or the Wesleyan Methodist Church shall come under the operation of this Act, but the two said Conferences shall for greater certainty file with the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly a joint document under the hand of their respective Presidents and notarially certified setting out the immovable property in the Transvaal Province brought under the operation of this Act, specifying the section thereof which shall apply thereto and any special conditions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, upon which the two said Conferences may by resolution decide as those upon which the said extension should take place shall be valid and binding in respect of the persons and property thereby affected.

APPENDIX IV.

THE OPINION OF COUNSEL ON THE STATUS OF RETIRING TRUSTEES.

DURING the year the Chapel Committee has found it necessary to take Counsel's Opinion as to whether, under the Chapel Model Deed, retiring trustees should be summoned to the meeting for the Renewal of the Trust and as to whether they have any vote in connection with such renewal. The following is Counsel's Opinion:

1. A trustee who has signed a declaration in the Form B that he desires to be discharged from the trusts and refuses longer to act in the trusts, has, in my opinion, on the true construction of clause 44 of the Model Deed, ceased to be a person capable of acting as a trustee. This appears to me to follow from the fact that his refusal to act is treated by the Deed as, ipso facto, reducing the number of Trustees. If I am right so far it follows that he is not one of the Trustees for the time being who are to meet with the Superintendent Preacher for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the rest of the clause. It consequently follows, and it is my opinion, that it is not necessary to summon a trustee who has signed a declaration in the Form B to the meeting of Trustees called to exercise the powers of clause 44.

2. If a trustee who has signed a declaration in the Form B in fact attends a meeting of Trustees called to exercise the powers of clause 44, he has no voice in the question whether the Superintendent Preacher is to be permitted to nominate a less number than twice the number of vacancies. That question is left by clause 44 to the old continuing Trustees, i.e. to such of the Trustees as are living, are not incapable, and have not refused to act.

3. In my opinion, on the construction of clause 44, a Trustee who has signed a declaration refusing to act has no vote at the meeting. It may, however, be contended that section 36 (8) of the Trustee Act, 1925, must be read into the model deed and gives him a vote even where the appointment can be and is being carried out without the aid of the Statute. This contention seems to me to be erroneous. In re Coates to Parsons, 34 C.D. 370, the appointment could not be made under the Deed and had to be made under the Act because the vacancy was occasioned by absence abroad, a case to which the model deed clauses do not apply. Reading the Deed and Section 3 of the Trustees Appointment Act, 1890, and Section 36 (8) of the Act of 1925 together, I can see no reason to doubt that Section 36 (8) applies only if the Trustees are acting under the statutory power, and does not alter the provisions of the Deed so as to prevent the Trustees acting under the Deed, where the Deed suffices, without regard to Section 36 (8).

4, 5. As I read clause 44 the Trustees are not entitled to authorise the Superintendent, in advance of any nomination by him, to nominate a restricted number only; where such an authority authorises him in advance to nominate only a number equal to the number of vacancies, that in effect would make him the elector. As I read the Deed the Superintendent should, at the meeting, nominate. At any moment after he has nominated sufficient candidates to fill the vacancies the Trustees present may express themselves satisfied with the number so nominated. The Trustees present will then, if the number nominated exceeds the vacancies, choose the new Trustees by vote; if the number nominated does not exceed the number of the vacancies, the persons nominated will thereupon be elected, the continuing Trustees having, by their action, already intimated their approval of having their choice limited to the number so nominated.

In my view an authority to the Superintendent, signed in advance of any nomination by him, to nominate a restricted number is invalid. Accordingly, if this limited number having been nominated a nominee is rejected, the Superintendent must go on nominating (but not so as to nominate more than twice the number of vacancies) until the Trustees present have elected the proper number.

I may add that although the existing procedure of getting Form C signed before the Superintendent Preacher has nominated seems to me to be irregular, it is obviously convenient, and it may as well be retained, but at the meeting, after the Superintendent Preacher has made his nomination, he ought, if the Trustees present, after hearing his nomination, so require, to proceed to make further nominations; such a case is not likely, I imagine, to occur often or at all in practice. All practical difficulty would, I think, disappear if the names intended to be nominated by the Superintendent Preacher are submitted to the Trustees when they are asked to sign Form C.

6. I can find no difference, in regard to the position of a refusing trustee, between clause 44 and clause 45.

7. In the case submitted the voting Trustees appear to have ultimately consented to 19 only being nominated, and 18 appear to have in fact been elected by or with the acquiescence of a majority of the continuing Trustees, after the majority had acquiesced in treating the attempted election of the original 18 as invalid. In my opinion no objection to the validity of the election would now succeed.

8. The matter should be allowed to rest as it is.

9. If no objection is effectively raised within six months, section 7 of the Act of 1890 will operate to validate the appointment for all purposes, assuming (as seems to be the case) that the proper memorandum has been duly made and executed as required by the section.

APPENDIX V.

MINISTERS' CHILDREN'S FUND.

PROPOSED ENLARGEMENT OF ACCOMMODATION FOR THE EDUCATION OF MINISTERS' DAUGHTERS.

Report of Committee.

The Conference of 1925 remitted this question for further consideration to the Committee and for report to the next Conference, and also to consult with the Education Committee as to the possibility of combining the above scheme with the suggested Secondary School for Girls in Yorkshire.

In accordance with these directions the Committee reports:

(1) That after consultation with representatives of the Education Committee the unanimous conclusion was reached that a School under the joint management of the two Committees would involve considerable administrative difficulties and could not therefore be recommended to Conference.

(2) In view of the widespread opinion evoked during the discussion of last year's proposals (that the removal of the School from Southport was undesirable) the Committee has, this year, limited the scope of its investigations to the question of enlargement on, or near, the present site of the School.

(3) That the disability of Trinity Hall in the matter of playing fields has been overcome through the granting by the Southport Corporation of increased facilities. This is considered satisfactory by the Committee.

(4) That better and more conveniently situated sanatorium accommodation is still being considered, but at present the Committee has no scheme to recommend.

(5) Recently the Committee's attention was privately drawn to the fact that "Wintersthorpe School" in Birkdale was likely to be presently in the market and that it might be a suitable adjunct to Trinity Hall. Careful inquiries were made and the School was viewed by several of the Administrative Governors.

"Wintersthorpe," a Church of England School, was formerly known as "Wintersdorf" and was founded and built about forty years ago by the Misses Simon as a Wesleyan School. It stands in a fine situation at a distance of five minutes' walk from Birkdale Station and fifteen minutes' walk from Trinity Hall and Trinity Wesleyan Church. There is ample accommodation in dormitories and class-rooms for eighty girls. The gymnasium, chemical laboratory and art-room are exceedingly good and in all other respects the accommodation is adequate. There are two tennis courts at present and sufficient space for two more. The School stands on a site having an area of two and a half acres, leasehold with forty-six years to run at a Ground Rent of £25 a year. The lease can be extended to nine hundred and ninety-nine years for £350 at the same Ground Rent. An option upon this property was obtained at £5,000 with £1,500 additional for the furniture which is modern and in good condition. It was considered that £1,000 would need to be spent upon renovations and alterations.

(6) After careful consideration the Committee came unanimously to the conclusion that the purchasing of this School as a junior school to Trinity Hall would solve the question of increased accommodation for the education of Ministers' daughters most economically and satisfactorily. Provision would thereby be made for the education of 145 girls of whom at least 20 should be the daughters of laymen, and both schools would be under the control of one headmistress.

(7) In view of the fact that the option upon the property could not be extended beyond the 15th of June last, and feeling confident that Conference would approve such action, the Committee decided unanimously to purchase "Wintersthorpe" and to accept the offer of an extension of the lease to 999 years and also to purchase the furniture of the School.

(8) Conference is therefore asked to adopt the report and ratify the action of the Committee which further suggests that the name "Wintersdorf" be reverted to thus reviving the Wesleyan Methodist traditions of the School.

APPENDIX VI.

REVISION OF THE "LIVERPOOL MINUTES."

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

1. The Committee has considered the Recommendations of its interim reports of 1924 and 1925, and now asks the Conference to adopt them in the following form:

(1) The Conference desires to emphasise the great importance of the Conversation on the Work of God in the Pastoral Session of the Synod. The Synod provides a most valuable opportunity to the united Pastorate of the District for consultation on those matters which concern the spiritual efficiency of our Church and the progress of the Kingdom of God. This opportunity should be fully used, even if it means the devoting of a second day for the Pastoral Session, in order to secure unhampered attention to our supreme business.

(2) The Chairman of the District may introduce the Conversation on the Work of God by an appropriate Address instead of the reading of either the Liverpool Minutes or of the alternative Service.

2. After several attempts have been made to revise the Liverpool Minutes, the Committee has come to the conclusion that this historic Document (dealing with the details of our Pastoral duties and reminding us of the spirit in which our Fathers gave themselves to their great work) should be retained in its present Abbreviated Form in our Summary of Law and Discipline, and that it still should be read in the Circuit Ministers' Meetings in September.

3. The Committee strongly recommends the Conference to adopt the following Responsive Service of Praise and Prayer as a fitting introduction to the Conversation on the Work of God, it being understood that according to Recommendation 1 (2) above, its use be made optional.

Alternative Service.

This Service is recommended by the Conference as an Introduction to the Conversation on the Work of God. The Liverpool Minutes, written at a time of great spiritual stress and hallowed by long custom, are unique. No present-day service can be exactly what they are. But in the following service a different approach to that Conversation is sought. It is designed in the belief that we ought to begin by Prayer for the grace of listening, and then to contemplate the Love and Glory of God, that this may move us to sincere penitence. Then should naturally follow Prayer for ourselves, and in a widening circle for others; and the Service should close, as it begins, with God, in an Act of Adoration.

¶ After the Hymn 751 has been sung, the Chairman shall say:

BRETHREN, we are met in solemn assembly that we may confer with one another concerning the Work of God among us. To this end we are called, both as a body and as individuals, to renew our fellowship with our living Lord. We are bound to Him by many vows, and especially by those which we publicly took upon ourselves at Ordination: but still more by the inexhaustible love and grace of Him from Whom we all derive our vocation and our power for service. Fellowship with the Lord Jesus Christ, daily renewed, is the condition of effective service to our fellows. Let us therefore turn now to Him, opening our hearts in frank and humble love. And because it is hard for us always to be mindful of His perpetual presence, let us for a short time keep silence together, and pray that His Holy Spirit may quiet within us voices of the world, and enable us to hear His Voice.

¶ Then shall follow Silence; after which the Chairman shall lead the following Meditation. It is suggested that the reading be slow, with a pause after each sentence.

And now let us lay aside every burden of responsibility or trouble or grief, and stir up our minds to remembrance of our God, that we may stay ourselves upon Him.

Let us meditate upon GOD THE FATHER.

He is God over all, blessed for evermore.

He is Light, and in Him is no darkness at all.

He so loved the world that He gave His only-begotten Son.

He is our Father.

He is Love.

Let us meditate upon GOD THE SON.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was God.

He counted it not a prize to be on an equality with God but emptied Himself—being made in the likeness of men.

He is touched with the feeling of our infirmities: tempted in all points like as we are, yet without sin.

The light of the knowledge of the glory of God is in the face of Jesus Christ.

The Good Shepherd layeth down His life for the sheep.

I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it to the full,

Let us meditate upon GOD THE HOLY SPIRIT.

Who is the Lord and Giver of Life.

Who takes of the things of Christ and brings them to our remembrance.

Who dwells in us, striving till He cast out sin.

Who bears witness with our spirits that we are children of God.

Who makes intercession for us with groanings that cannot be uttered.

¶ Then shall the Chairman say:

Brethren, we have remembered the glory and the love of God. But we have not been faithful servants nor loving children. Let us confess to God our failures and sins and pray for His foregiveness.

¶ To be said by all kneeling:

O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto Thee: Forgive us, we beseech Thee.

If we have darkened the light that was in us, taken the easy path, chosen our own way and will; if we have been content with unworthy motives; if we have wasted ourselves upon the fashion of this world; if we have loved the praise of men: Forgive us, we beseech Thee.

If we have failed in courage, in purity, in sincerity, in unselfishness, in humility, in devotion, in love; if we have not loved and served Thee according to the vision of our youthful days: Forgive us we beseech Thee.

Hear us as we pray for penitent and obedient hearts. May Thy Spirit convince us of those sins which we have never cared to acknowledge even to ourselves; and may He bring home to us the assurance of Thy renewed forgiveness and eternal love; for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

¶ Here shall follow a space of Silence for Confession and Prayer for God's Forgiveness.

Then shall the Chairman say:

And now, in full assurance of hope, let us pray for those things that are within God's gift for us, Who is always more ready to hear than we are to pray.

O God our Father, hear us as we pray that Thou wilt cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of Thy Holy Spirit;

Grant this, O Lord.

That there may be nothing to prevent His working in us and through us;

Grant this, O Lord.

That it may be given to us, as our souls can bear, to see ourselves as Thou seest us; and that we may be delivered from insincerity, self-deception and pretence;

Grant this, O Lord.

That we may so know Thee as to carry the peace of God in our hearts and among our fellows;

Hear us, Lord Jesus.

That we may have courage to do and to speak the truth, and at all times to be loyal to the uttermost;

Hear us, Lord Jesus.

That we may be men of humble heart, willing to learn of others, and to be the servants of all;

Hear us, Lord Jesus,

That we may be given victory over temptation to impurity in thought, word or deed;

Hear us, Lord Jesus.

That we may be unselfish in our home life, among our people, and towards our brethren of the Ministry;

Hear us, Lord Jesus.

That we may be so filled with the Holy Spirit as to put Thy Kingdom first in all our ways, and continually to renew the sense of our call;

Hear us, Lord Jesus.

That we may above all be given the Spirit of love to be our Guide, and to direct and rule our hearts; so that by our love to Thee and to our fellows, men may see Thee in us;

Hear us, Lord Jesus.

That we may daily walk with God;

Holy Spirit, hear us.

That we may handle aright the Word of truth;

Holy Spirit, hear us.

That we may be given understanding of our people, and they of us: that we may so love and be loved by them as to be their friends, and sharers in their joys and sorrows;

Holy Spirit, hear us.

That we may equip ourselves to the uttermost for the work of ministering, and yet so truly depend upon Thee as to be channels of Thy Grace to men;

Holy Spirit, hear us.

That we may be enabled by many ways to lead people to Christ and into a personal experience of His love and power;

Holy Spirit, hear us.

That we may be saved from formalism, inefficiency and dulness of heart, and by Thine indwelling made sufficient for our high calling and for the needs and problems of our time;

Holy Spirit, hear us.

¶ After silence, the members of the Synod shall turn their thoughts to the needs of our people, the world-wide Church, and them that are without. The Chairman may name such causes as in his judgment should be prayed for, and may ask for brief extempore prayers. He shall then conclude as follows :

Fill our hearts, O Lord, with a passionate and unwavering love for our fellows. Help us to bring them to Thee. Make us willing to go forward whatever it may cost. Day by day guide us in our work: teach us the best methods. Encourage us with strength in our souls, and let our one aim be to glorify Thee, O Lord Jesus.

Amen.

¶ After brief silence, the Chairman shall say :

Brethren, let us stand and unite in thanksgiving and adoration to the Maker and Saviour of all.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up unto the Lord.

Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

It is meet and right so to do.

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify Thy glorious Name ; evermore praising Thee, and saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts, heaven and earth are full of Thy glory : Glory be to Thee, O Lord most High.

Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men. We praise Thee, we less Thee, we worship Thee, we glorify Thee, we give thanks to Thee for Thy great glory, O Lord God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Amen.

¶ Then shall the Chairman say :

Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly, above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus, unto all generations for ever and ever.

Amen.

APPENDIX VII.

(Reprinted from Minutes, 1925, pp. 65–7.)

THE Conference approves the establishment of the Social Service Lectureship in accordance with the following statement; appoints the Trustees for Wesleyan Methodist Chapel Purposes (Registered) as the Custodian Trustee; and, further, appoints the Board of Managing Trustees as set out in paragraph vii of the statement. The Conference presents its grateful thanks to Mr. J. H. Beckly for his generous gift for the establishment and endowment of the Lectureship:

1. Function of the Lectureship.—The function of the Lectureship shall be to set forth the social implications of Christianity, and to further the development of a Christian sociology and the expression of the Christian attitude in reference to social, industrial, economic, and international subjects.

2. Title, Time, and Place of the Lecture.—The Lecture shall be entitled "The Social Service Lecture." It shall be delivered annually in the place where the Yearly Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church meets, and during its Representative Session.

3. The Lecturers and their Appointment.—The Lecturers (whether or not members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church) shall be chosen from persons who have attained a recognised position of authority in some field of social, industrial, economic, or international research or activity, and who are in agreement with the Christian point of view.

The Lecturers shall be appointed by the Board of Managing Trustees, the Conference not becoming thereby responsible for the opinions of the Lecturers.

4. The Disbursement of the Funds of the Lectureship.—The funds of the Lectureship shall be disbursed as follows:

(1) The Lecturers' honorarium shall be fifty pounds (£50), subject to the handing over, directly after the delivery of the Lecture, of a manuscript for publication containing not fewer than 15,000 words, the copyright of which shall be the property of the Board of Managing Trustees.

(2) The remaining income shall be used to further the circulation of the Lectures, to pay printing, advertising, and other necessary incidental expenses, and to cover loss incurred by the publication of any Lecture.

5. The Custodian Trustee.—The Conference shall appoint as the Custodian Trustee of the invested funds of the Lectureship the Trustees for Wesleyan Methodist Chapel Purposes (Registered).

6. The Board of Managing Trustees.—(1) The Conference shall appoint a Board of Managing Trustees, to which shall be assigned the literary, business, and financial administration of the Lectureship.

(i) Number.—The number of such Trustees shall be thirteen. The Trust shall be reviewed annually, and the number legally maintained from year to year.

(ii) Proportions.—The Board shall consist of (1) the President of the Wesleyan Conference, who shall be Chairman, ex-officio, (2) six Wesleyan Methodist ministers (two of whom shall be ex-officio members, viz., the General Secretary of the Temperance and Social Welfare Department and the Steward of the Wesleyan Methodist Book Room), and (3) six of the laity of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, two of whom, at least, shall be women.

(iii) Vacancies.—The Board shall possess the privilege of nomination to Conference in respect of any vacancy or vacancies upon it.

(2) After the Lectureship has continued twenty-five years, or at any subsequent date, the Conference may direct that the situation be reviewed by the Board of Managing Trustees, who shall report thereon to the Conference. If, after deliberation, the Conference shall decide that the Lectureship can no longer serve a useful purpose, the Conference shall then have power, in accordance with the legally expressed consent of the donor (Mr. J. H. Beckly, of Plymouth), to transfer the endowment moneys to the Wesleyan Methodist Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund in perpetuity, or to any other Methodist fund then in existence for retired Ministers and their widows.

APPENDIX VIII.

METHODIST BROTHERHOOD.

OVERSEAS BUREAU.

(Minutes, 1926, p. 130.)

During the year an organisation has been formed to develop the Scheme for assisting Methodists who desire to emigrate by obtaining Nominations through the Methodist Churches in the Dominions. No direct financial assistance is given by the Committee towards the passages of these migrants, but any accepted under the Nomination of the Methodist Church are assured of employment immediately upon arrival, where housing accommodation is available (in the cases of families) and all such applicants are granted the benefits of the assisted passages schemes available under the Empire Settlement Act of 1922.

Report of the Arrangements with Methodist Conferences Overseas.

Australia.—Following the communications which had been sent conveying the suggestion of the Overseas Settlement Department to assist in the organisation necessary to work the Group Nomination Scheme successfully through the Methodist Churches in Australia, the Secretary of the General Immigration Committee of all the Australian Conferences had sent a draft of the Scheme which it was proposed to submit to the General Conference. This Scheme outlined proposals for going forward with Group Nomination arrangements, also suggesting that a Minister be sent to England for a period of not less than three years to deal with selection of migrants here and for propaganda purposes. A reply had been sent approving the Scheme outlined, but pointing out that work on this side could only proceed as adequate arrangements were made for receiving and placing in Australia the Methodists nominated; also, the heavy cost that would be involved in sending a representative to England. A cable has been received stating that the whole Scheme passed the General Conference, but that the Clause relating to the Representative for this country was referred back for further consideration.

Nominations are now held by the Committee for families for rural occupations in New South Wales and South Australia, for teachers in New South Wales, for boys and domestic workers for Victoria. New South Wales has recently formed a joint Immigration Committee of all the Nonconformist Churches for the purpose of dealing with the reception of immigrants, securing suitable openings, etc. The formation of this Committee should be a great help in carrying out the work successfully.

New Zealand.—Letters have been sent to the Secretary of the Conference and Chief Immigration Secretary as to the General Scheme of Group Nomination, but no replies have been received. From all information, neither the Government nor the Churches seem ready to go forward with Group Nomination.

Canada.—Considerable correspondence has passed between the Rev. Dr. Manning and Sir Robert Perks. A representative of the Y.M.C.A. went out to Canada to negotiate for the working of nominations through Churches, and his mission had considerable success. An Agreement has been entered into between the United Church of Canada, the Y.M.C.A., and the Methodist Brotherhood Committee, whereby it will be possible for nominations to be obtained for suitable Methodists who desire to emigrate to Canada, the Methodist Brotherhood acting on behalf of the Methodist Church of this country, and the Y.M.C.A. dealing with the various other Churches.

Removals Overseas.

During the year notifications of removal of 759 Methodists have been reported to the Department, as follows:

Canada	160
Australia	359
New Zealand	120
South Africa and other Countries	84

Of these 759 persons, 335 were notified as Members of the Church. Each person was supplied with a letter of introduction to the Methodist Chaplain at the port of landing, and the Chaplain was notified as to arrival, in order that a welcome could be given by the Church immediately. The correspondence in connection with this part of the work has involved over 2,000 communications. It is satisfactory to note that the number of removals notified during the year was more than twice the number reported last year. The Committee are aware, however, that this number only represents a small proportion of the Methodists who are leaving this country each year, and would urge upon the Ministers and Officers of the Church the importance of sending information as to removals abroad before the people leave this country. From letters received during the year the welcome given by the Methodist Churches has been greatly appreciated, and has resulted in an immediate renewal of Church Membership.

Report re Methodists Assisted by Nomination, etc.

Through the work of the Committee it has been made possible for 168 Methodists who desired to emigrate to Australia to be assisted. Every Methodist selected to fill one of the nominations is guaranteed a situation upon arrival, and under the nomination is granted the benefits of the assisted passage schemes of the British and Australian Governments. Since the nominations were first received last September, over 230 definite applicants have been considered and personally interviewed in various parts of the country. The applicants who have already sailed are:

TEACHERS TO N.S.W.—5 (9 persons), 1 or more will sail in August.
HOME MISSIONARIES.—2 to Victoria; 6 to Western Australia.
FAMILIES.—26 to N.S.W. (105 persons); 5 to South Australia (19 persons).
DOMESTICS.—5 to Victoria.
BOYS.—2 to Victoria.

OTHER GOVERNMENT SCHEMES.—19 persons who applied to us were found more suitable for Government Schemes—number of others put forward for Government Schemes but no definite report yet to hand.

After selection and approval by the Government, all arrangements are made by the Secretary for their journey; they are met on arrival in London, seen safely on board the boat, handed over to the Welfare Officer of the Y.M.C.A. in whose care they travel and who is responsible for their welfare until they are placed in touch with the Methodist Representative in Australia.

The Chairman of the Joint Immigration Committee in New South Wales, who is also Methodist Home Mission Secretary for that State, sends a very encouraging Report on the first party of ten Methodist families who arrived in Sydney in April. Suitable situations had been found for each family and already a number of the families had expressed satisfaction with the positions found for them. The Members of the Committee in N.S.W. who had come in touch with these new arrivals were very pleased indeed with the type. The Report states, "They seem to be alert mentally, physically strong, and are extremely anxious for work, and all insist that they want work in the country. Our experience with these arrivals gives us a good deal of confidence in connection with those who are to follow. Our Migration Committee was so very greatly impressed with the type of people we are getting, and the value of the work that we are doing, that it decided we must go ahead at all costs."

Since this Report two more parties of families have sailed and a third party, mostly for South Australia, will leave on July 1. The selection on this side of suitable families is not an easy matter, for many details have to be taken into consideration, but every possible care is exercised to send only families who appear in every way suitable and will be likely to make good settlers. Much time and thought has been given during this first year in obtaining information as to the best type of family to select, the various Schemes in operation by the Dominion Governments, regulations respecting Migration to the different States in Australia, etc.

Numerous inquiries for advice and general information as to the best methods of emigration, etc., have been received and dealt with during the year. These inquiries frequently necessitate obtaining special information through the Government Departments, and every effort is made to promote the satisfactory migration of suitable inquirers.

APPENDIX IX.

WOMEN AND THE MINISTRY.

(Minutes, 1926, p. 143.)

THE following are the Resolutions adopted by the Representative and Pastoral Sessions respectively.

1. Representative Session: The Report of the Committee was received and the following resolution was adopted:

> The Conference believes that the proposals made in the Report on the admission of women to the Ministry meet the practical difficulties which were in view, and indicate the way forward. The Conference therefore provisionally adopts the Report, reserving all such questions as are the proper business of the Pastoral Session only.

2. Pastoral Session: The Report of the Committee was received and the following resolution was adopted:

> That, in view of the wide divergence of opinion in the Representative Session, and having regard to the declaration of the Pastoral Session that the serious practical obstacles to the admission of women to our itinerant Ministry interposed both by our organisation and traditions, do not admit immediately of any complete solution, this Pastoral Session of the Conference is unable to accept the proposals of the Committee.

It contains scores of outline addresses on scripture texts embracing all kinds of topics: The Seasons, the Bible, The Sabbath, Temperance, The Outdoor World, Stories of Jesus, etc., etc.; all explained in a fashion that will help the leader of a class to easily fill up a half hour of intelligent and useful teaching.

New Light on Wesley

WESLEY: CHRISTIAN PHILOSOPHER AND CHURCH FOUNDER

By GEORGE EAYRS, Ph.D., F.R.Hist.S. Demy 8vo, cloth, gilt, 288 pp., with portraits by Russell, R.A., and Hone, and map of the Wesley Conversion District and Ordination facsimiles. 7/6 net.

Rev. DAVID BROOK, M.A., D.C.L. (Oxford), says:

"Few have done more in these later years than Dr. Eayrs to increase a knowledge of Wesley. Recent discoveries and fresh side-lights have enabled him to present definitely in this book a Wesley more human, yet no less noble, than previous generations could visualise. He will be admired not one whit the less, while it is possible he may be loved the more."

DR. J. S. SIMON'S STANDARD WORKS.

John Wesley and the Religious Societies.

Dr. Simon has given many years to the study of Methodist origins, and has gained a high reputation for his writings on the Evangelical Revival. Experts will be surprised at the freshness and vividness of the study, and will find that many obscure points are cleared up by this master of research.

John Wesley and the Methodist Societies.

In the present volume Dr. Simon continues the record from the formation of the first Methodist Society, with the same ample knowledge and ripe judgment. The interest of the study grows as Wesley sets out on his mission as the Evangelist of England.

John Wesley and the Advance of Methodism.

In this third volume Dr. Simon treats the eventful years between 1747 and 1756, during which the organisation of Methodism took its essential characteristics. Wesley is portrayed not with the perfervid enthusiasm of a partisan, but with the insight of a lover and the scrupulous fidelity of an historian.
